

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

DECEMBER 19, 1889.

The Mails.

The letters and papers mailed here yesterday laid in the post office last night and until about one o'clock to-day; they will arrive in Picout this evening after the departure of to-day's trains and be held there to-night; and they will leave Picout tomorrow, just twenty-four hours behind time. On the other hand, the mails for this Province from the Upper Provinces, the United States and New Brunswick, arriving at Picout at 8.30 p. m., will, under an arrangement made by the Postmaster of Charlottetown, be received here tomorrow forenoon, about seven hours sooner than if the Stanley made Charlottetown her starting point.

Chickens Coming Home to Roost?

The Patriot is not in a very agreeable mood over the revision of the Voters List for Queen's County.

We do not wonder very much at that, as the Grit party have completely lost the unfair advantage which they gained at the revision of 1886.

At that time, no organized effort was made by the Conservative party to register their friends, and no objection was made by them to a single vote in the whole County. The Grits, on the other hand, led on by Mr. L. H. Davies, by means of double registration and the insertion of the names of unqualified persons, and by objections taken on technical grounds to the votes of hundreds of Conservatives, succeeded in securing a majority on the list.

The tables are now turned. The Conservatives have added, in the preliminary and final revisions of this year, between seven hundred and eight hundred more new names than their opponents, and they have succeeded in removing, in the same revisions, over three hundred names of Grits possessing no qualification, in excess of the number of Conservatives which Mr. Louis Davies has succeeded in removing from the list.

It is no wonder that Mr. L. H. Davies should feel sore and begin to rave about the approaching end of somebody's political career!

The respectable Grit voters who have lost their right to vote have no person but Mr. L. H. Davies to blame for that result. Three years ago he took advantage of his knowledge of the Franchise Act, gained by his presence in the Parliament that passed it, and made technical objections to the votes of intelligent electors who happened to be registered in the wrong polling district, or who, by a printer's error or a slip of the pen, were erroneously registered.

Such men as Mr. Wm. Stewart, Grafton Street, Charlottetown, Robert Lawan, Esq., of Beakley Point Road, and scores of others who were voters when Mr. L. H. Davies was a puling infant in his cradle, and who are still voters, were disqualified through his efforts. The objections were written out in his own office, and the notices proved by his confidential clerk. In the same manner Messrs. Hubert Perry, of Charlottetown, Patrick Kiley, and Peter Kiley, of Bedford, and many others were struck off the list at Mr. Davies' instance because the printer or copyist had changed a letter in a name.

At the revision of this year, Mr. Davies started on the same course. At Rustico he took objection to over one hundred names, many of them on purely technical grounds; and he did the same in almost every polling district of the County.

In respect to the votes at Rustico the objections were not only made out in his own office, but they were signed by his partner, James M. Sutherland, no local man being willing to shoulder the responsibility.

In Charlottetown, Mr. Davies presided for nearly two months over the labors of his faithful followers, and objections were written out to the names of about three hundred Conservative electors; but through his blundering and incapacity, these objections fell to the ground. In the same manner the Grit electors who were depending on Mr. L. H. Davies to give notice of correction in their cases, found that they leaned on a broken reed. Mr. Davies neglected his business, and they lost their votes!

The conduct of Mr. L. H. Davies in scolding Mr. Ferguson for having beaten him in the field of his own choice is very much like the bad natured complaints of a school-boy who calls for sympathy because he has come off second best in a quarrel of his own provoking.

The Patriot's resume of the results of the revision in Charlottetown is sadly lacking in the essential element. If nearly as many Conservatives as Grits had been struck off, the Patriot would have little cause for displeasure. The bad temper displayed in the article of yesterday is the best answer to the Patriot's figures.

Every day we are greeted with the exclamation, "What lovely boots, and how cheap! Always go to the Dominion Boot and Shoe Store for your boots if you want solid satisfaction."

We know of no more desirable or timely present for Christmas than a pair of the beautiful skating boots selling so cheap at the Dominion Boot and Shoe Store.

Meeting of Presbytery.

REV. MR. SUTHERLAND INDUCTED INTO THE PASTORATE OF ZION CHURCH.

The Presbytery of Prince Edward Island met in Zion Church on Wednesday evening, the 18th December, at 7.30, and was duly constituted by the Moderator, A. B. McLeod, with whom were present Messrs. A. McLean Sinclair, J. G. Cameron, W. P. Archibald, A. Raulston, James Caruthers, G. MacMillan, A. W. Mabon, W. M. Tufts, J. M. McLeod, H. Dickie, Jas. M. MacLennan, J. W. Mackenzie, Ministers; and W. T. Huggan and T. C. James, Ruling Elders.

The Rev. A. McLean Sinclair preached a suitable sermon from the text Mat. xx., viii., and 20, "And lo, I am with you always unto the end of the world;" and, after divine service, narrated the steps. The congregation having united in singing a part of the 72d psalm, the Moderator put the usual questions of the formula, all which were answered by Mr. Sutherland. Then, having engaged in prayer, he, giving Mr. Sutherland the right hand of fellowship, said: "In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only King and Head of the Church, and by the authority of this Presbytery, I induct you to the pastoral charge of this congregation, and admit you to all the rights and privileges thereto pertaining. The members of presbytery then came forward and gave Mr. Sutherland the right hand of fellowship."

Rev. W. M. Tufts then addressed the newly inducted minister, and the Rev. A. Raulston delivered an admirable address to the people, after which Mr. Archibald led in prayer for the divine blessing upon the union this day formed, that the Almighty might bless the congregation in the future even as in the past.

The congregation then joined in singing a part of 122nd Psalm, after which the Moderator pronounced the Benediction. Mr. Sutherland is a young man of much promise, and enters upon a large field of labor in the vigor and freshness of his manhood; but, from the enthusiastic meeting of last evening we are sure success must attend his ministrations in Zion Church.

Obituary.

Departed this life at Pleasant Hill, Lot 49, on the 4th December inst., at the residence of Albert Boswell, Esq., in the 42nd year of his age, after three weeks illness which he bore with Christian resignation to the Divine Will, Allan McDonald, son of the late John McDonald (deceased), of Mount Albion, Lot 48. The deceased was a faithful and trustworthy servant of Mrs. Boswell for over twenty five years, and by his fidelity, industry and moral worth, not only gained the esteem and respect of Mr. Boswell and family, but that of the community generally. The deceased was attended during his sickness by Drs. Taylor and McNeill, and nothing was left undone that medical skill could devise to restore him to health and usefulness, but all unavailable; death did its work. The deceased was followed to his last resting place, Pownal Cemetery, by a large concourse of people of different denominations, to pay their last tribute of respect to a pious and charitable member of society. Too much praise cannot be accorded to Mr. Boswell and family for the kindness, care, and attention paid to the deceased during his affliction. Indeed, Mr. Boswell esteemed the deceased as much as if he was one of his own family. The deceased leaves a mother, four sisters and four brothers, all of whom are absent from the Island, with the exception of two brothers, to mourn the loss of a dutiful son and brother. The deceased was a man of rare intellectual endowments, and a near relative of the late Rev. Angus McDonald, P. P., who was so favorably known by the public generally. A Narrow Escape.

Capt. Walsh, keeper of the lighthouse at the mouth of Summerside harbor, had rather an unpleasant experience on Monday last. Taking with him a rough frame sled, and a pole, he started home from the lighthouse. He found the ice all right on the flats, but when crossing the channel, about 11 o'clock, he broke through, and only that he managed to get on a pan of ice, would, no doubt, have gone under. Several persons saw him on the ice, but thought he was a man from the Bedeque side, out fishing smelts, and paid no attention to him. Shortly after noon, however, he was seen waving his coat on the pole, and heard shouting for help. Pilot Dunn and Mr. A. Grady put a boat on a sled, and started at once to the rescue, and succeeded in bringing the Captain ashore between one and two o'clock in the afternoon. He was not much the worse of his dangerous adventure, as he kept himself from freezing by walking back and forth on the pan of ice above referred to, and which gave him a promenade of a few feet.—Journal.

Notes and Comments.

—There is a great deal of force in the following remarks by an unknown exchange: "Everybody reads newspapers, and there are many who will tell you that if they edited a newspaper they could do it far better than the editor himself. It is a popular delusion, among numbers of our fellow-creatures, that it is the simplest thing in the world to run either a newspaper, a theatre, or a railroad. Some seem to think that no special training is requisite in the man who produces or works on a newspaper. According to them, anyone without the slightest trouble, can get all the news to be found in the city, and write the editorials besides. There never was a greater error. Journalism is at once a trade, a profession, and a business. To be a successful journalist means also that a man is a careful and prudent business man, who has, besides the talent to write and direct public opinion, to collect news and do a hundred and one things of which the world outside a newspaper office, knows nothing. It takes years to learn how to do the routine work of a newspaper, and there are many men who could never learn newspaper work at all."

On the Use of Campbell's Wine of Beech-Tree Creosote, in Diseases of the Lungs and Throat.

IN the South of France, where all persons threatened by Phthisis go to be treated, where Doctors Bouchard and Gimbert, the two specialists so highly recommended by public opinion, have experimented with all the proposed medicines against Pulmonary Tuberculosis, it is the one prepared to-day, and that which for ten years past they have finally adopted, after many comparative experiences, based upon the anti-septic method, having specially in view the destruction of the Bacilli.

After a few days' use of the remedy, the expectoration diminishes, and very soon one is pleased to witness the gradual disappearance of the Bacilli, the breaking off of the fever and the rapid recovery of appetite and strength.

When instead of confirmed Phthisis, Catarrh or Chronic Bronchitis have to be dealt with, the different forms of which may sometimes give rise to an uncertain diagnosis, they have always been cured. Those excellent results need not astonish us, if we consider the lucky natural disposition of complete anti-septic and balsamic principles in the compound we now describe. When our Wine shall have restored health, it will be well not to discontinue its use at once, and at all events to use it again about a fortnight before winter sets in, and at every change of a season followed by damp weather.

DIRECTIONS.—A small dessert spoonful three times a day, after each meal, gradually increased to a large dessert spoonful.

N. B.—The use of Cod Liver Oil, as a powerful assistant to the remedial properties of the Wine, is recommended. Campbell's "Skril" Oil being the best, is the kind which should be taken. Sold by C. H. FRANKIN, Charlottetown, nov6-lyed
