Representation of the Northwest Territories.

SIR JOHN MACDONALD has taken the first step towards obtaining for the Northwest Territories representation in Parliament. The first thing he did after his illness was to introduce a bill providing that on a date to be fixed by proclamation there shall be elected in the Northwest Territories representatives in the Parliament of Canada.

That a humble address be presented to Her Majesty representing that for the good government of the several territories forming part of the Dominion of Canada, and not included within any province thereof, it is expedient that provision should be made for their representation in the Parliament of Canada, and praying that she may be graciously pleased to cause a measure to be laid before the Imperial Parliament to empower the Parliament of Canada from time to time to make provision for such representation.

He said it would be remembered that in 1871 the Imperial Parliament passed an act enabling the Parliament of the Dominion to form provinces out of the territories which we had acquired by the arrangements with the Hudson's Bay Company, and when the territories were formed into provinces giving Parliament the power of extending to them the right of representation. In 1871 an act was passed to do away with any doubts as to their power to make the province of Manitoba a province, and their action in that regard was confirmed by an Imperial statute, the first clause of which was as follows:—

"The Parliament of Canada may from time to time establish new provinces in any of the territories forming for the time being part of the Dominion of Canada, and not included in any province thereof; and may at the time of such establishment that was to say, establishing such a territory as a province make provision for the constitution and administration of any such province, and for the passing of laws for the peace, order and good government of such province, and for its representation in the said Parliament."

Thus it conferred upon the Dominion Parliament the power of declaring a territory to be a province, and when declared to be a province to give them representation in the Dominion Parliament; but it does not provide that a territory which is not declared a province should have representation in Parliament.

By the resolution the Imperial Parliament is simply asked to invest the Dominion Parliament with power to provide for the representatives of territories.

Gladstone's Supporters.

Those of the Liberal Party who support Mr. Gladstone in His Home Rule proposals, are strong to identify themselves with the workingmen of the United Kingdom. Thus, at the mass meeting held in London on the 22nd inst., Mr. Labouchere, alluding to the recent Conservative anti-Homo Rule meeting at the Opera House, said that "Lord Harrington was an honest man, Mr. Goschen an able man and Mr. Rylands a fluent man, but they had no more right to speak in the name of the people of England than had the three tailors of Tooley street. There were, he continued, no persons on the stage decorated with orders, and no fashionable beauties in the boxes, but there were present laborers from the field and from the workshop, who had met to raise their voices in support of Mr. Gladstone's efforts to pass the bill granting Home Rule to Ireland."

This is good play. If the great enfranchised majority in England and Scotland can but be made to take issue on the Irish question against the great minority of land owners and their sympathizers, Gladstone's triumph is certain.

Smallpox Expenditures.

A DEPUTATION consisting of His Worship the Mayor, His Honor the Recorder, Councillors Crabbe, McLeod, Morris, and Mr. Blake, M. P., waited yesterday upon the Leader of the Government, Hon. Messrs. McLeod and Prowse, and represented the claims of the City Board of Health on the Provincial Exchequer for the payment of expenses in connection with the suppression of the smallpox. After some conversation, the Leader of the Government promised that the matter would be favorably considered.

The Montreal Gazette notes that the revenue and expenditure of this Province amounts to "barely a quarter of the annual outlay of the city of Montreal, though to look after its disbursement there is a legislature of two branches, and a lieutenant-governor with all the machinery of a constitutionally governed state."

The St. John Telegraph of Saturday says the Rev. A. A. McKenzie, B. D., of London, England, will occupy the pulpit of St. Andrew's Church to-morrow (Easter Sunday), at both sites of worship. Mr. McKenzie is a native of P. E. Island, and his commanding pulpit talents secured him a church in the commercial metropolis of the world, and he is now on a visit to his native land.

Easter Meetings.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

The annual general meeting of the congregation of St. Paul's Church, was held last evening, the 26th inst.

The yearly statement, as presented by the Church Warden, was unanimously adopted.

The following gentlemen were elected as Vestrymen for the ensuing year:— H. J. Cundall, John Ings, Warden; F. L. Hazard, George Peake, James Lewis, S. Lowe, F. T. Newbery, P. Pope, Vestrymen.

Delegates to attend the Synod: Charles Palmer, H. J. Cundall, and R. R. Fitzgerald, A. B. Warburton as substitutes, W. H. Aitken, Auditor.

A vote of thanks was tendered the ladies and gentlemen of the choir and Mr. Earle, their leader, for their valuable services during the last year.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH.

The annual Easter meeting of St. Peter's Congregation was held in the Boy's School-room last evening. The attendance was large and the meeting an interesting one.

Accounts for the past year were presented and approved of, and estimates for the incoming year were submitted. Messrs. Arthur Peters and W. A. O. Morson were elected Auditors for next year. A considerable increase in the amount guaranteed by envelopes was reported for the new financial year. A vote of thanks was accorded the retiring Church Wardens, also several gentlemen in England for kind services rendered the congregation. Messrs. Thos. Green, W. H. Stewart, and Lawrence W. Watson were re-elected Church Wardens. Hon. T. H. Haviland and Mr. E. J. Hodgson were elected delegates to the Diocesan Synod, with Messrs. L. W. Watson and F. de St. C. Brecken as substitutes. After the Chairman had received a hearty vote of thanks, the meeting adjourned.

The Oddfellows' Entertainment.

The entertainment in the Market Hall last evening, which concluded the Oddfellows' Natal Day celebration, was well attended and much appreciated. The first part consisted of "The Overture to Masiniello," and the operetta, "The Barber of Bath." The characters in the operetta were fairly well sustained by Messrs. Ball, Strong, Gillespie and Earle, the singing and acting in many instances being very good indeed. The second part, made up of select concert music, was opened by a "Chorus from Cinderella," with orchestral accompaniment, by Earle's Glee Club, which was well rendered. Miss Earle's solo, "At the Wicket Gate," was sung with much taste and sweetness, and rapturously encored. Mr. Vinnicombe's violin solo was played as only he can play, and was also encored. The beautiful "Bell Trio," from Pinafore, which came next to the programme, was not sung owing to a bereavement in the family of a relative of one of the performers, but instead, Mr. Rogers, of Montreal, sang two comic songs which "brought down the house." The solo and chorus "Jolly Jack Tars," by sailors in costume, which concluded the second part, was very nicely rendered. The third part opened with the operetta "The Blind Bargain," the performers being Messrs. Strong, Taylor and Gillespie. It was rendered in capital style, the singing and acting of Messrs. Strong and Taylor being far superior to that of many professionalists "from the leading theatres," who visit the Island. The "Sleighing Quartet and Chorus" by Earle's Glee Club, which brought the entertainment to a close, was skillfully rendered, and the audience dispersed well satisfied with the evening's amusement.

Canadian Cod Liver Oil.

A deputation consisting of Dr. Jenkins, (P. E. I.), Messrs. Kaulback, Dodd, Paint, Stairs, Landry (Kent), Grandbois, Riopel, McDougall (Picton), Burns, M. P.'s, and several other gentlemen, waited on the Ministers of Marine and Fisheries and Finance on the question of the manufacture of medicinal cod liver oil and fish guano. It was represented that the object of the deputation was to get the Government to encourage manufacturing interests of great importance, namely, medicinal cod liver oil and fish guano. Specimens of Norwegian and Newfoundland cod liver oil were produced, and it was affirmed that the oil which could be manufactured in Canada would be quite as good as the oil of Norway and Newfoundland, as the cod livers were equal in quality. Documents were produced from several persons connected with the manufacture of cod liver oil, and also other testimony. The Ministers said that they were pleased to see the deputation, and were very much interested in the matter put before them.

Complimentary Dinner.

On Saturday evening, the 24th inst., the Liberal-Conservative Club of New London gave Messrs. Henry and James M. Square a complimentary dinner at the Eureka House, Stanley. These gentlemen are moving from New London to Pinnette, on the south end of Queen's County. It is needless to say they are held in high esteem by the people of New London generally, and great regret is expressed at parting with such good members of society.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. McNeill, President of the Club, assisted by Thomas Reid, Esq., Vice President. The usual toasts were proposed and responded to by the members of the Club, after which the several parties retired well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

WM. HOGAN, Secretary.

Hops River, April 26, 1886.

The Myrtle Navy tobacco is not burdened with the usual costs which swell the price of most articles to the consumer; the firm simply so travellers whatever their orders seem to them instead of being sought by them. The merchant does not require to keep a large stock on hand—swelling its price with interest, for the factory is an immediate source of supply to him, at the cost of a postal card, or at most a telegram. He loses nothing, therefore, from being overstocked. The article is a staple one, for which there is as constant a demand for wheat or flour, and the merchant can therefore, sell it at a minimum rate of profit.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

The Irish Question—A Suggestion.

SIR,—What has always struck me, as one of the finest passages in the whole range of British eloquence, is that part of Burke's speech on the prosecution of Warren Hastings, where the great orator dwells on the sublime spectacle of the people of England, resenting as their own, the wrongs inflicted on the people of India. Another grand and imposing spectacle, which has won the admiration of the civilized world, and which surpasses in sublimity that referred to by Burke, has just been witnessed in Westminster—that of Gladstone pleading for the recovery of the long lost freedom of the Irish people. It is not the first time the noble veteran raised his eloquent voice before the same audience in behalf of Irishmen. It is only a few years since, by the power of his genius, he succeeded in rescuing Ireland from the thraldom of an alien church, which lay like an incubus on her for three hundred years. Every one acquainted with contemporary history, knows the sacrifice he made in 1873, in favor of a more extended system of Catholic University education in Ireland. It is only a few weeks ago since the distinguished Archbishop of Dublin, Dr. Walsh, in a speech at Blackrock, bore eloquent testimony to his efforts in that direction.

Now, as Irishmen the world over, are profoundly stirred by the stand which Gladstone has taken in the House of Commons, would it not be well for some member of our House of Assembly, representing an Irish constituency, and following the example set by other countries, to move a resolution thanking the greatest of English statesmen for his noble efforts in behalf of the downtrodden people of Ireland. There is scarcely a doubt that a resolution to that effect would be unanimously carried by both branches of the legislature. We see what the Parliament of Quebec has done and how highly it was appreciated by Gladstone. Everything that it is possible to do, should be done by the friends of freedom of every creed and clime in order to nerve the stalwart arm of the mighty genius, for the tremendous battle to take place on the second reading of the Bill. A great battle assuredly it will be—the battle of the giants, and let the issue be what it may one thing is certain that the country whose orators boast of her being the "home of freedom and the mother of parliaments," cannot much longer withhold from Ireland the parliament of which she was so shamefully robbed. It is just as true to-day as it was seventy years ago, when poor Byron in a last effort to rouse the slumbering souls of the degenerate Greeks, and to inspire them with a desire to emulate the spirit of their forefathers, told them that "Freedom's battle once begun, Bequeathed by bleeding sire to son, Though baffled oft is ever won."

Yours truly,

GALWAY.

Man's Inhumanity to Man.

The schooner Eldora, Capt. John Creaser, of LaHave, which left Halifax some days ago for the Grand Banks, returned Saturday morning, having on board the captain and crew of 21 men of the Public schooner Uncle Sam, 95 tons register. The Uncle Sam left LaHave on Saturday for the Grand Banks, calling at Halifax. She left again on Sunday, arriving on the Banks on Monday. In a Herald reporter's conversation with one of the crew of the Uncle Sam, he said: We arrived on the Banks Monday morning. Fish were not over plenty, but every one was happy, and everything was running along first rate until Thursday afternoon, about 4 o'clock, when the cabin was discovered to be on fire. All hands were on deck at the time dressing fish, and no cause can be given for the fire. We all turned to and endeavored to extinguish the flames, but we found we could do nothing with it, and there being 10 or 15 pounds of powder in the cabin, which might explode at any moment, we concluded to take to the boats. About 15 minutes after we left the ill-fated ship in our dories, the powder exploded and greatly damaged the hull. But we managed to get on board again and saved what we could, securing some flour and beef, besides a quantity of tackle and sails. After getting all we could, we rowed to the schooner Bagha B. Nickerson of Both Bay, N.E., commanded by Captain Nathan Nickerson, of Cape Cod. All of the crew of the Nickerson, except the captain and two men were Nova Scotians, having been sent for this spring by the owners of the Nickerson. We told him what had happened to us and asked to be taken on board. He first said he would take four of us. When about one half of our crew got on board he requested us to leave, saying if we left he would take the other half on board for the night. We refused to leave till our captain arrived, who with the other half of the crew was still on or near the wreck of the Uncle Sam. About an hour later the captain came, but on his asking permission to stay, was told by Nickerson that he could not. We asked him to let us sleep on the deck all night and we would be satisfied. He told us we could not and pointing to another schooner three miles further away, told us to go aboard of her, as he thought she was an English schooner. At the same time he remarked that if he could not come to Nova Scotia for men he would not take our ship-wrecked men on board. Seeing he did not want us, we would not stay, although the majority of his crew were in favor of our staying. We left him at 9 o'clock and rowed to the other schooner, reaching her about 10 o'clock. We found her to be Eldora, of LaHave. We were cheerfully taken on board and treated well. In fact we could not have been treated better. The Eldora had just come on the Banks and the day we boarded her was her first fishing day. The Nickerson had been on a week and had four quintals of fish.

The Presbytery of P. E. Island will meet at Summerside on 4th May, at 11 o'clock, a. m. Business—Assembly Minutes, Reports on State of Religion, Sabbath Schools, Temperance, Statistics, and of moderation in a call, petition for moderation in a call at Richmond Bay East, appointments, &c.

There are several Gloucester vessels waiting for crews. Will the Salem Telegram kindly send along some of the men whom it don't want to see cheated out of a job by foreign competition?—Cups Am Advertiser.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

APRIL 26. HOUSE met in the evening and passed the Bill to amend the Common Law Procedure Act, 1873. Hon. Mr. SULLIVAN has given notice that he will, at an early day, move the House into a Committee of the Whole to consider the expediency of introducing a Bill respecting the Legislature and Government of this Province.

APRIL 27. Country members have returned, after enjoying their Easter holidays, and look as if they meant business.

Canadian Convicts' Revolt.

A despatch to the Halifax Herald says a very curious outbreak took place Saturday afternoon at St. Vincent de Paul Penitentiary, Quebec, the convicts revolting against the authority of the guards. The first sign of insubordination occurred in the stone shed where about forty convicts were working under the supervision of six guards, when suddenly a man named Viau, who was sentenced to seven years for escaping from prison, put up his hands and immediately the convicts stopped working, seized the guards, simultaneously relieved them of their revolvers, and bound them. The revolt soon spread to another shed, where the same process was repeated. Chief Warden Laviolette then appeared on the scene, and was also gagged and bound. Then the convicts went to the tailors' shop, where they dressed themselves in civilian clothes and endeavored to escape over the stone wall. Reinforcements of guards arrived and commenced firing with fatal results. A man named Cariveau was shot through the heart, and dropped dead; and Warden Laviolette was so badly wounded that he is sure to die. He was shot through the thigh and stomach, and another bullet went in at the back of his neck and came out of his mouth. Luckily, none of the convicts escaped, but all the ringleaders were strongly secured.
