THE LABOR RIOTS

The Military in Charge at Coal Creek.

CHICAGO, Aug. 19th.—Reports from Knoxville say: 3000 miners at Coal Creek armed with all kinds of weapons, began an attack on 150 soldiers, and were defeated. Twelve miners killed and twenty wounded. Brigadier-General Carnes telegraphed that all the miners have unconditionally surrendered to him. Coal Creek is in the hands of the military authorities.

Salvationists Satisfied.

TORONTO, Aug. 17—At a meeting held to-night of local staff officers of the Salvation Army a statement was drawn up and signed by all the officers present expressing their thorough satisfaction with the explanation given by commandant Booth in respect to the resignation of Brigadier Phillpot. This would seem to be the sign that the threatened trouble in the Army here has evaporated.

The Worcester's Mishap.

PORT HAWKESBURY, August 17.—The Worcester will likely be placed on the marine railway here to-morrow. Previous to her striking on Bad Neighbors shoal, the fog lifted considerably, enabling the steamer to run along the shore. Some of our old nautical salts consider it was bad judgment to be running so close to the shore at full speed. She would be about 10 miles out of her reckoning where she struck. While the Dorcas was making the hawsers fast to the Worcester preparatory to towing her to Hawkesbury, D. A. Ferguson, one of the seamen of the steamship Dorcas, in wrenching the hawser in from the barge Annie McNairn, the hawser pulled the handle out of the seaman's hands and one of the handles struck Ferguson across the top of the head, making a deep cut about five inches long. Dr. P. A. Macdonald put five stitches in the wound.

The Ladies College.

The advertisement of Mount Allison ladies college and conservatory of music appears in another column. Since last year there are two changes in the personnel of the staff. Mrs. W. W. Andrews, wife of Professor Andrews, and B. Sc. of Victoria, takes charge of mathematics and Miss Laura Lathern, daughter of Rev. Dr. Lathern and a B. A. of Mount Allison, takes the department of English. Miss Anna Mack during the summer has been pursuing her study of voice culture taking a course in New York. In the conservatory of music the faculty will be the same as last year. Two of the teachers are graduates of Stuttgart conservatory, and of Leipzig, one of the New England conservatory and two pupils of eminent German teachers in the United States. Miss Ada F. Ayer has charge of the violin department and the indications are that the class will be a large one under her able tuition. The calendar gives an interior view of Lingley hall, with its pipe organ, which is at the disposal of pupils for practice and recitals. Mount Allison ladies' college was first opened for students in August, 1854, and now after an honorable career of all those years, under the able principal of Rev. B. C. Borden, it is in a more prosperous condition than ever before. The term begins on September 1st

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Prohibition in Kansas.

SIR,—I was much pleased this a.m on reading the letter of W. H. Rogers from Amherst. I have not got the figures Mr. R. gives, but I am under the impression that there must be some mistake in the figures following, "Kansas alone under prohibition from 17,482—during the same period—to 1,650" Now, Sir, from a document in my hand—and of which you have a copy—I find on page 11, "Sales of Malt Liquors in the United States," "The following are the official figures of the sales of small liquors in the various States and Territories, for the two years ending May 1, 1891."

Among those States and Territories Kansas holds a prominent place, the sales in 1890, were 2,700 barrels, while 1891, gives only 2,050. Now, any of our common school children can prove that the difference between those two sets of figures for 1890-1 shows 650 of a decrease. Kansas, as has been recently shown, has not gone backwards. Has Mr. L. P. Kribb's, who is set forth as an "expert in figures" any means of verifying those figures?

Yours, &c., &c.,
A PROHIBITIONIST.

Montague News.

MONTAGUE, Aug. 17, 1892.—On Tuesday, the 16 inst., the four Sabbath Schools of Montague Bridge together with S. S. scholars from adjoining settlements assembled on the beautiful grounds of Peter A. Dewar to hold their annual picnic. About 200 S. S children together with a large number of teachers, parents and visitors made quite a large gathering. Two large tables capable of accommodating from 50 to 60 persons were spread on the lawn, and from three until after five o'clock the kind ladies who presided were kept busy and were certainly satisfied that their labours were duly appreciated, judging from the pleasant faces that surrounded them and the manner in which the good things provide disappeared; when not occupied at the tables the young folks enjoyed themselves on swings or in Athletic sports.

I notice that our celebrated Athlete, Mr. B. F. Stewart, was busy all the afternoon superintending and giving hints and exhibitions of the best method in racing, jumping, vaulting, &c.

About 6 o'clock, after many expressions of pleasure and thanks for the kindness of Mrs. and Mr. Dewar, each took up their several ways resolved to meet some "ither day."

On the 18 inst., the Farmers' Association of Cardigan are to hold a tea at that place we hope that they will have a fine day, and that they will enjoy themselves. I do not think the dancing part of the programme will be much inducement to the staid farmers of this section of the county to leave their unfinished hay or white harvest fields.

Harvest has commenced in some sections. J. M. Aitken cut a field of white oats yesterday. Oats and wheat are generally a light crop, but apparently well filled root crops are looking exceedingly well; the potato bug, although numerous does not appear to have injured the vin much.—Com.

THE COMMISSION

Some Interesting Evidence

The Mayor, the Stipendiary, Judge Hodgson and others speak.

The Liquor Traffic Cursed of God.

Prohibition Favored—The Scott Act on Trial—Judge Hodgson on Fermented Wines.

The Royal Commission on the Prohibition of the liquor traffic began its enquiries here on Friday morning in the Supreme Court Room. Sir Joseph Hickson, the chairman did not come to the Island, and in fact appears to have deserted the commission.

Judge McDonald, of Brockville, Ont., of the County Court judiciary is the acting chairman. He is an Episcopalian, and especially interested in Sunday schools.

E F. Clarke, M. P.P. of Toronto, was mayor of that city four years. He is looked upon as a liquor man.

Mr. Gigault, is a Frenchman, a devout Catholic and the Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Quebec.

Rev. Dr. McLeod is a Baptist clergyman and the editor of the Religious Intelligencer.

Mr. Monaghan, the secretary, is a prominent member of the Sons of Temperance of Nova Scotia.

Mr. Kribs, the liquor dealers representative is a newspaper man—a portly gentleman with long flaxen hair and a general air of ease and good living.

Mr. Spence, the Temperance Champion, everybody knows and respects.

The proceedings began Friday shortly after 10. There was a small attendance during the morning, but in the afternoon quite a crowd was present.

Mayor Haviland (sworn). Have been mayor for the last six years. (Described liquor laws under which we have been working. During the old licence law there was a good deal of drunkeness, under the Scott Act this decreased. I think the Scott Act was beneficial to the city. Towards the end of the Scott Act the law was not enforced as well, owing to a majority of the council being in strong sympathy with the liquor fraternity; in the three lower wards, which were over represented, the liquor sentiment was stronger than in the upper wards. The city officials held their offices under good behavior. There was at one time a special inspector appointed.

When the majority of the council was opposed to the Scott Act the inspector was dismissed and the office given to the City Marshall. The majority against the Act was 14 at last election and at previous election 17 majority for the Act. The liquor traffic not only demoralizes our own people but people from the country. The 9 years of the Scott Act improved our people. I attribute the non-enforcement of the Act as due to the forces against it. The defeat of the Act was due to the people standing aloof from the temperance cause. The stipendiary acted fearlessly in enforcing the Act, but the majority in the City Council hindered the police from enforcing the law. I would prefer the officials appointed by the Dominion Government. I think a prohibition law could be enforced throughout the Dominion for the benefit of the people.

To Mr. Clark—The Scott Act was in force from 1880 to 1891, carried at first by a majority of about 400. I believe the Scott Act educated the people. In 1890 the people voted the Act down by a small majority. I presume the liquor sellers sold to those who wanted to purchase.

I have known four out of the members of the City Council, at one time engaged in the liquor traffic, while the Scott Act was in force, acting illegally. I believe the Scott Act was a good Act. I am under the impression that drunkenness decreased under the Act. I have never noticed any decrease or increase in the attendance at church. There was not as many votes polled at the Scott Act election as at a parliamentary election. There was a great many illegal rum shops. There were no open sales under the Act, but persons had no difficulty in procuring liquor. I see people now going into a bar room who would previously slink in through a back way. Under the license law on market days people would go home helpless in their wagons under the influence of liquor. Those people would not be fit to go to church on Sunday.

To Mr. Gigault.—There is more drunkenness now than under the Scott Act. There is a great deal of drunkenness at present. Temperance in drink is not as yet taught in the public schools. The law to this effect is not yet in force. The Temperance societies do all they can to prohibit intemperance. The W. C. T. U. work in the interest of temperance, night and day.

To Dr. McLeod.—I believe there was more liquor dealing in the lower wards than in the other. For years I have not tasted anything in the way of spirits. I take a glass of wine now and then if I feel week, but I would vote with

"They thought I must die."
"THE STRONGEST STATEMENTS COULD NOT TELL HALF IT HAS DONE FOR ME."
Hereditary Liver Trouble,
ENLARGEMENT OF THE LIVER,
Diagnosed by the best Physicians, CURED.

GENTS:—My father died of Consumption of the Liver, many in my family have died with the same disease, and a large part of the time for the past two years I have been very sick, no appetite, bowels alternating between Constipation and Diarrhœa. Pains all over my body and severe pains all through my Liver. So nervous I could not sleep nights, and in fact BETTER was much emaciated and run down. My Physician said I had Enlargement of the Liver.

The day before I commenced the use of SKODA'S REMEDIES, I had two different Physicians call upon me. People thought I must die. I had doctored so much and taken so many different kinds of patent medicines, without any benefit, that when SKODA'S DISCOVERY was brought to me, I threw away doctor's medicines, and THAN began its use.

Soon I commenced to gain; my appetite increased; from being weak and feeble I began to grow stronger; bowels assumed a natural condition; sweet and refreshing sleep came to me nights; I began to increase rapidly in flesh.

I have now taken less than a full course (six bottles) of SKODA'S DISCOVERY, with SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS, and to-day I COLD am strong, am able to do my own work. In fact, am well and happy. The strongest statement I could make would not tell half your wonderful Remedies have done for me.

Respectfully yours,
