of every civilized country. For it must be remembered that rogues attempt to get whitewashed in oth r countries besides Prince Edward Island. That they so often succeed in going through the process, the greater the pity. But while the business men of those countries see and deplore the evils that attend the most careful and guarded legislation on the subject of bankruptcy, they nowhere leave the unfortunate debtor to the tender mercies of his creditor—the humane as well as the cruel—the reasonable as well as the unreasonable. As they have done, so must we do. Our legislators must do their best to prevent the really unfortunate man from being crushed to the earth; while at the same time they take every possible precaution to discourage recklessness, extravagance, and dishonesty.

The principal defects of our law seem to us to be two. The first is that it provides no direct means of forcing a man to go into the Court. We think it but right that the creditors of a business man who have good reason to believe that a debtor is either dishonestly or wastefully making away with their property, should have the privilege of calling him to account, and of saving as much as possible out of the wreck of their property. We do not think that one or two of the creditors should have this power of forcing a man into the Bankruptcy Court; but, at any time, we are clearly of opinion, that this power should, under salutary restrictions, be invested in those whose property the debtor may be either wasting, or by dishonest means placing out of their reach. An honest man need not be afraid of the investigatien of his affairs, and the safety of the creditor might make such an investigation absolutely necessary. The knowledge that his creditors had such a power over him, would make a reckless man careful—would induce an extravagant man to cultivate habits of industry and economy, and would act as a wholesome check on one who was inclined to dishonesty; would, in short, tend to keep them all "straight:"

In the second place, the amount of indebtedness necessary to enable a man to take advantage of the law, IS TOO SMALL. The law wss chiefly intended for the relief of business men; but it seems that men who are not now in business, and who have never been in business, are endeavoring to take advantage of its provisions. This, we believe, was not the intention of the framers of the law. This is a defect which can very easily be remedied. The insertion of the words three, four or five hundred pounds, instead of one hundred, will, we believe, make a very decided improvement in the Law.

The Telegraph Line to Cascumpec!

IN our notes of a trip to the Westward, we mentioned that a considerable number of cedar posts intended for the new line of Telegraph from Summerside to Cascumpec, were lying along the Western Road. We are now informed that most of the posts required for the line are cut and ready, and that as soon as the spring opens they will be erected along the whole extent, thus giving direct telegraphic communication with the fishing fleet in the gulf. As this is an object of importance to business men, it is to be hoped that the subscription list in Summerside will be large. The contracts have been taken at the lowest possible figure, and, indeed, cannot be completed without loss, unless the public, who are interested, make a liberal grant in aid. The number of cedar posts required is not much short of two thousand. Messrs. McLennan, Kirwan and Rogers are the Committee to receive subscriptions.—COM.

TROTTING MATCH.—On Saturday last, a Trotting Match came off on the ice in this harbor. Only five horses were entered. The distance was one mile. The first heat the mare owned by James Tuplin (driven by Wm. Tuplin) came in first; "Vulcan," owned by R. Hibbett, second; a mare owned by Stephen McNeill, third; and John Bethune's mare fourth. On the second heat all the horses came in as in the first heat, and the four prizes were awarded to them. The horse "Vulcan" trotted the two heats without ever breaking once, and the last time nearly came in ahead. After the trot was over, about twenty gentlemen, who were instrumental in getting up the race, assembled at the "Ocean House" and partook of a dinner, which was served in Mrs. Hibbett's most excellent style. After the dinner, the company formed themselves into a meeting for the purpose of forming a Trotting Club. R. Hunt, Esq., was called to the chair, and a motion put and carried that the Club be called the "Prince County Trotting Club," and that the entrance fee for membership be one dollar. Richard Hunt, Esq. was appointed President, and C. C. Gardiner, Esq., Secretary and Treasurer.

Hunter DuVar, Esq., who was present by invitation, addressed the Club. He spoke of the good name the Island horses had in the Provinces, and of the necessity of encouraging farmers, in every way, to raise good stock. He also made some very practical remarks on the necessity of the Government giving a license to those horses only that had been inspected by persons competent to judge of the quality of a horse, thus doing away with so many miserable horses that are now allowed to travel.

Some trotting matches are attended with a good deal of noise and drinking, but on Saturday last we saw none of this; everything went off quietly and soberly.

WHAT IS THE COUNTRY COMING TO?—It is said that there were over 250 cases before the Small Debt Court in this Town on Wednesday, the 17th inst. The sooner the credit system, now so prevalent, is done away with, the better it will be for the country, especially for the buyer and seller. We heard of a case the other day where the debt was only 3s. 6d., but after the individual was sued and an execution issued, it was 22s. 6d. Now this was the man's own fault, Many persons thus allow themselves to be sued for a trifling sum. When the debt is a just one the debtor should make an effort to pay it, or come to some understanding with the creditor. In ten cases out of twenty, if delinquents would even deign to call on their creditors, they would not be sued. We know there are many cases that it is necessary to have decided by a Court, for unjust demands are very often made; but the one-half of the cases brought before our Small Debt Courts ought to be settled outside. They only tend, in many instances, to give the parties an opportunity to "pitch into each other." It is really astonishing to find how men of intelligence and respectability will sometimes forget themselves when they have a case in Court, and will endeavor, in the most dishonorable way, to browbeat their opponents. All this should not be, and the only way to prevent it is to do away with the credit system.

☞ On Saturday night and Sunday last there was a slight fall of snow, accompanied by a high wind from the North West.

☞ The individual who, some time since, borrowed a volume of "Hume's History of England" from our office, will please return it and get another.

☞ The Presbytery of P. E. Island met on the 16th inst, in the Presbyterian Church of Lot 14, for the ordination of Mr. Cummings to the pastoral charge of the congregation at that place. The report of the committee appointed to examine Mr. Cummings was received and approved of. Mr. Stuart preached a discourse appropriate to the occasion. The Moderator, Rev. R. S. Patterson, put the question of the formula to Mr. Cummings, and having received satisfactory answers, by prayer and the "laying on of hands," ordained Mr. Cummings to the work of the Ministry. Mr Laird addressed the newly ordained Pastor, and Mr. Frame the people. Rev. Mr. Frame offered prayer, and the services closed. The people welcomed their pastor in the usual manner. The Presbytery then adjourned to meet in Charlottetown on Wednesday, March 21st.

☞ The Patriot says that the Irish Society Dinner came off on St. Patrick's night. About fifty gentlemen sat down to a table well furnished. James Reddin, Esq., President, occupied the chair, with the Speaker of the House of Assembly on his right. After the cloth was removed the usual toasts were proposed. The Queen, the Royal Family, and the Patron Saint being disposed of, the health of His Honor the Administrator was drank with a right good will. Dennis M. Reddin returned thanks on behalf of Sir Robert Hodgson in a speech well delivered. The Speaker of the House of Assembly returned thanks for that body. In Ireland Hon. Mr. Howlan had a splendid subject, and he did it justice. Edward Roche, Esq., responded for the Clergy, R. Reddin, Esq., for the Bar, and Mr. T. Rielly for the land we live in.

☞ It is stated by a gentleman who recently visited Cuba, and has just returned to Boston, that "the insurgents now hold one-half of the Island, and they are confident of success in the end. The Cuban news, he says, which is telegraphed abroad, emenates from the Spanish authorities, and is totally unreliable. It is estimated that there are 30,000 insurgents to 20,000 Spanish troops. The Cubans do not anticipate a speedy termination of the conflict."

The Patriot says that the capture of the great Sea Serpent mentioned in the last Herald, turns out to be a hoax. Some one has been playing a joke on the Queen's Printer. The great sea serpent, says our contemporary, was the Sectarian Education Question.

The trial of the great Nun case in England cost about £250 a day.

The degree of Doctor of Medicine and Surgery was conferred on Mr. John G. McKay, of Hazel Grove, P. E. Island, at the close of the late session of the Medical Department of Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass. He is expected to return to the Island in a short time, and will enter upon the practice of medicine.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—'A Farmer" and "Vox Populi" are in type, but crowded out. We cannot publish "Pedagogue's" letter, as enough has been said on the subject of female Teacher's. Our Boston correspondent's letter came to hand too late for this week.

The Hon. T. H. Haviland and G. W. DeBlois, Esq., have offered to the Government their land on Lot 56, consisting of 18,000 acres, for 11s. 1d. currency per acre, including about £1400 of arrears.

The Pork trade has been pretty brisk in the Charlottetown Market during the past week. Prices ranged from 5d to 6¾d.

We forgot to notice last week, that we had received the March number of the 'Star Spangled Banner," accompanied by a beautiful steel plate engraving of "Longfellow's Evangeline." The picture is worth five times the price of a year's subscription to the Banner. Persons wishing to order it can send us their money and address. Price per year 75 cents.

The Patriot says there are 120 mud diggers at work on the North River, and on Long Creek and Bonshaw as many more.

The heavy thaw of yesterday has taken a lot of snow away, and left much water on the ice.

The vote of want of confidence in the Government, before the Legislature of New Brunswick, was taken on the 17th instant. The Government were sustained by a majority of eight. The debate on the question cost the country $2000.

We are obliged this week to omit over two columns of advertisements. We hope our patrons will forgive us.

It is pretty sure that Dowey will be hung next Tuesday. Like the Hon. Mr. Haviland, we "regret that so repulsive an exhibition should ever take place in this Colony."

The remains of Bro. Thomas Alfred Alley, architect of Victoria Lodge of F. A. M., was interred yesterday with masonic honors by the brethern of St. John and Victoria Lodge. The procession was very large and imposing.—Pat.

It is feared that the following vessels have been lost at sea, viz.—Brig Swift, belonging to J. D Mason, Esq.; brigt Cynthia, belonging to Angus McMillan, Esq., M. P. P.; bark Clara Novella, owned by Peake's Estate, and Sch. Comet and Brigt. Helen Davies, belonging to Hon. D. Davies. The first three laden with oats, sailed last fall for England, and the last two left for the West Indies: and none of them have been heard of since.—Pat.

ANOTHER STABBING CASE.—On the night of the 17th inst., two young men, named Carrol and Pine, went into the house of one Murphy, near the head of Queen Street. Carrol had a quarrel with Murphy during the day, and the moment they met again, it was renewed. Pine interfered, and tried to keep the parties from fighting, when Carrol, who was under the influence of liquor, drew his knife, and stabbed him in the groin, inflicting a wound, which, had it been an inch higher, would have been fatal. Carrol was arrested immediately, and is now in prison awaiting examination when Pine is sufficiently recovered to be able to appear in Court against him. This stabbing business is becoming too common in our midst, and we hope the strong arm of the law will be enabled to check it. —Patriot.

ON Wednesday last a petition signed by the ministers in Charlottetown, a majority of both branches of the Legislature, and a number of others, praying for a commutation of Dowey's sentence, was presented to His Honor the administrator. Sir Robert said he had no power to comply with the request, in consequence of Earl Granville's reply to Dowey's application to the Queen. By the last English Mail, poor Dowey received letters from his wife and mother. He will no doubt be hung next Tuesday. He persists in declaring that he had no intention of killing Cullen, and says he is reconciled to his fate.

The Legislature has voted £5000 for Roads and Bridges.

DISSOLVED BY
WATSON'S SHOLESDION,

WHICH is offered to the public as a perfectly safe, pleasant and efficacious expeller of Worms from the human system. As this preparation contains no mineral ingredient, the administration of it to young children is not followed by the dangerous, and, in many cases, fatal consequences resulting from the use of many of the Vermifuges at present before the public.

A compliance with the directions accompanying it will prove it deserves the character claimed for it above, while the promptness and painless character of its action render it the cheapest and safest remedy for worms hitherto discovered.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

This preparation is a certain cure for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Croup, Incipient Consumption, &c. In confirmation of the highest medical authority that "Consumption can be cured," numerous instances of complete restoration from this disease by the use of the Balsam can be given.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry

This sterling remedy appears to be working wonders. We have so long heard of its superior merit in diseases of the Throat and Lungs that we doubt not its claim of being "the Great Remedy." Many of our most respected citizens who appreciate its uncommon worth from personal use, have attested to the fact by their written testimonials. These are strong recommendations, and should certainly prompt all who suffer from pulmonary complaints in its various forms to give it a trial.—Ottawa Citizen.
