Annual Meeting Irishtown W.I.

— The annual meeting of the Irishtown W. I., was held at the home of Mrs. David Campbell, with the president, Mrs. Wilfred Campbell presiding, and opened as usual with the ode and creed.

Twenty members answered roll call by paying dues, and two new members were welcomed.

Mrs. Borden Campbell reported articles bought for the school.

The sick commmittee reported calls made and treats taken to members, and Mrs. Borden Campbell, Mrs. E. W. Johnston and Mrs. Kenneth MacLeod were appointed as the new sick committee.

The Red Cross convenor, Mrs. Devid Campbell, reported a box of finished garments sent to Headquarters.

It was announced by the president that John Robert Lamont Campbell's Book contest had been discontinued.

Adressing the members and visitors, the president spoke of the many projects in which the W. I. had taken part, noting especially that of raising funds for the new hall, which, she said, 'stands as a monument as it were, of the spunk and initiative of this group and the community," and added that having been successful so far, "we may even attain greater heights". However, she suggested that there should be a lighter side to our activities, and advocated more "fun and enjoyment". She thanked the secretary for her help, Mrs. Kenneth MacLeod and family, who had made it possible for her to attend meetings, those who had opened their homes for meetings and social events, and voiced her appreciation to the building committee and all others "who had made possible the new community hall."

The secretary treasurer reported a heavy financial year.

Mrs. E. W. Johnstone introduced the question of joining the Drama Festival Association and after some discussion it was decided to make up the necessary two dollars by collecting from the members.

Mrs. David Campbell was appointed to the chair for the election of officers for the ensuing year.

For the office of president, Mrs. John Pickering, Mrs. Harold Mcleod and Mrs. Archie Johnstone were nominated and Mrs. Pickering was elected, with Mrs. Harold McLeod becoming vice-president.

Mrs. Archie Johnstone and Mrs Archie Paynter were elected secretary and treasurer respectively Auditors are Mrs. Halsey Profitt and Mrs. Leigh Paynter, and directors, Mrs. Thomas Campbell, Mrs James MacLeod and Mrs. John E MacLeod.

The new president addressed the meeting briefly, and thanked the members for the honor accorded her.

Sereval communications were read by the secretary.

The matter of donations for the hall was discussed, and the matter of a concert was considered. A committee was appointed composed of the following members — Mrs. Clayton Stavert, Mrs. Borden Campbell, Mrs. Halsey Profitt, Mrs. George T. MacLeod, Mrs. Robert Stavert and Mrs. Archie Johnstone.

It was moved by Mrs. Harold MacLeod, seconded by Mrs. Wilfred Campbell and carried that the members bring Christmas gifts for the hall, instead of exchanging as formerly.

A vote of thanks was extended to Mrs. Robert Stavert, for the use of her home for two suppers.

Mrs. David Campbell offered her home for a card part and dance on Tuesday, Nov 14th. Collection amunted to $2.61.

The meeting closed with the National Anthem. Lunch was served by the hostess and the committee in charge Bur.

O'Leary and Vicinity

— Children of grades five to ten of the O'Leary School enjoyed a fine evening of National Film Board films in the school on Wednesday night. The following films were show: "It's fun to sing", Canadian Cruise", "Return of the Buffalo", "Teeth are to keep" and "Stand by to jump". There was a splendid attendance of fifty-five.

It was with a feeling od deep regret and reluctance that the congregational meeting of the Alberton pastoral charge of the United Church of Canada agreed to Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick's request for a change in pastoral relationship effective the end of the Conference year, which is June 30th., 1951. During his three year term as the minister of the Alberton pastoral charge which includes Tignish and Cascumpec, Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick has had an outstanding ministry. He is an earnest and persuasive preacher, a faithful pastor and an earnest servant of our Lord Jesus Christ. He has been in great demand as a speaker at Church anniversary services and special Women's Missionary Society Thankoffering services. He has taken an active part in the activities of the P.E.I. Presbytery, the Western Presbytery Young Peoples Union and in the West Prince Ministerial Association. Mrs. Fitzpatrick has also been very active in the Sunday School, the W. - M. S. and the other organizations of the Church.

Mr. Arnold Culleton of Alaska School section, not far from West Devon, met with an unfortunate accident on Wednesday, Nov. 22nd when he fell on a pitch fork while working in his barn on his farm. He was taken to O'Leary where he was given preliminary medical aid and then taken to the Prince County Hospital in Summerside on Thursday, Nov. 23rd where his injuries were X-rayed. The full extent of his injuries could not be ascertained at the time of mailing these notes but while painful and severe, they are not believed to be of a critical nature. His many friends wish Mr. Culleton who is a very popular young man, a speedy convalescence. His father, Mr. Henry Culleton has recently left for Ontario to visit friends.

This correspondent was among the friends of Mr. J. Watson MacNaught M.P., Parliamentary Assistant to the Minister of Fisheries who is with a group of government experts visiting Australia and New Zealand, to receive a beautiful post card from Auckland, New Zealand. It was mailed on Nov. 15th via air mail and reached O'Leary Nov. 23rd. Mr. MacNaught says: "This has been a very enjoyable trip so far. New Zealand is a very pretty country". The post card contains a view of Auckland, N. Z. from the air.—O

BIRDLESS AGE?

JOHANNESBURG — (CP) — South Africa's prehistoric cave-dwelling artists showed little interest in birds, says Dr. C. Lowe, leading archaeologist. Birds are rare in the thousands of prehistoric rock paintings that have been discovered, except for the ostrich which cannot fly.
