Organize Centre

A group of public spirited citizens has organized The Physical Culture and Recreation Centre, adopting as the motto of the organization "Happiness through health."

Membership in this centre is open to men and women over 21 years of age. Some persons under the age of 21 will be accepted as conditional members. The centre will provide much needed physical training, light exercise and competent instruction. It will promote matches and contests which have as their objectives greater physical development.

However, the gym will not open until sufficient money is raised to properly equip it and until a large enough membership has been obtained. Already a gym fund has been set up and this fund will be assisted by returns from the recreation division which goes into operation immediately.

THIS recreation division should be an interesting spot for sportsminded folks to gather. Here will be assembled sports records covering all branches of sport. A sportsman's Hall of Fame will be set up and this first year six local athletes will be chosen by competent judges to enter this Hall of Fame. Photos or paintings of the athletes chosen will adorn the walls of the new centre at 126 Sydney St., Charlottetown.

Right now the promoters of this new athletic organization are asking the sports public to submit names of persons they think should enter the Hall of Fame. If you feel that you know one or more athletes that should be so honored, send the names of your nominees to The Physical Culture and Recreation Centre, 126 Sydney St.., Charlottetown.

A Long, Long Haul

THOSE responsible for getting this centre underway maintain they have been toying with the idea for nearly seven years. They are convinced there is a great need for such an organization and believing this, they have done something concrete about it.

Those solidly behind the projects come from all walks of life. These folks quite properly insist that far too many people are getting far too little exercise. The exercise derived from walking is now almost zero because the vast majority of persons drive to and from work these days. Physical labor is in less demand than ever because of so many labor-saving devices. Far too many men and women get no exercise whatever and as a result they are growing 'soft'..

The Physical Culture and Recreation Centre hopes to correct these things in the Charlottetown area. It certainly will not work any miracles overnight but it should prove a great boon to many people who are getting no exercise whatever right now. Soft muscles should become hard, excess weight should start falling off and folks should start feeling loads heathier when they begin a properly balanced physical culture program.

Open To Everybody

THIS is no closed shop affair. It's a wide open membership and the organizers are just waiting for you to show your interest by asking for a membership card. The recreation division will begin operations March 15 and the gymnasium will be ready just as soon as funds are available to equip it. Already there is a gym fund organized and that will grow as proceeds from the recreation division projects start flowing into the gym 'pot'.

People surely need a place like this to get back into some kind of condition. Far too many of us have developed figures that we'd like to trade for newer models. Far too many of us have lost that streamline look. Indeed it's a long time since some of us have been able to get down far enough to put on our rubbers.

A proper program in this physical culture gym should do something to this excessive weight and bring these overweight persons back at least to something resembling a normal shape.

No, it's not too late. It's surprising (so they tell us) how quickly you can bring about a real transformation.

Lend your support to this Physical Culture and Recreation Centre and assure yourself many outstanding benefits.

N.Y. Crushes Hawks 5-2; 2nd In Row Over Leaders

NEW YORK (CP) — New York Rangers defeated Chicago Black Hawks 5-2 Wednesday night, their second victory in a row over the first-place Hawks after having gone the first 12 games of the season with nothing better than a tie against them.

The game was the last meeting between the two clubs this season. The fifth-place Rangers already had been eliminated from the Stanley Cup playoffs, so the victory meant nothing to them.

Don McKenney and Camille Henry each scored twice for the Rangers, who were behind 2-1 after the second period but tallied four uninterrupted goals against the Hawks in the last period.

The game had a slight alteration on the National Hockey League scoring race. Chicago's Stan Mikita gave up sole possession of second place, behind Gordie Howe, as New York's Andy Bathgate picked up three assists to tie Mikita with 70 points.

CLOSE IN ON HOWE

Mikita assisted on both Chicago goals—the first by Bobby Hull and the other by Al MacNeil. Mikita and Bathgate now are four points behind Detroit's Howe. The Red Wings were idle Wednesday night.

The Hawks seemed to be well on their way to victory until New York suddenly came to life midway in the second period.

Henry started New York back when he scored on a rebound while the Black Hawks were shorthanded late in the second period. McKenney tied it with his 20th career goal early in the third period, got off the pass that sent Vic Hadfield in alone for the go-ahead marker and added another himself. Henry got the last one with only 21 seconds left, hitting the open net from behind his own blueline after Chicago had pulled goalie Glenn Hall in favor of another attacker.

First period: 1. Chicago, Hull 31 (Mikita) 15:52. Penalties—Balfour 6:19, Howell 13:47, Evans 16:29.

Second period: 2. Chicago, MacNeil 2 (Fleming, Mikita) 13:34; 3. New York, Henry 30 (Bathgate, Harvey) 17:15. Penalties — Hadfield 4:17; Lunde 4:17; Nesterenko 5:34; Balfour 8:31, 16:09, Neilson 11:42, MacNeil 18-10, Hextal 18:10.

Third period: 4, New York, McKenney 19 (Bathgate, Johns) 2:08; 5. New York, Hadfield 2 (McKenney, Harvey) 11:39; 6. New York, McKenney 20 (Bathgate, Neilson) 14:14; 7. # B.C. Rink Flexes Muscles; Defeats Sask. And Alberta

By GRAHAM COX

BRANDON (CP) — After taking two losses in his first three games, Glen Harper of Duncan, B.C., caught fire Wednesday at the Canadian curling championships and knocked over the only two remaining undefeated rinks on successive draws.

In the night draw he defeated Calgary sharpshooter Jim Shields 14-6 after having laced defending champion Ernie Richardson 8-5 in the afternoon.

The result dropped Richardson and Shields back into the two-way tie for first place in the round - robin competition, both with a single loss. In third place with two losses is Ian Baird of Kentville, N.S.

A double-raise with his last rock gave Doug Gathercole of Copper Cliff in Northern Ontario a 7-6 win over Baird in the night draw while Hersh Lerner of Manitoba took his fifth straight loss, 14-5, at the hands of Don Mix of Moncton.

In the other games, Richardson regained his winning form in search of an unprecedented fourth title with a 9-5 win over Bill Kent of Montreal while Doug Cameron of Charlottetown beat Bob Mann of Hanover, Ont., 10-9.

In the first of three draws today, starting at 9:30 a.m., Richardson was to meet Gathercole. Shields drew against Kent, Prince Edward Island was to meet British Columbia and Ontario played Manitoba.

The final game had Newfoundland playing New Brunswick while Baird drew the bye.

In the afternoon draw Wednesday Shields downed Bob Mann 9-5.

Activity for Doug Cameron's Prince Edward Island rink today is as follows: 11.30 —British Columbia; 5 p.m.—Quebec; 10 p.m.— Northern Ontario.

The Cameron foursome conclude the Brier matches Friday with games against Nova Scotia and Saskatchewan.

The shield of invicibility of defending champion Ernie Richardson of Regina, cracked Tuesday night by Mann, shattered during the fifth round between the sharp draws and takeouts of Glen Harper of Duncan, B.C., who evened his record at two wins and two losses by defeating Richardson 8-5.

In the meantime, Ian Baird of Kentville, N.S., scored an 11-8 win against Bill Kent of Montreal to hold his loss record to only one gave in five tries.

Both the other games went to extra ends with Newfoundland winning its first game in four years of competition, as John Pike of Grand Falls handed Hersh Lerner of Winnipeg a 12-11 loss, his fourth in a row in the round-robin series.

WINS FIRST

The other extra end went to Don Mix of Moncton as he picked up his first win with a 14-10 victory over Doug Cameron of Charlottetown in a game that went more than 3½ hours.

The sixth round was scheduled to be played at 8 p.m. CST with New Brunswick playing Manitoba, Alberta meeting resurgent British Columbia, Quebec taking on Saskatchewan, Nova Scotia playing Northern Ontario, Prince Edward Island tangling with Ontario, and Newfoundland watching from the stands with the bye.

The first end of the Shields-Mann match was blanked before Mann scored a single in the second and, after a blank third, Shields popped a deuce in the fourth. The score was tied 4-4 after nine fine ends of hard-hitting knockout curling, but Shields hit a triple on the 10th to climb ahead and added a pair on the 12th to win.

In the final end Shields, who personally hit on 96 per cent of his shots, raised Mann's last rock and stuck to add to his lead.

In the other match, B.C. held command over most of the route, leading 3-2 after four ends, 5-3 after eight, and 7-5 after 10.

Harper purposely blanked the 11th end to hold last rock coming home and made it pay dividends, freezing with his final stone against a Richardson shot rock, stopping on the button to win.

Red Kelly Scores Twice As Leafs Drub Bruins 4-0

TORONTO (CP) — Toronto Maple Leafs trounced the troublesome Boston Bruins 4-0 Wednesday night in their drive to overtake Chicago Black Hawks at the top of the National Hockey League.

Goaler Johnny Bower scored the Leafs first shutout of the season, kicking out 23 shots from a Bruins club that played as if they didn't believe they were finishing last in the NHL.

Red Kelly scored twice, his 17th and 18th of the season, Dick Duff counted one, his 16th, and Frank Mahovlich blasted in his 34th goal of the season.

The win moved Leafs to within two points off the Chicago pace as New York shlized by beating the Hawks 5-2 Wednesday night.

OPENS SCORING

Kelly opened up the barrage at 14:50 of a first period in which Boston held off Leafs for the first half with aggressive forechecking and dangerous offensive spurts. He tipped in a drive from the point by defenceman Tim Horton that caught Boston goalie Ed Johnston on the wrong side of the net.

Eddie Shack, who has been out since he twisted a knee here Feb. 23, set up the second goal seconds after he returned to action.

Kelly won a face-off to Johnston's left, Shack picked it off and returned it to Kelly in time for the red-headed centre to knock it into the net.

Less than five minutes later, Dave Keon caught Bruin Warren Godfrey napping beside a loose puck in front of the Boston goal and hooked it back to Duff, who scored at 8:35.

Mahovlich wound up the scoring at 17:56 of the second period with a typical sweep down the right wing from behind his own end, letting go a long, hard shot just inside Boston's blue line. Johnston, who had moved out of his crease in anticipation of the shot, was driven back into the net by its force, taking the puck with him.
