OBITUARY

Inserted by his family MR. ALBRO HOWATT On June 1, 1965, there passed peacefully away at his home in Trigon, Mr. Albro Howatt in his 97th year. He had a quiet disposition and had a large circle of friends and acquaintances. Although well advanced in years, he was remarkably young in spirit. His mind was very alert in regard to each day's happenings and he had a wonderful sense of humour.

While he never took an active part in politics, he was quite interested in changes made both in the House of Commons and the local Legislature. He was always willing to give a helping hand to any person who needed it and was not given to talking about those he had helped along life's stony path.

He taught Sunday school for many years in the Trigon Presbyterian Church. He was a member of Trigon United Church since union and taught Sunday school there for a number of years and was an elder of this church for 40 years. He was for many years a trustee and secretary of the Trigon Consolidated School.

He was born in Trigon on September 25, 1868, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Warren Howatt. He leaves to mourn a daughter, Ruby, and a son, Heath.

The pallbearers were Llewellyn Gamble, Asher Howatt, Everett Howatt, Sr., George Howatt, George MacMillan and John MacQuarrie.

Flowerbearers were Everett Howatt, Jr., Warren Howatt, Harleigh MacKay and Jack Soresen. You were always here beside us when burdens seemed to press. Now those burdens are so heavy Added to their loneliness. But we have the consolation That you are free from care; In the Land where there's no sorrow.

THE BEAUTIFUL LAND OF SOMEWHERE

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the Late Mr. Albro Howatt wish to thank all relatives and friends who so kindly sent flowers, cards and messages of sympathy and all who helped in any way to ease the burden of their bereavement. Also thanks to Dr. A.A. MacLeod who attended him in his last illness.
