MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER—A large number of friends and relatives gathered at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Bowness, Malpeque Road, on Monday evening, June 26th, to tender a miscellaneous shower to their daughter, Miss Alexie. The house was prettily decorated with pink and white streamers for the occasion. To the strains of the Wedding March played by Mrs. Dewar, the bride-to-be entered the room and was escorted to the seat of honor by Miss Margaret Ramsay. The heavily laden baskets of gifts were carried in by Miss Margaret MacLean and Miss Emily MacLeod, who also assisted in opening the gifts, while Miss Dorothy Dixon read the accompanying verses. The bride-to-be then thanked the people for their many good wishes and beautiful gifts, after which all join in singing "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow." Lunch was then served, and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in music and dancing.

(Denver, Col., Park Hill Topics, June 30.)

The Rev. Joseph E. Douglas, S. J. son of the late Mr. Ernest Douglas and Mrs. Frances Douglas, pioneer Park Hill residents, celebrated his first solemn high mass at Blessed Sacrament Church on Sunday, June 25. A large number of friends of the recently ordained priest and of his family attended the mass and were the guests of the family at a reception that afternoon at the home, at 2687 Eudora street. The young priest was assisted in his first public function by the Rev. Harold V. Campbell Pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church, Arch-Priest; the very Rev. Robert M. Kelley, S. J., President of Regis College, Deacon; and the Rev. Joseph P. McMahon, S. J., Sub-Deacon. The Rev. F. J. Mahoney, S. J. of Regis College preached on the purpose and idea of the priesthood.

The young priests brother, Mr. D. B. Douglas, now of New York City, with his wife and a close relative of the family, Miss Frances M. Egan of Boston, after attending the ordination ceremonies at St Marys, Kansas, drove on to Denver to be present at the first Mass and greeted many of their old friends during the week following.

Barrett of Brooklyn, New York; Mrs. William D. Murphy, Newton, Mass., Joseph J. Barrett, John A. Barrett, Mrs. James F. McLaughlin and Mrs. Ronald A. McDonald of Mount Stewart.

Orangemen in Prince Edward Island yesterday celebrated the "glorious 12th" with their annual tea, this year held at Pinette. Attendance was good, members of the organization reported, but not record breaking. Those who did attend had a good time, however. The customary sporting events, running races, jumping and similar competitions were not included in the program. But their absence seemed to go practically unnoticed by the holiday crowd which hailed from many far distant parts of the Province.

Speakers at the tea included Mr. P. M. McCaull, Grand Master, Ellerslie; Mrs. Addie Affleck, Grand Mistress of the L.O.B.A., Charlottetown; Mrs. Verner Moore, Past Grand Mistress, Crapaud; E. C. Holm, Past Grand Master, DeSable; T. J. Inman, Past Grand Master, Bedeque; J. Verner Moore, Past Grand Master, Crapaud, and Rev. Harvey Bishop.

MRS. HOWATT'S WORK APPRECIATED—Three years ago Mrs. Arthur Howatt of this city organized weekly classes in French for the Acadians of Charlottetown. She was assisted by Mr. Clarence Pineau, of the Marine Department, and Miss Bernadette Gaudet. The classes proved very successful, with an average attendance of seventy-five. They were continued the following year with the cooperation of Prof. J. H. Blanchard. Mrs. Howatt was again active in this work last year. Recently she received a very encouraging letter from "La Boussole," a French national organ published in Montreal, accompanied by a year's complimentary subscription which the editors are forwarding at the request of the St. Jean Baptiste Society of Montreal in recognition of her services. The letter expresses sincere admiration of Mrs. Howatt's efforts in promoting the French language in this Province, and stresses the importance of linking in closer union the different groups of French descent throughout the continent. Signed by Fernand de [illegible], director, the letter concludes, "Personally I believe that your initiative and tenacity have succeeded in awakening among us that pride and love of our French origin and provoked in us a desire to make it shine influentially."

Hon. Dr. W.J.P. MacMillan was elected president of the Prince Edward Island branch of the Society for the Control of Cancer at the annual meeting of the organization last night. Dr. MacMillan was re-elected as the medical representative from this Province on the national executive, a position known as grand councillor. His Honor Lieut. Governor George D DeBlois, vice-president of the national organization and appointed president of the Prince Edward Island branch at the organization meeting last year was named honorary president. The change was made when the meeting was informed His Honour did not wish the active chairmanship.

Mr. H. C. Bohaker, secretary and Mr. J.F. Leightizer, treasurer were both re-elected. Mrs. Frank Murray, Charlottetown was re-elected vice-president for Queen's County. Vice-presidency for the other counties was left unfilled until meetings could be held in centres in King's and Prince. Members of the council were also re-elected. They include: Lt. Col. C. C. Thompson, N. D. MacLean, Dr. B. C. Keeping, Marcus Calder, St Clair Trainor, Mrs. H. F. McPhee and Mrs. J. A. MacMillan, Mr. Marcus Calder was named lay member of the grand council to act with Dr. MacMillan in representing this Province on the national executive. He replaced Mr. D. A. MacKinnon who retired from the position because of ill health.

A wedding of unusual interest was solemnized July 11th, at 8 p. m., at the home of Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. Avery Gates, Victoria Road, Summerside when, in the presence of immediate relatives Miss Mae Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mrs. Eleanor J. and the late Robert G. Horne of Bloomfield, became the bride of Dr. A.S. Palmer of O'Leary. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Gates.

To the strains of the wedding march, "Bridal Chorus," from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Gates, the bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her uncle, Mr. John A. Smallman of Summerside, who later gave her away.

The bride was charmingly attired in lace effect white silk net over white taffeta, with bridal wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white and pale pink carnations, sweet peas and maiden hair fern, and wore a necklace of pearls.

The home was tastefully decorated with garden and wild flowers in color scheme of white and pink. A reception and buffet lunch immediately followed the ceremony.

The bride, a graduate of the Summerside High School, received her teacher's license from Prince of Wales College and taught very acceptably in the intermediate and primary grades in O'Leary and in other Prince Edward Island schools. The groom is the prominent and favorably known dentist of O'Leary and vicinity.

For travelling the bride wore a suit of light grey worsted with flesh color georgette blouse and navy accessories.

After a honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces, the happy couple, who have the best wishes of a host of relatives and friends, will reside at O'Leary. S

TREES SACROSANCT

(By The Canadian Press)

PORT MORESBY, Papua—Because natives regard trees as protected by evil spirits, proposed construction of a road through a forest region here had to be abandoned.
