He was educated in the city schools and at the University of New Brunswick, after which he took a business course at the Belleville Business College at Bellville, Ontario. He joined the Kitchen Contracting Company of Fredericton as accountant and paymaster, with whom he remained for fifteen years, during which time they built many branch railway lines and other public works in the Maritimes, including the Murray Harbor and Montague branches in this Province.

Mr. Burden's qualities of heart and mind pointed him out for positions of distinction and honour. He had been, a Justice of the Peace, Town Magistrate for the town of Montague, Accountant for the Montague Furnishing Company Ltd. and Secretary Treasurer of the Montague Electric Company, Ltd. A commissioner for taking affadavits in the Supreme Court and a commissioner in King's County for taking proofs and acknowledgements of deeds and wills.

Mr. Murden was a lover of music and particularly admired the masters. He was a citizen which Montague can ill afford to lose. A loving husband; a kind father and a man who had a host of friends. He was a stauch supporter of every good couse.

Besides his widow, who was formerly Miss Ada M. Campbell of Pownall, he leaves to mourn five children: Margaret R.N., Charlottetown; James, of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Charlottetown; Gladys, Lucille and George at home, to whom the Guardian extends its most sincere sympathy.
