MATURE AND PART TIME UNIVERSITY STUDENTS MEET

MAPUS (Mature and Part-time University Students) held its first monthly meeting of the 1983-4 year on Monday, September 19th. Thirteen students attended, and the Extension Department was represented by Betsy Epperly and Anna Sawicki

The group discussed library hours, evening courses, the lack of cyclic programming, and the possibility that the Student Union is thinking of charging part-time students a Union fee. The meeting expressed strong concern that Olive Bryanton negotiate with the Student Union about the proposed part-time Student Union fee. Students present approved a working executive: President - Olive Bryanton Vice-president - Gail Cormier Secretary - Serge Valade

The next meeting will be on Monday, October 24th, in the Main Building Faculty Lounge at 7:00 p.m. ALL WELCOME!
