

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

SEPTEMBER 13, 1881.

The Historical Society.

"THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY" formed yesterday will, we trust, supply a felt want. The officers elect are just now very zealous; and the members are unanimous. If, in the prosecution of the work now in hand, they maintain even a reasonable share of the spirit by which they are now possessed, the Society will, undoubtedly, do much good.

City Taxes.

It will be seen on reference to the report of the proceedings of the City Council that that body intend dealing summarily with all who have not paid their taxes. Certainly it appears unfair that some should be allowed to shirk payment of their just taxes which others have paid.

Shall the Law be Respected?

A vigorous prosecution of offenders against the law which says that spirituous liquors shall not be sold as a beverage is now going on. In their efforts to vindicate the law, the Stipendiary Magistrate and the Inspector of Licenses will undoubtedly be upheld by the voice of public opinion. A self-respecting, law-abiding people cannot endure the sight of drunkards on the streets and in places of public resort, while the law says that public which "makes drunk come" shall not be sold. The sooner all who have a predisposition to break the law are strongly impressed with this fact the better for themselves.

The Patriot as Confidant and as Wrong as Ever.

It is perfectly clear from the Patriot's own admissions that Mr. Lawson was promised access to the books in the Summerside Bank, as the condition on which Mr. Stewart was allowed into Presbytery to examine witnesses before that court last spring. This is the essential point, and one which really assumes all the importance of a covenant between Mr. Lawson on the one hand, and Mr. Stewart and the Presbytery on the other. The particular forms of expression are of no account. Nor can we suppose that the President, either directly or indirectly, would allow any advantage to be taken of any technicalities of one kind or another. The spirit, design, or intention, honestly understood and easily seen, would be the special object the Presbytery would consider. Well then, it is as clear as can be, that Mr. Lawson did not gain access to the books of the Summerside Bank as he desired and had bargained for. There is fault somewhere in this matter. The public are interested in the case. They have a right to know the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth as regards this dispute between the Patriot and us. Who does the Patriot blame? An answer to this question will enable us to see how he views the subject better than boasting of a victory not yet gained. Before adding more, we wait for a reply.

THE Summerside Progress, which has been greatly improved of late and is now one of the best of our Island exchanges, says:—

"We were found fault with in certain quarters, for stating that Mr. Blake's mission to the Island was a failure. Although we came to that conclusion after hearing Mr. Blake's speech on McMillan's lawn, we did not publish our opinion until we were satisfied by intercourse with persons from different sections of the County, that our report would be correct. We have no desire to do injustice to Mr. Blake or to any of his adherents, but we must say candidly that every day convinces us more and more, that Mr. Blake's visit to this Province was a complete failure. He came here, no doubt, with the expectation of adding strength to the party of which he is the leader, but we venture to say that after addressing three public meetings, one in each County, he departed, leaving his party in a worse position than when he arrived."

Exhibition Notes.

The fare to and from the Montreal Exhibition is: from Summerside, $13.50; from Charlottetown $15. The fare for passengers attending the Dominion Exhibition at Halifax is not yet fixed. The authorities should settle this important little matter at once. People are anxiously enquiring.

From the report of a recent inquest in England it would appear that precocious children and weak-minded parents are not confined to America. The inquest was upon the body of a child aged three years and ten months, and the evidence went to show that the deceased was very fond of school, and was continually talking of his lessons and sums in the delirium of his sickness. Acting upon medical testimony the jury brought in a verdict to the effect that the child's death was due to congestion of the brain brought on by over-work. The idea of a child under four years of age at school, and delirious over "lessons and sums," is preposterous. Such cruelty should be prevented by law.

FIRST MEETING—FIRST OFFICIALS ELECTED—THE SECRETARY'S REPORT.

THE following invitation was addressed to the leading citizens of Charlottetown:— CHARLOTTETOWN, September 10, 1881.

SIR,—You are respectfully requested to be present at a meeting in the Legislative Library, on Monday, the 12th inst., at 4 o'clock, p. m., to take into consideration the propriety of forming an Historical Society for Prince Edward Island.

The Corresponding Secretary of the Nova Scotia Historical Society, J. T. Bulmer, Esq., will be present, and give all information as to the objects, working, etc., of such societies, and the progress made in that Province.

His Honor Governor Haviland will preside. G. W. HODGSON, JOHN CAVES, L. H. DAVIES, GEORGE ALLEY, MALCOLM McLEOD, D. FERGUSON.

In response thereto, the following gentlemen met at the specified time and place:—

His Honor Chief Justice Palmer, Hon. L. H. Davies, Hon. Frederick De St. Croix Brecken, Hon. Benjamin Davies, Hon. Donald Ferguson, Hon. Andrew A. Macdonald, Rev. G. W. Hodgson, Rev. Kenneth McLennan, Rev. D. G. McDonald, Rev. Donald McNeill, Rev. John Harris, Rev. R. D. Bambrick, Rev. Alfred Osborne, Judge Alley, Dr. Taylor, Dr. Blanchard, Owen Connolly, Wm. Heard, E. J. Hodgson, W. L. Cotton, John LePage, James Byrne, Henry Lawson, P. R. Bowers, H. J. Cundall, W. R. Watson, D. Montgomery, John Ball, J. W. Morrison, T. McKinlay, Charles Palmer, Archd. McNeill, Charles C. Gardner, Frank W. Beer, T. A. LePage, Malcolm McLeod, F. W. Hales, Henry C. Blatch, James Brown, and W. C. Desbrisay, Esquires.

On motion of Judge Alley, the Chief Justice, in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor was called to the chair, and the undersigned was appointed Secretary.

The Chairman after stating briefly the object of the meeting, called on J. T. Bulmer, Esq., to give an address.

In his remarks, Mr. Bulmer referred to the importance of preserving the records of a country, and to the necessity of an Historical Society to see that this is regularly done and not left to chance. He spoke of the valuable materials of history in possession of the Massachusetts Historical Society and that of Quebec. He narrated the efforts that had been made to found one for Nova Scotia previous to 1878, when the present Society was established. He regretted the great loss that had arisen to the Province, from the want of such an institution at an earlier time, and felt it of the greatest importance that an Historical Society for P. E. Island, should at once be organized.

His Honor the Lieutenant Governor now arrived, and took the chair, the Chief Justice retiring.

After some remarks by E. J. Hodgson, Esq., Hon. L. H. Davies, and Judge Alley, which touched on some facts of our early history, and on the existence of important documents in the possession of private parties, the following resolution was proposed by Hon. D. Ferguson, and seconded by Hon. L. H. Davies.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting it is desirable to form an Historical Society for Prince Edward Island, and that this meeting do now proceed to elect officers therefor, which shall consist of a President, Vice President, Recording Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, and Council of Five.

This passed with the consent of all. A committee, consisting of Judge Alley, Hon. D. Ferguson, and Wm. Heard, Esq., was appointed to solicit names to form, in conjunction with the names appended, the original membership of the Society.

Signatures were then asked to the following:—

"The undersigned hereby agree to form themselves into an Historical Society for Prince Edward Island, and agree to pay an entrance fee of five dollars and an annual subscription of two dollars, or such other annual sum as may afterwards be determined by the Society."

The signatures were then attached of:— T. Heath Haviland, Edward Palmer (sen.), M. McLeod, Edward J. Hodgson, L. H. Davies, Owen Connolly, James Byrne, Charles C. Gardner, Wm. Heard, W. L. Cotton, T. A. LePage, F. W. Beer, Dr. Taylor, Frederick Brecken, A. McNeill, William C. Desbrisay, George Alley, R. D. Bambrick, Wm. R. Watson, Henry Lawson, John W. Morrison, A. A. McDonald, John Ball, T. McKinlay, P. R. Bowers, Chas. Palmer, D. Ferguson, George W. Hodgson, F. W. Hales, H. J. Cundall, D. Montgomery.

The name of Judge Young was also added, he having been unable to attend, but having sent a note expressing his interest in the formation of such a society, and his readiness to subscribe ten dollars or twenty dollars to the necessary expenses.

The members present then proceeded to the election of officers.

The following were chosen:— President—His Honor Governor Haviland.

Treasurer—Charles Palmer, Esq.

Recording Secretary—Mr. T. A. LePage. Committee—Judge Alley, Rev. G. W. Hodgson, Malcolm McLeod, Esq., Hon. A. A. McDonald, P. R. Bowers, Esq.

It was understood that the President, Vice-President and Treasurer be also members of Committee.

The appointment of a Corresponding Secretary was left to the Committee above named.

A vote of thanks was passed and presented to Mr. Bulmer for his presence at the meeting, for his interest in the establishment of the Society, and for the useful information he had to give as to the methods and working of the kindred Society of Nova Scotia.

A vote of thanks was also tendered to the Lieutenant Governor for presiding over the meeting.

Acknowledgments being rendered, the meeting adjourned.

Bad and Fatal Accident.

On the morning of the 6th inst., Donald McEachern, of Victoria, Lot 29, and his son Duncan, started to catch mackerel. On arriving at the boat, there being only one out on board, Mr. McEachern returned to his house to procure another. When he returned to the boat his son was missing. After searching in vain for the missing one around the wharves and elsewhere, some friends dragged the bottom where he was last seen and found the body.

A large crowd had gathered around by this time; and men unused to weep, wept freely, seeing the grief of the bereaved parents, brothers and sister.

The deceased was ten years of age, son of Donald and Jane McEachern—a smart, active, thoughtful, kind son. The parents have the sincere sympathy of their neighbors and friends in their very sad bereavement.—Com.

City Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the City Council was held last evening. Present: Councillors Murphy, Chappelle, Lawson, Davy, McLean, Smith, Blake, Koughan, Byrne and Morris.

His Worship the Mayor being still absent in England, it was moved by Councillor Murphy, seconded by Councillor Chappelle, and

Resolved, That Councillor Koughan take the chair.

A number of accounts having, during recess, been paid by Councillor Murphy, his action in paying said accounts was confirmed.

A letter was read from Robert Shaw, Esq., on behalf of Miss Elizabeth Arnold, who, he said, had received injuries on Euston Street by reason of a defective sidewalk. Ordered to be referred to His Honor the Recorder.

Read a letter from Mr. George Brace, praying for a remission of the balance due by him for city taxes for the year 1880. The letter having been referred to the Recorder, he (the Recorder) stated that it was his opinion that the Council had not the power to interfere by way of reduction of any taxes after they had been appealed to him as Stipendiary Magistrate, and that they had not the power to remit or reduce taxes, once levied by the Assessors, by any vote or resolution of Council.

It was then moved by Councillor Murphy, seconded by Councillor Chappelle, and unanimously

Resolved, That the City Clerk be directed to communicate to Mr. George Brace that in accordance with the Recorder's opinion the City Council had not power to remit or reduce any taxes levied by the Assessors.

Moved by Councillor Murphy and unanimously

Resolved, That the late City Collector, Mr. William Shepherd, be requested to furnish this Council as soon as possible with a full and particular return, to be signed by him, showing the names of all persons in arrears for taxes on real estate for the year 1878 1879 and 1880, and that he be further requested to make the necessary affidavits, preparatory to issuing executions against all defaulters.

Moved by Councillor Murphy, seconded by Councillor Blake and carried,—

Resolved, That from and after this date no work or labor shall be done on the streets or elsewhere in the city, until such work has been specially ordered by the Street Committee, or any three of them; such order to be signed by the Committee or a majority thereof, and

Further resolved, That no payment be made for any such work until such order be first produced to this Council.

Moved by Councillor Lawson, seconded by Councillor Byrne and carried unanimously,—

Resolved, That His Honor the Recorder be requested to prepare a By-Law for licensing Livery Stables in the city, so as to exempt them from horse and carriage tax.

Councillor Morris contended that it would be unwise to prohibit any person having a number of horses although not in the Livery Stable business from hiring them.

Adjourned sine die.

Back from Wimbledon.

COL. GIBSON, Captain of the Canadian Team at Wimbledon, has returned to his home in Hamilton, Ont. He speaks in the highest terms of the match at Wimbledon, and especially of the Canadian team. The Kelpore Cup, he stated, they had brought with them, but had sent it to Ottawa where the Dominion Rifle Association matches are taking place. He speaks highly of the National Rifle Association, who invited them to attend numerous entertainments and who showed the Canadians every possible courtesy. In regard to the match, he stated that he did not do any shooting himself this year. He found that to look after the shooting of the team, to receive visitors, and perform other social duties, took all his time. The team pitted against the Canadians, he said, was as strong as one could be selected. Names such as McVittie, Cortis, McCausland, McInnes, Hargreaves, and Mitchell, show what the Canadians had to contend against. They are among the most frequent prize-winners and best shots with the military rifle on Wimbledon Common. Cortis and McVittie have been offenders in the Queen's sixty than any other two men. As to position, the majority of the Old Country team shoot lying on their backs. The Canadians used the prone position. There is at present some difference of opinion in the Dominion Rifle Association as to whether or not the back position should be ruled out altogether. He further stated that while under some circumstances those who shoot on the back position had an advantage, he was satisfied that with the military rifle the prone position is the safest, and was inclined to attribute the defeat of the British team to the fact of the majority of them adopting the back position. In regard to the new rule that new men must be sent every year, he gave it as his opinion that it was an unwise regulation. Such a restriction would in many cases keep the best out, and he also stated that it was an advantage to a man to attend Wimbledon two or three times to get familiar with the ranges and the peculiar weather. Unless, he said, the very strongest team that can be got is taken, the reward of their efforts will not be very encouraging, and unless the team is tolerably successful their visit will attract but little attention, though they may be representative volunteers from this colony, and all that is urged by the supporters of the new rule. It is therefore, of all important that the team should succeed in their competitions; for success in winning prizes is far more effective in drawing attention than any other method.

Police! Police!!

To the Editor of the Examiner.

DEAR SIR,—The venerable City Fathers would find it to their advantage to look more closely to the enforcement of law and order in Charlottetown. At present it is evident that mob law prevails. If our police force is inefficient to stamp out crime and rowdiness, why not increase the number? It would pay the city morally and materially to do so. Our most respectable citizens cannot walk out at night without being assaulted by a crowd of ruffians, who are a disgrace to our city. These ruffians are to be found day and night at our street corners, insulting those who pass by them. At the City Hotel a large number of these low fellows assemble every evening. At the eastern end of the city, where the police's visits are something like angels visits, it would be unsafe for any respectable person to travel the lanes, even on a Sunday evening. The other evening, during Mr. Kennedy's entertainment, the hall was turned into a bear garden, and the police were unable or afraid to do their duty. Come, Marshal Flynn, do your duty, or step down and out. Come, Mr. Fitzgerald, come, City Fathers; perform your various duties more efficiently or leave the government of the city in better hands.
