Maple Leafs Score 4-2 Victory Over Bruins; Habs Defeat Chicago 7-3

BOSTON, Dec. 17 — (CP) — A three-goal outburst in the first period enabled the top-place Toronto Maple Leafs to defeat Boston Bruins, 4-2 before an 8,606 gathering tonight at the Boston Garden.

It was the third straight National Hockey League setback for the home forces.

The first Toronto counter came 38 seconds after the opening face-off when Fleming Mackell polished off a three-man rush with Cal Gardner and Harry Watson. During the third minute, Max Bentley caged Joe Klukavsky's neat setup.

Thereupon the Bruins cut loose with a furious attack and, after playing 10 minutes of the best hockey they have displayed this season, Dave Creighton tallied after Johnny Peirson missed from close-range.

At 19:03, defenceman Gus Morison banged in a long shot to clinch the Maple Leafs' triumph.

The second period was scoreless and during the final finale, rookie Ross Rowe gave Boston its second tally by driving a 50-footer through goalie Turk Broda and Gardner ended the Toronto scoring by converting a Mackell pass from the right boards.

Broda stopped 23 pucks during the evening and Jack Gelineau, Boston net-minder, 23.

Penalties: Kullman, Sinclair. Third Period: 6—Detroit, Abel (Howe, Reise) 0:48 Penalties: None.

MONCTON 7, CHICAGO 3
CHICAGO, Dec. 17 — (CP) — Montreal Canadiens drew two points closer to the third-place Chicago Black Hawks by defeating them in a National Hockey League game before a 9,918 crowd here tonight, 7-3.

Seems pretty certain they won't be able to challenge Lamoureux and his gang for Island supremacy, but it's possible they might clip a few intermediates hopefuls before the March freshets start.

The club is looking now for a president to manage the affairs of the team. To have a full quota of players they may have to take some fairly green material this year, but in any case they will carry on, and that is the spirit that wins.

The cold war between the Summerside juveniles and juniors is still on. Jim Hogan is all for the younger group. Elmer Matheson and Bob Schurman have aspirations to organize a junior club.

There are not enough players to go round, hence the cold war. Schurman and Matheson were targets for a direct hit when Bob's brother Paul and cousin Laysh went to Sussex to play for the junior Rangers there. They were showered with shrapnel again when Mark Delaney followed the other two boys to Sussex to tend goal after Steeves of Moncton, another net custodian, disappointed the Ranger management.

But the junior promoters here dug themselves out and are still planning to ice a junior squad.

Jackie Bernard of Kensington says the Kensington hockey leaders are also planning to organize a junior team, using as a nucleus the juvenile team that did so well last winter. If they do, they may give Summerside quite a battle for Prince County supremacy.

We've seen twelve "Big Four" League games this fall, some of them top in hockey entertainment, but we must place the Sydney-Islanders game ahead of them all. For sustained speed it had all of the others stopped. It was the second game in as many nights for Sydney and three in a row for Lamoureux's Buckaroos, so you can imagine what a battle these teams will put up if they meet later with no consecutive nights' games behind them.

We've heard many post-mortems of this game. Some fans claim Sydney players just struck their normal gait in the last ten minutes of play, and gave the Islanders little chance against the money men. We can't string along with that idea at all. The Millionaires were definitely outplayed for five-sixths of the game and they looked to be playing all-out hockey every minute. Just what happened the Islanders in that last ten minutes is a matter for conjecture. Maybe the blistering pace, after two nights of hockey, was too much for them. It is our opinion that they'll give the Cape Breton blue bloods a real run for their money any time and any place.

Dunc McIntyre looked particularly good Wednesday night. This big fellow is dangerous every time he crosses the blue-line. He ran into some very stiff jolts from the Islanders rearguard, but it didn't slow him up a bit. Cupolo and Hildebrand were just as smooth as the press raves about them indicate, but Cal Bowness, whom Chamberlain judged to be definitely N. H. L. timber, must have had an off night. He wasn't in the picture at all.

Chandler that they did not intend to rehire him, the former United States senator from Kentucky has announced he will remain in his $65,000 year job until the present contract expires.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16 — (AP) — A four-man screening committee was named today to sift the candidates and eligibles for the job baseball commissioner A.E. Chandler has been told he won't have after May 1, 1952.

Ford Frick, president of the National League, named Lou Perini, president of Boston Braves, and Phil Wrigley, owner of Chicago Cubs, Will Harridge, president of the American circuit, picked Del Webb, vice-president of New York Yankees, and Ellis Ryan, president of Cleveland Indians.

Of the four, Webb and Perini are listed among those who voted not to offer another contract to Chandler at St. Petersburg, Fla., earlier this week.

Hawks-St. Mary's Trade Falls Through

HALIFAX, Dec. 17 — (CP) — A three-for-one trade between Halifax St. Mary's and Moncton Hawks of the Maritime Senior Hockey League fell through during the week-end when two of the Halifax players involved decided to return to their Ontario homes.

Original plans were for Saints to trade Gordon Miller, Bobby Digeur and Tom Buck in return for high-scoring Rod MacKenzie.

Then Miller and Buck decided instead to return to their homes and Moncton would not agree to a straight Digeur for MacKenzie switch.

Digeur will remain with Saints to fill the spot left by the injury to Wally Black, expected to be out of action for about a month with a side injury.

INGLEWOOD, Calif., Dec. 17 — (AP) — The competition was stubborn and the decision close, but Hill Prince finally hit the winners' circle at Hollywood Park Saturday with victory in the $50,000 sunset Handicap.
