AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers.
The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious ex-posure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed nights after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me."
—H. C. FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight, in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, —MRS. LAMA DENNEY, 102 West 128th St., New York, May 19, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried."
—A. J. CRANE,
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL."
—JOSEPH WALKER,
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles."
—E. BRADDON,
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Subway.

Sir,—It is passing strange how fond some men are of appearing in the press with lengthy epistles, in which they labor hard to impress public opinion with their profundness on questions of the day. I now refer you to a lengthy letter, signed J. H. Bell, which appeared in the Patriot yesterday, and to another short epistle, by an anonymous writer, complimenting our people for possessing such a prodigy of learning, etc., as J. H. Bell. The complimentary epistle was, no doubt, written by the editor of the Patriot, who like all other Grit editors, has never had the pluck to come out in an editorial and cast any reflections on Senator Howland's honesty in connection with the subway scheme, knowing well that public opinion all over the Island and in the sister provinces strongly approves of the Senator's untiring patriotism in this matter. Mr. J. Howland's letter is written in the same disguised style as that by the Patriot's editor—not from a desire to instruct our people, as he would have you believe—but evidently to stab the Senator, and Sir John's government, and at the same time endeavor to place himself before the Grit electors of Prince County for the next election. Your correspondent has been credibly informed by one who was present at the subway meeting held in Summerside, that it was quite too late, it being after 10 o'clock when the Senator finished his address, and to have heard Mr. Bell (before putting the resolutions to the meeting) through with one of his too well-known fulsome, tiresome speeches, could have been too much night.
If Mr. Bell would learn to "boil his complaints down, and put them in a concise, logical way, keeping politics out of the question, and at the same time be natural and modest—as becomes a stranger starting business in a new town—then the good people of Summerside when the time arrives will extend to him that courtesy which ability and honesty always commands.

Sir,—The chief inducement that led the people of P. E. Island to enter Confederation was the stipulation for efficient and continuous steam communication, winter and summer, between this Island and the mainland, and whereas, this clause of the Terms of Union still remain unfulfilled—
Resolved, that in the opinion of this meeting it is the imperative duty of the Dominion Government to carry out the terms of their contract without further delay; also Resolved, that this meeting, having heard Senator Howland's explanation of the proposed Subway across the Straits, is of the opinion that the Dominion Government should, at the coming session of Parliament, adopt measures with the view of testing the feasibility of the subway scheme and, if found to be feasible, to grant a sum sufficient for the construction of the same at as early a date as possible.
That the thanks of this meeting are due and are hereby tendered to Senator Howland for his able and instructive Address on the occasion; and for his exertions in bringing the subject of the Subway so prominently before the public.

A Resolution was also submitted by a delegation from the Black Bush Debating Society, giving their hearty concurrence to any scheme that would facilitate communication with the mainland.

After the resolutions were read and adopted, short complimentary speeches were made by Sheriff McDonald, Dr. Mc-Intyre and Dr. Muttart. Three rousing cheers were also given for Senator Howland and the Subway, after which the meeting was brought to a close.

The Subway.

PUBLIC MEETING AT SOURIS—THE SCHEME APPROVED.

The Court House at Souris East was crowded on Tuesday evening the 31st inst., to hear the Hon. Senator Howland's explanation of the Subway by which it is proposed to connect the Island with the Mainland. Michael McCormick, Esq., occupied the chair, and the undersigned was appointed Secretary.

The Hon. Senator on entering the Court House, was warmly applauded. Commencing his address he briefly stated that in bringing the matter of the proposed Subway before the people of Prince Edward Island he had nothing to do with party politics. Twelve years ago, when the Island entered Confederation, the two most important questions which engaged the attention of the delegates who negotiated the Terms of Union, were the land question and the question of inter-communication. The land question had happily been settled, but so far as winter communication was concerned the Terms of Union yet remained unfulfilled. Heretofore the greatest obstacle with which the members from the Province had to contend in pressing on the General Government the necessity for faithfully carrying out the terms of their agreement, was the fact that no feasible scheme had been propounded whereby the great difficulty attending winter communication might be overcome.
He now felt confident that the proposed Subway would remove that obstacle.
It had received the approval of the best engineering authorities in Canada and the United States; and it was therefore the duty of all parties to unite in pressing on the Dominion Government the necessity of at once ordering a thorough investigation to test the practicability of the scheme.

The Senator then proceeded, with the aid of a model of the proposed Subway, charts, soundings of the Straits, &c., to explain the actual method of constructing the work. The address occupied about two hours in delivery, and was attentively listened to throughout. At its close, Alexander R. Beaton, Esq., came forward and proposed the following Resolutions, which were seconded by John McLean, Esq., M. P. P., and unanimously carried:

Resolved, that the chief inducement that led the people of P. E. Island to enter Confederation was the stipulation for efficient and continuous
steam communication, winter and summer, between this Island and the mainland, and
still remain unfulfilled—
Resolved, that in the opinion of this meeting it is the imperative duty of the Dominion Govern-
without further delay; also
sum sufficient for the construction of the same at
as early a date as possible.

was brought to a close.

Mount Stewart Notes.

On the 1st inst. the Good Templars had a very pleasant evening, tea being provided by the ladies of the order. About fifty partook of the good things of this life, after which the company retired to their lodge-room, where they were entertained by speeches, readings, singings and recitations.
Every one seemed to enjoy themselves,
