"We Three Pens"

Sung to the tune of "We Three Kings"

We three pens that write so much
Making notes for classes afar
On a notebook or a scribbler
Writing for a mark

REFRAIN:

O pen of writing get it right
Please don't run out tonight
Exams are coming keep proceeding
Please make our marks all right

Born to write on a sheet that's plain
Red ink to paper again
Write forever ceasing never
I've got a paper due again

(Repeat refrain)

Five exams to write have I
If I don't do well I'll fry
Praying to God you will keep on writing
Please keep on writing so high

(Refrain)

Oh no you have run out what bitter perfume
Now my marks will be doom and gloom
Sorrowing sighing breathing dying
I will pun you back in your tomb

(refrain)

Glorious now the ink will arise
Thank the Lord for this pen so nice
Alleluia! Alleluia!

At least the pen has finished its reply
(repeat refrain)

—Wendell Blackett

"We sat in a little cafe, quietly drinking our Earl Grey tea in the candlelight. I gazed into his stunning green eyes as he read the article on the table in front of us. As he finished, he looked up, smiled, and kissed me on the forehead.

"That was wonderful", he said. And what about the question I had asked him earlier?

"Yes," he said, "I want to join the Gem." I knew then that the night I had dreamt of for so long would be finally be ours."

Fulfill your wildest dreams—Join The Gem.
