

MR. AND MRS. J. H. R. WEDGE

Many Out of Town Guests Attend Lovely Wedding

Early summer flowers formed a charming setting for the picturesque wedding of Mary Alice Doran, B.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Doran of Foxley River, Lot 11, P. E. I. and John Henry Richard Wedge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wedge, Myrtle Street, Summerside, which took place on Saturday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Bridget's church, Foxley River.

Rev. Father McTague celebrated the Nuptial Mass. Present in the sanctuary were Rev. J. D. Kelly, Rev. Lawrence Landrigan of St. Dunstan's University and Rev. Alan MacDonald, Mrs. Gertrude Cahill of Summerside was guest soloist and sang appropriate wedding hymns during the Nuptial Mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her wedding gown of Venetian lace over slipper satin, floor length with the lace forming points over the full length satin skirt, featuring a Sabrina scalloped neckline, with slimfitted waist and long tapering sleeves forming points at the wrists. Her fingertip veil was held by a coronet of rhinestones and pearls. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Stephen Vlachos of Hingham, Mass., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Rita Sinnott, R.N., classmate of the bride was bridesmaid. Miss Sue Vlachos, niece of the bride was flower girl. They wore identical gowns in mint green, powder blue, canary yellow and pink of embroidered nylon organza, made on Princess lines, with Sabrina neckline and featured short sleeves matching boleros. They wore tiny cloches of embroidered nylon organza and carried nosegays of yellow Talisman roses.

Mr. Pierre Ballergeon of Montreal, P.Q., was best man. Mr. Wilfred Gillis of Halifax, N.S. and Mr. George Mullally of Souris, classmates of the groom, ushered the guests to the pews which were suitably marked with ribbon and flowers.

A reception for one hundred and fifty guests was held at the home of the bride. The house was tastefully decorated with flowers. The bride's table, covered with an heirloom lace cloth, was centered with made of embroidered nylon organza in shades matching the bridesmaid's gowns and encircled with white tulle.

Presiding over the silver tea services were Mrs. Ronahan, aunt of the bride and Miss Eleanor Duffy, cousin of the bride, both from
