Toronto Stocks

TORONTO, (CP)—Base metals led mining stocks lower on the Toronto stock market Wednesday.

Weakness in base metals showed early and by early afternoon a sell-out hit other sections of the market.

Western oil price changes were small and the group closed with gains balancing losses. Base metals' index lost almost a point on the day and both seniors and juniors closed weak. International Nickel, however, hit a 1954 high.

Golds closed steady to a little easier. Uraniums, holding companies and Manitouwadge issues ended firm but Bathurst stocks eased.

Willroy was the day's most active stock, turning over 437,000 shares, hitting a record high of $3.65 and closing up 67 cents on the day.

Some uraniums were also active. Chimo climbed 32 cents after rumors of renewed activity on its Beaverlodge holdings and Faraday gained 19 cents. Radiore and New Mylamaque eased. Marbenor gained pennies in heavy turnover.
