THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JUNE 20, 1896.

HOW WILL CANADA STAND?

THE triumph of the Republican party in the elections of next November is a foregone conclusion. Consequently the nomination for the high office of President of the Apostle of High Protection is a matter of great interest and significance—to us. That the nomination was made on the first ballot and afterwards confirmed by an unanimous standing vote of the convention shows that the Republican party are practically unanimous and solid in respect to the protection policy. The platform adopted in connection with the nomination of McKinley has for its principal plank the following:

"We renew and emphasize our allegiance to the policy of protection as the "bulwark of American industrial independence and the foundation of American an development and prosperity This "true American policy taboos foreign "products and encourages home industry. "It puts the burden of revenue on foreign "goods; it secures the American market "for the American producer; it upholds "the American standard of wages for the "American workingman; it puts the factory by the side of the farm "and makes the American farmer less dependent on foreign "demand and price; it diffuses general "thrift and founds the strength of all on "the strength of each. In its reasonable "application it is just, fair and impartial, "equally opposed to foreign control and "domestic monopoly, to sectional discrimination and individual favoritism. We denounce the present Democratic tariff "as sectional, injurious to the public "credit and destructive to business enterprise. We demand such an equitable "tariff on foreign imports which come "into competition with American products as will not only furnish adequate "revenue for the necessary expenses of "the government, but will protect American labor from degradation to the wage "level of other lands."

If our readers will but read the word "Canadian" where the word "American" is placed in the above quotation they will see a number of good reasons why they should vote for the Liberal Conservative candidates! It is evident that in view of the adoption of higher protection by the United States, we are, in duty to ourselves, bound to stand fast by the National Policy. Under the present United States' tariff—which is called a revenue tariff—most of the articles that we produce are shut out of the United States' markets. We shall be in a much worse position as to those markets after the new McKinley tariff shall have been put into operation. It would be madness—utter madness—under such conditions as will then obtain to lower our duties and open our markets to American producers.

Some persons may urge that the Republican party are also in favor of Reciprocity, and will be ready to enter into reciprocal arrangements with us. Not if we, first, take away or lower our duties. Not if we place Canada in the same position, or anything like the same position, under the tariff, as Great Britain is placed. Great Britain cannot obtain reciprocity of trade with any nation. Why? Because her markets are already open and free. Neither will Canada obtain reciprocity with the United States if she should abandon the N. P.

At any rate, the United States' Government, under Harrison and Blaine, refused to reciprocate trade with Canada, unless Canada would agree to discriminate heavily against the Mother Country. We may be sure that no more favorable terms will be obtained from the United States under the McKinley administration.

From every point of view, it is clear that the material interests of Canada, under existing conditions, are bound up in the maintenance of the National Policy.

THE WHITE FEATHER.

THOSE who doubt the statement published by THE EXAMINER, that the Liberals have shown the white feather in twenty-three constituencies may, perhaps, be satisfied when we name names. In the following constituencies there are no Liberal candidates. The opponent of the Government is, in all these cases, a member of another party than that which follows Mr. Laurier:

East Bruce—Patron.
Cardwell—McCarthyite.
Glengarry—Patron.
East Grey—Patron.
North Hastings—Independent.
South Lanark—McCarthyite.
Lennox—Independent.
South Norfolk—Patron.
East Northumberland—Patron.
Prince Edward—Patron.
South Renfrew—Prohibitionist.
South Simcoe—Independent.
East Toronto—McCarthyite Conservative.
West Toronto—McCarthyite Conservative.
West York—Patron.
Champlain—Independent.
Compton—Patron.
Quebec West—Conservative.
East Assiniboia—Independent Conservative.
West Assiniboia—Independent Conservative.
Albert—Independent Conservative.
Kent—Independent Conservative.
Brandon—McCarthyite.

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

—This is, emphatically, not the time for a change.

—In view of the prospective higher Protection in the States, this is not the time to lower our defensive tariff!

—Liberal speakers fail to attend some of the meetings held in the country; but their co-laborers don't fail to go round with the whiskey bottle.

—Tarte, McShane, Pacaud, Langelier et al will shortly be told to keep their hands off the treasury and hang up their "soup ladles" for another five years.

—Are we to understand that the Guardian approves the flooding of the country with whiskey. We see no condemnation of the Grit missionaries in recent issues.

—Halifax Herald: Will the people of Canada, with their eyes open, walk into the business slough of despond just at the very time when the United States are getting out of it.

—There is reason for sensible men in the United States to breathe easier to-day. The declaration by the Republican committee at St. Louis in favor of a gold standard is a big step away from a great business danger.

—A Kingston despatch reports that Rogers, Patron, returned by acclamation for Frontenac, states that he is going into Parliament to support the Patron interests, and outside of that he would support the Tupper administration if it returned to power.

—Chairman Laurier: The motion, as amended, stands thus: Resolved, that the planks of the Liberal policy be: Tariff for revenue, only with a moderate amount of protection, with Free Trade as they have it in England, but every vestige of protection removed. All in favor of the motion say aye, contrary nay—ayes have it.

—Mr. Rogers, the Patron candidate, is an old-time Conservative, and he is in hearty sympathy with the National Policy. Altogether the Conservative leaders are well satisfied with the result of the nominations, especially as the Liberals defaulted, nearly twenty constituencies in Ontario, leaving the field to the Government and the Independents.

—Some of the cuts in which Sir Charles is represented that appear from time to time in the Patriot and elsewhere, remind one of the crude attempts of naughty boys in early school days to draw their master in some ridiculous guise. Such work is not only childish, but pitiable in the extreme, when engaged in by adults. To designate those miserable drawings as "cartoons" would be enough to discourage anyone working in that department of art.

—The Liberals have no candidate in fifteen Ontario constituencies, no straight party men in four Quebec constituencies, two Northwest Territories, one N. B. county and one county in Manitoba, while the Conservatives have candidates in all the constituencies of the Dominion except Quebec county, West Bruce, West Elgin and South Oxford, which are known to be grit hives. This fact gives great encouragement to the Conservative leaders, who are jubilant over the prospects.

—In Quebec Mr. Dupont, conservative, is returned by acclamation for Bagot. He has sat in the house for some years and is one of the rising men. Bernier, liberal, who voted against Laurier on the remedial question, was declared elected in St. Hyacinthe. This constituency is a hive of liberals with a majority averaging five hundred. In Berthier, Beausoloil was a liberal in the last parliament, but broke from Laurier towards the end of the session and is now opposed to him. His return is practically a conservative gain.

—After the elections of 1891, and before any of the the bye-elections were held, the standing of the two parties was as follows:

	Con.	Lib.
Ontario	48	44
Quebec	30	31
Nova Scotia	16	5
New Brunswick	13	3
Prince Edward Island	2	4
Manitoba	4	1
Northwest Territories	4	—
British Columbia	5	—
Total	122	92

Conservative majority, 30.

—The electors of Ontario are not going into the fight blind-folded. They know that the repeal of the protection tariff means the wiping out of Canadian manufacturers, the destruction of the farmers' home market, the opening of the sluice gates to the surplus of American mills, the blotting out of our hopes of an Imperial zollverein and preferential trade with Great Britain and a measurable approach to absorption in the United States. The electors of Ontario know all this and on Tuesday their votes will ring out with no uncertain sound for the Government.

—The following is a comparative statement of the expenses of the Canadian office in London for the year 1872, under Conservative rule, and for 1875, under grit rule:

	Tory rule. 1872	Grit rule. 1875
Postage	$ 688	$1,262
Contingencies	348	2,112
Newspapers	76	1,438
Freight	1,359	1,190
Furniture	68	4,080
Rent	428	5,866
Salaries	4,286	6,602
Travelling	130	469
Printing and stat'y.	661	6,002
Advertising	1,380	8,344
Extras	113	675
Travelling case	.....	576
Taxes	.....	451
	$9,734	$49,155

This of course is only a trifling increase of about five hundred per cent, but what is that compared to the "reckless extravagance" of Tupper, spending sixteen cents for two wooden spoons, and actually one shilling and sixpence sterling for a common every day dust-pan.

—The Rochester, N. Y., Democrat and Chronicle thus sizes up the Canadian situation:

"The Conservatives in Canada are making an argument against their Liberal opponents by pointing to the unstable character of reciprocity treaties with the United States. The repeal of the reciprocity clause of the McKinley law by the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill is cited as an example. One of the principal aims of the Liberals is to secure more intimate trade relations with the United States, and the Conservatives are able to show, from the miserable performance of the Cleveland administration, that reciprocity with the United States is not to be relied on for Canadian prosperity. A still better argument would be that the American people do not want reciprocal trade with Canada, because the products of the two countries are too nearly alike for satisfactory interchange. Annexation is the only remedy for Canadian isolation. The Liberals know this, but do not proclaim it as a party doctrine.'

THE METHODIST CONFERENCE.

ST. JOHN, June 18.

The usual Conference prayer meeting was conducted by the President, Rev. J. Howie, and was very refreshing.

Dr. Carman took the chair and gave out Hymn 661, and the Rev. George Steele, Secretary, read John x., and the President engaged in prayer.

Dr. Carman addressed the Conference, expressing gratitude to God for the blessings which have been resting upon us. He came with greetings from the brethren in the west. They especially requested him to do so. He gave an account of his visit to Port Simpson District in the Great West. He was still impressed with the greatness of the country God has given us; marvels of nature out there; 1200 miles of coast through narrow waters, which makes the journey very impressive; wonderful wealth in the mountains and in the seas, God's mighty depositions. He found the Port Simpson District ablaze with revival. He had the notion that the Indians were a dying race, but it was corrected by his visit. He believed that the Indians were, without the Gospel, like ourselves, a poor perishing race; and the Gospel would save them soul and body. The first thing to do is to strike at the centre of man and save his soul, but it is a terrible mistake to stop there It will lift men soul and body. The great change between the missions, where only a ritualism is carried and where the pure gospel is carried, is that in one case the Indian is still almost naked, with his blanket alone to cover him, and the other a comfortable home, and the girls and boys playing in the streets of the cities. Don't play at mission, but go at it for life—like such men and women as Bro. Crosby and wife. Difficulties have arisen: (1) Government agencies; (2) Salvation Army. Government agencies may have a right there, but not to discriminate against the Methodist Church. The Army may have a right to go where they like, but why should they go into the great fields of the missionary churches? Why don't the Salvation Army go to the new fields and do real and hard work for themselves? The difficulties arise from the fact that the other churches and the agencies have someone on the ground to settle the troubles, but we have to work through committees at Toronto. We ought to have authorities visiting these places at least once in two years. He had been a President of a college, and had found "a great deal depended on being 'carelessly around,'" and a man on the ground would help the Indian mission work. Something is necessary to counteract the influence of the men who wink at the violation of liquor and other laws. The B. C. conference is in a very excellent and progressive condition. In every sense the present excitement of the country was needing a word, and his belief was that the country must be in harmony with the kingdom of the Lord Jesus Christ. What we need are men of true and honest convictions. He would not say what party should or would deal with the school question. One might give by concession and the other by coercion, but it is not a matter of which party or which way, but the right and the proper way to deal with the question. Let them have separate schools and pay for them, but I am unwilling to have a law that would turn the denominations into tax gatherers. He only desired what was right and good to the advancement of the glory and honor of the Lord our God. On for a holy ballot. Jesus Christ must conquer political economy before he can conquer the world. Let us have a righteous ballot and I care not which party wins.

After the enthusiastic address of the General Superintendent the roll was called and 76 ministers and 30 laymen answered to their names.

The elections resulted as follows:

Rev. T. Marshall was elected President on the first ballot, taking 64 out of 117 votes cast, the next highest was Rev. R. W. Weddall, 17.

The Rev. Geo. Steel was re-elected secretary by 92 votes out of 114 cast

The Rev. G. W. Fisher was re-elected journal secretary, and the Rev. James McConnel assistant secretary. It was resolved to rush business in order to close the conference by Monday night next.

Votes of thanks to the retiring officers were unanimously passed and acknowledged. Committees were set to work.

Nominating committee: T. Pierce, C. H. Hutchings, J. N. Parker, McN. Shaw, T. L. Williams, J. M. Fripp, E. Ramsay, Geo. Reed, T. Allen, J. M. Palmer, Dr Sprague, G. S. Wall.

Some of the delegates have been hunting this city over to get a P. E. I. paper, but alas! as a stationer told your correspondent "you are the first who has asked for a P. E. Island paper for five years" Surely we ought to get a sight of a paper from home at the Y. M. C. A.—Yes there is one copy of the Semi-weekly Guardian dated June 9th., but that's too old. It's like stale bread; it needs toasting to make it eatable.

Afternoon session was taken up with reports, organizing committees, etc.

The decision of the Court of Appeal in re the appeal of Rev. Dr. Stewart regarding the placing of the names of hired local preachers on the station sheet, was read sustaining the appeal. A communication respecting the photographing of the members of the conference was read, and on motion the conference wished to be photographed in the church.

The Union Church Relief Fund Committee reported receipts, $122.91, and the Rev. C. H. Paisley was re-appointed Treasurer. The Glen. Con. fund report showed receipts $233 20, and Rev. Job Shenton was re-appointed Treasurer. The Rev. C. H. Paisley was appointed Secretary, and Dr. Allison Treasurer of the Educational Committee. There is a net increase on the conference of $385.67 in this fund. Charlottetown churches report $114.28 of this increase.

The following were recommended to attend college another year. Josiah Champion, L. J. Leard, L. R. McDonald, H. Stanley Young. The Rev. Mr. Paisley reported on the supernumerary augmentation fund. He had visited a large number of circuits during the year, but 70 or 80 circuits yet remain unvisited. He had up to the present time received subscriptions amounting to $13,000, and had collected $5,100 during the year. Over $100 in legacies has already been reported this year besides the above. He had no doubt that in the five years the entire $25,000 will be raised

Several memorials were sent in to the Children's Fund. Amongst them were those from Charlottetown First Church and Bedeque and Tryon circuits, P. E. Island, asking for reductions in the assessments next year.

The work is going forward very favorably, and there are no hitches.

"MECHANIC" HEARD FROM.

SIR,—The Hon. Louis Henry Davies is now distributing his smiles and his bows in prodigal profusion. The number of people he remembers, and their fathers and forefathers for generations back, is astonishing. That is just the difference between him and Dr. Jenkins. The Dr. makes no distinction between the rich and poor, and he is the same after the election as before. If all the money were collected that is due him by poor people in Queen's County for medical services he would not be the poor man he is to-day.

Electors of West Queen's, are you going to return again a man who has deceived you for the last eighteen years with cries of Free Trade, Unrestricted Reciprocity, Commercial Union, Tariff for Revenue, and Heaven knows what else? Are you going to vote for a man who knows you when he wants your vote, and turns his back on you to-morrow?

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER

SIR CHARLES IN TORONTO.

A Splendid Reception.

GREAT MEETING IN MASSEY HALL.

Sudden Death of Hon. John Beverly Robinson.

TORONTO, June 20.

One of the largest meetings ever held in the Massey Hall, a building capable of seating 5000 people, was held last night in honor of Sir Charles Tupper, who delivered a convincing speech on the leading topics of the day. He had received despatches from all the provinces assuring the success of the Government. The magnificent receptions that he had received during his Ontario tour was a satisfactory guarantee that the old premier province would stand by the National Policy.

The meeting was marred by a very sad event that was concealed from the audience. Among those announced to speak was Hon. John Beverly Robinson. He arrived shortly before eight o'clock and as Sir Charles Tupper was proceeding to the stage Mr. Robinson said he would step into an ante-room as he was not feeling well. He had scarcely crossed the threshold before he reeled into the arms of a friend and died instantly of heart disease. Hon. Mr. Robinson, who was 75 years of age, was a son of the late Sir Leekin Robinson. He was Mayor of Toronto and represented this city in the Dominion Parliament and was Lieut. Governor of Ontario for two terms. He was one of the most popular men in the city.

THE SITUATION IN OTTAWA.

Three Members Already Elected.

Tide Running in Favor of Conservative Candidates.

OTTAWA, June 20.

The Clerk of the Crown in Chancery has received returns to three of the writs for the general election. They are those from Bagot, Brockville and Frontenac. All three members elected,—Dupont, Beausoleil and Rogers—will vote with the Government in the election of a speaker.

The election of both Conservative candidates in Ottawa is now regarded as beyond question. All along some uncertainty has existed as to the effect of the candidature of the McCarthyite candidates. But McVeity having publicly stated that his sole object in running is to defeat one or both of the Conservative candidates, wholesale defections from his ranks have resulted. The Liberals, by coquetting with the McCarthyites, have also destroyed any chance of electing Bellcourt, their French candidate.

ILLNESS OF SIR LEONARD TILLEY.

Not Likely to be Immediately Fatal.

ST. JOHN, June 20.

Sir Leonard Tilley came in yesterday from his summer boarding place, Rothesay, suffering from his foot, which had been slightly injured a few days ago Today he became much worse, and is now very low. There is little hope of his recovery, but it is not thought that the disease will prove immediately fatal. At a late hour last night the doctor reported "no important change."

A Third Candidate Retired.

MONTREAL, June 20.

Stanley Bagg, the second Conservative candidate in St. Lawrence division, has retired in favor of Mayor Smith, the regular nominee of the Liberal Conservative party, who will now sweep the division.
