

FEATHERED FLATTERY

FEATHERY FLATTERY VM feathers that would make an ideal escort for a softly detailed tweed suit or wool walking dress. The tall crown and draped band are blended from vivid blue, snowy white and speckled game bird feathers. A jaunty feather wing rises high in front to complete a simple but colorful hat.

Clever Young Debaters Heard At St. Dunstan's

The first debate of the season took place at St. Dunstan's University gymnasium recently between the girls' debating teams of St. Dunstan's and Mt. St. Bernard of Antigonish. The latter is the Women's college affiliated with St. P.X.

The resolution of the debate was: "Resolved that the impact of mass media of communication today is more beneficial than detrimental to human happiness." S.D.U. upheld the affirmative and M.S.B. the negative. M.S.B. won. This has been the sixth straight unanimous decision the M.S.B. has taken in the past three years.

The M.S.B. debaters were Muriel Lee, a senior arts student, (leader) and Barbara MacKinnon a junior arts student. A fellow student writes of these girls; Muriel is a native of Edmundston, New Brunswick. She is very active in college activities. Last year she played the leading role in the M.S.B. musical production "Oklahoma". She is doing a solo in the S.F.X. Christmas concert.

Auction Sale Bazaar Is A Successful Event

Although only celebrating its second anniversary the Auction Sale Bazaar sponsored by the Exemplar chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority is well established and one of the nicest events of the Christmas season.

Kirkwood Motel is the setting and as the guests drove up to the door the gay Christmas decorations outside already had created an atmosphere of Yuletide joy.

Inside all was bright and gay too with the guests admiring the array of gifts made by the members. Many of these articles were designed with the idea that they would be suitable for Christmas gifts.

The Alpha members were guests on this occasion of the Exemplar and the latter also are allowed to invite two guests. There were many red dresses worn by those present, also green. All this added to the prettiness of the evening.

Mrs. Carl Burke, the president of Exemplar, welcomed the guests. Then Miss Allie MacLeod and Mrs. Myron Bell started the auctioning. Bidding even at the start was unusually brisk. New ideas and originally prevailed among the articles for sale.

Among the many things that could be mentioned were: A little girl's adorable flannellette nightie hand made in Christmas colors with her doll's nighties to match. Then there was a three piece hand made living-room suite for a doll's house. This included an upholstered settee with the matching armchairs. Copied in detail from Mummy and Daddy's furniture this had the added attraction that it was in a gorgeous shade of scarlet.

The food, knitted wear and novelties—all were popular and brought good prices. Mrs. J.A. Carruthers was another auctioneer and she was helped not by the Easter bunny but by a Christmas bunny in the person of Mrs. T.D. DeBlais. This made more fun and again the bidding raced along and the prices soared.

Women

Lena Caroline McLure, Women's Editor, Phone 8506

6 The Guardian, Charlottetown, Mon., Dec. 8, 1958

HAPPENINGS

The funeral of the late Hon. B.W. LePage was held at the Trinity United Church Saturday at two o'clock. Relatives and friends from all parts of the province called at the home and filled the large church to capacity to pay their respect to a beloved relative, friend and former lieutenant-governor of Prince Edward Island.

Calling at the home on Longworth Avenue and attending the funeral at St. Dunstan's Basilica of the late Mr. Picton R. McCormac, for many years prominent in the business and public life of Prince Edward Island, were great numbers of relatives and friends.

Arriving in the province to pay respect to this beloved member of their family were: The Rev. Edwin McCormac, S.J., Winnipeg, a brother; Mrs. V.J. Pinna, New Glasgow, N.S., a sister; Mr. Bruce McCormac, accountancy and supply department R.C.N. Ottawa, a son of Mr. McCormac; Mr. David McCormac, accountant of the Royal Bank, Parrsboro, N.S., another son.

Rev. C.W. Plessey, Hazelbrook, was most pleasantly surprised on his birthday recently when the members of the Hazelbrook Baptist Church gathered to wish him many happy returns of the day.

After a few well chosen words by Queenie MacKinnon, Mr. Passey was presented with a hassock by Thelma Jenkins, on behalf of all present. Mr. Passey expressed his gratitude and surprise in his usual jovial manner and a pleasant social hour was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Chesley Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Gideon MacLauchlan, West Covehead, have recently returned from a holiday trip to Toronto, where they visited the Royal Winter Fair. Enroute they spent some time in Boston and New York.

The regular monthly meeting of the Charlottetown Kinetic Club was held at the home of Mrs. Olive Cudmore on Wednesday, December 3rd. The president, Mrs. Jack Gay presided.

It was decided to have a table made for the Retarded children Day Training Class. It was decided to give $20.00 to each Welfare Organization to be used for the Christmas fund.

A delicious lunch was served at the close of the meeting by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jack Gay and Mrs. Fremont Archer.

Mr. Noel Wilcox, brother of the groom was best man. Noel with his wife Helen travelled from Charlottetown for this special occasion. Dr. Lou Frost of Sidney, Nova Scotia and Dr. Edward Ksiazik of Hamilton, Ontario, acted as ushers.

The bride is a graduate of Notre Dame Academy and attended St. Francis Xavier University, and is a graduate of St. Marthas' School of Nursing. Her husband is a graduate of Queen Square School, St. Francis Xavier University, and the University of Toronto School of Dentistry. Dr. Wilson is at present completing a three year post graduate training in Oral Surgery at Georgetown University School of Dentistry, Washington, D.C.

cozily comfortable about their hearth-fires. And we remember that if the summery seasons have many a charm, there is something about this time of year on Island farms which makes for happiness and content. Is it the hush of the farmlands that finds an answering peace in folks' hearts?

Until tomorrow — — — Diary. Good-night

cards and Mack smiled happily, coming by on his way home from his classes. "Do you know, what's beginning to shape up now? You wouldn't guess. The Christmas Concert! And I'd say, it's going to be good."

"This is a busy month," he offered.

"It is! There's so much to do: school-work to keep up, concert numbers to learn (but they're easy!), lists of presents . . . that's the trouble!" he said, pleased expression denying his words. "Christmas seems to come all at once!"

"I guess I'd better put a hardwood block in the furnace, Ellen," James says at the door. "It will keep the fire through the night."

"And we think of the quiet resting fields, of the cattle and horses in the sheltering stables, the sows and piglets warm in the piggeries. . . and the households

However there is no falling weather yet, and our day has entered the dim of the night. But we recall that last night, after a round of stables with his grandfather, Mack, our nine-year grand son, found the moon caught within a bright circle.

"When you see that," James told him, "you can be fairly sure of some falling weather ahead. Count the stars in the circle."

"There's one," Mack said — "just one!"

"Then," James commented "we will have another fine day, I reckon."

"Our tests are over now (in our school which has a large number in attendance, we interview the pupils at set times) a mother from the far Canadian West wrote us recently. "This does away with tests and report

Dr. & Mrs. A. J. Wilson Wed In Romantic Setting

Niagara Falls, New York was the romantic setting for the summer wedding of Josephine Brown Malach, daughter of Mrs. Picton C. Brown and the late Mr. Brown, Charlottetown to Dr. Albert J. Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Wilson, Charlottetown which was celebrated with a High Mass in the Prince of Peace Church on July 26.

Given in marriage by her brother Earl of Toronto, Ontario, the bride looked radiant in her ballerina length dress of champagne silk taffeta with an appliqued overdress of white Chantilly lace, with champagne colored accessories. Her shoulder length veil of champagne tulle fell from Juliette cap appliqued with Chantilly lace. She carried a white orchid on her mother-pearl bridal missal.

Mrs. Maureen Hansen of Niagara Falls, sister of the bride, was her atron of honour and only attendant. Maureen looked charming in her strawberry coloured chiffon ballerina length dress with matching accessories, carrying a nosegay of multi-colored pink sweetheart roses.

Mr. Noel Wilcox, brother of the groom was best man. Noel with his wife Helen travelled from Charlottetown for this special occasion. Dr. Lou Frost of Sidney, Nova Scotia and Dr. Edward Ksiazik of Hamilton, Ontario, acted as ushers.

The bride is a graduate of Notre Dame Academy and attended St. Francis Xavier University, and is a graduate of St. Marthas' School of Nursing. Her husband is a graduate of Queen Square School, St. Francis Xavier University, and the University of Toronto School of Dentistry. Dr. Wilson is at present completing a three year post graduate training in Oral Surgery at Georgetown University School of Dentistry, Washington, D.C.

cozily comfortable about their hearth-fires. And we remember that if the summery seasons have many a charm, there is something about this time of year on Island farms which makes for happiness and content. Is it the hush of the farmlands that finds an answering peace in folks' hearts?

Until tomorrow — — — Diary. Good-night

cards and Mack smiled happily, coming by on his way home from his classes. "Do you know, what's beginning to shape up now? You wouldn't guess. The Christmas Concert! And I'd say, it's going to be good."

"This is a busy month," he offered.

"It is! There's so much to do: school-work to keep up, concert numbers to learn (but they're easy!), lists of presents . . . that's the trouble!" he said, pleased expression denying his words. "Christmas seems to come all at once!"

"I guess I'd better put a hardwood block in the furnace, Ellen," James says at the door. "It will keep the fire through the night."

"And we think of the quiet resting fields, of the cattle and horses in the sheltering stables, the sows and piglets warm in the piggeries. . . and the households

However there is no falling weather yet, and our day has entered the dim of the night. But we recall that last night, after a round of stables with his grandfather, Mack, our nine-year grand son, found the moon caught within a bright circle.

"When you see that," James told him, "you can be fairly sure of some falling weather ahead. Count the stars in the circle."

"There's one," Mack said — "just one!"

"Then," James commented "we will have another fine day, I reckon."

"Our tests are over now (in our school which has a large number in attendance, we interview the pupils at set times) a mother from the far Canadian West wrote us recently. "This does away with tests and report cards and Mack smiled happily, coming by on his way home from his classes. "Do you know, what's beginning to shape up now? You wouldn't guess. The Christmas Concert! And I'd say, it's going to be good."

"This is a busy month," he offered.

"It is! There's so much to do: school-work to keep up, concert numbers to learn (but they're easy!), lists of presents . . . that's the trouble!" he said, pleased expression denying his words. "Christmas seems to come all at once!"

"I guess I'd better put a hardwood block in the furnace, Ellen," James says at the door. "It will keep the fire through the night."

"And we think of the quiet resting fields, of the cattle and horses in the sheltering stables, the sows and piglets warm in the piggeries. . . and the households

However there is no falling weather yet, and our day has entered the dim of the night. But we recall that last night, after a round of stables with his grandfather, Mack, our nine-year grand son, found the moon caught within a bright circle.

BARBARA MacDONALD JACOBUS J. GROBLER

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. William F. MacRae of Montreal, announce the engagement of their niece, Barbara Mae MacDonald, formerly of Kingsboro, P.E.I. to Jacobus Johannes Grobler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matewis J. Grobler of Potchefstroom, South Africa.

Marriage to take place December 28th, 1958, at St. Lukes United Church, Decarie Blvd., Montreal.

Each of the four faces of Big Ben, the Westminster clock in London, England, is more than 22 feet across.

Johnston-Bennett Marriage Solemnized At Marshfield

The marriage took place at the Presbyterian Church, Marshfield, on Friday evening, November 28th, at 8 o'clock, when the pastor, Rev. Charles Townsley, united in marriage, Miss Velda Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett, of Southport, and Mr. Nelson Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Johnston, of Summerside. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Freda Bennett, while the groom was supported by Mr. David Bartlow, Mr. and Mrs. Johnston who reside in Moncton, N.B. where the groom is on the staff of the Royal Bank.

SHIPBUILDER FOR SOVIETS BONN (Reuters)—A west German government spokesman said Thursday a Hamburg shipbuilding concern has applied for a government loan to help finance the construction of six passenger ships worth $63,000,000 for the Soviet Union. He said a final decision was expected after the Russo-German trade talks starting here today.

ANCIENT FARMERS Scientists have found traces in northern Iran of a farm economy that existed 6,000 years ago.

THE GIFT THAT WALKS IS THE GIFT THAT TALKS . . . GIVE SLIPPERS from AGNEW-SURPASS 122 Kent Street

Gifts Dainty Dusters are warmly welcome

Corduroy, Quilted Cotton and Baby Chenille. Sizes 2 to 14 years. All beautiful shades. 2.95 to 6.95

HOLMES & BRADLEY Queen St. Charlottetown

when it comes to deals The White Hunter set an All-Canadian Record.

FREE CHROME SUITE WITH EVERY Firestone REFRIGERATOR PLUS FREE TURKEY

FREE RUG! WITH EVERY CONSOLE 1959 Westinghouse TELEVISION

$50. FOR YOUR OLD WASHER REGARDLESS OF CONDITION ON THE PURCHASE OF A Firestone or Westinghouse WASHER

Perfect Gift for the Boy—Transistor RADIOS only $12.95 FLASHLIGHT only 39c Steering Wheel COVERS Soft and Warm— 59c

LIGHT BULBS 60w. Reg. 22c 6 for $1.00

TURKEY FREE with every major appliance

Everyday CUPS & SAUCERS 5 for 99c STEEL TAPES—6 ft.—for the Do-It-Yourself Man each 89c

SCREW DRIVERS, all sizes 3 for 89c

So easy — no soft ball tests or candy thermometer needed. And so smooth . . . thanks to Carnation's double-richness — a quality not found in any other form of milk.

"from Contented Cows"

CARNATION 5-MINUTE FUDGE (makes about 2 pounds)

¾ cup undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK 1½ cups granulated sugar ½ teaspoon salt 1½ cups miniature marshmallows 1½ cups (1½ six-oz. packages) BAKER'S CHOCOLATE CHIPS 1 teaspoon vanilla ½ cup chopped nuts

Mix Carnation, sugar and salt in saucepan over medium heat. Heat to boiling, then cook 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Add marshmallows from heat. Remove from heat. Stir in other ingredients. Stir 2 to 2 minutes (until marshmallows melt). Pour into buttered 9-inch square pan. Cool. Cut in squares.

USE CARNATION — THE EVAPORATED MILK THAT TASTES MOST LIKE FRESH CREAM

ELLEN'S DIARY

Sheep Strange Creatures They Know Weather Signs

A bright day this has been. And it came to mind when we saw the children go along the hard-frozen road to school, as clean as the Monday-morning slates of the long ago, in those country schools that we knew. Every trace and reminder of past work had been wiped away. Here reaching out before, in a new beginning, was another day, and week. How welcome the sun above the tree tops, dark against the eastern hills, and pretty the flooding shades on the cloudless December-blue.

But there in an earthy sight, on the front lawn, and nibbling dangerously in the flower-border was the flock of sheep, come down from fields up the slope. "Do you see that, Ellen?"

James queried soberly, slipping into his jacket to be off outdoors. "I'm thinking, that means a snowstorm ahead, though there is little sign of it yet. But sheep are strange creatures. They know."

Whether there is no falling weather yet, and our day has entered the dim of the night. But we recall that last night, after a round of stables with his grandfather, Mack, our nine-year grand son, found the moon caught within a bright circle.

"When you see that," James told him, "you can be fairly sure of some falling weather ahead. Count the stars in the circle."

"There's one," Mack said — "just one!"

"Then," James commented "we will have another fine day, I reckon."

"Our tests are over now (in our school which has a large number in attendance, we interview the pupils at set times) a mother from the far Canadian West wrote us recently. "This does away with tests and report

Exciting Gifts FROM W.W. WELLNER

For That Someone Special Choose a Gift of Jewellery!

Diamond Rings $25.00 up Dresser Sets from $8.50

Men's and Women's Watches from $24.75 Men's & Women's Onyx Rings from $8.75

NOTE! See our Special Christmas Novelties W.W. WELLNER LTD. Jewellers Since 1868 103 Grafton Dial 3788

it's Furs for Christmas!

Why not spoil her this Christmas — Give her what she wants most of all — but least expected! Beautiful . . . beautiful "FURS!" Come in and see us about selecting a lovely new fur jacket — fur stole or fur coat. We will be glad to help you.

OUR FAMOUS SELECTION OF SKIRTS & SWEATERS IS NOW AT ITS BEST!

TERMS: WHEN BUYING FURS YOU HAVE UP TO 12 MONTHS TO PAY! island furriers 79 Grafton Street Dial 6923

Compare Our Prices combination RADIO and RECORD PLAYERS SERENADER GUITARS TOOMBS MUSIC STORE 167 Queen St. Dial 3271

FEATHERY FLATTERY

FEATHERY FLATTERY VM feathers that would make an ideal escort for a softly detailed tweed suit or wool walking dress. The tall crown and draped band are blended from vivid blue, snowy white and speckled game bird feathers. A jaunty feather wing rises high in front to complete a simple but colorful hat.

Clever Young Debaters Heard At St. Dunstan's

The first debate of the season took place at St. Dunstan's University gymnasium recently between the girls' debating teams of St. Dunstan's and Mt. St. Bernard of Antigonish. The latter is the Women's college affiliated with St. P.X.

The resolution of the debate was: "Resolved that the impact of mass media of communication today is more beneficial than detrimental to human happiness." S.D.U. upheld the affirmative and M.S.B. the negative. M.S.B. won. This has been the sixth straight unanimous decision the M.S.B. has taken in the past three years.

The M.S.B. debaters were Muriel Lee, a senior arts student, (leader) and Barbara MacKinnon a junior arts student. A fellow student writes of these girls; Muriel is a native of Edmundston, New Brunswick. She is very active in college activities. Last year she played the leading role in the M.S.B. musical production "Oklahoma". She is doing a solo in the S.F.X. Christmas concert.

Auction Sale Bazaar Is A Successful Event

Although only celebrating its second anniversary the Auction Sale Bazaar sponsored by the Exemplar chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority is well established and one of the nicest events of the Christmas season.

Kirkwood Motel is the setting and as the guests drove up to the door the gay Christmas decorations outside already had created an atmosphere of Yuletide joy.

Inside all was bright and gay too with the guests admiring the array of gifts made by the members. Many of these articles were designed with the idea that they would be suitable for Christmas gifts.

The Alpha members were guests on this occasion of the Exemplar and the latter also are allowed to invite two guests. There were many red dresses worn by those present, also green. All this added to the prettiness of the evening.

Mrs. Carl Burke, the president of Exemplar, welcomed the guests. Then Miss Allie MacLeod and Mrs. Myron Bell started the auctioning. Bidding even at the start was unusually brisk. New ideas and originally prevailed among the articles for sale.

Among the many things that could be mentioned were: A little girl's adorable flannellette nightie hand made in Christmas colors with her doll's nighties to match. Then there was a three piece hand made living-room suite for a doll's house. This included an upholstered settee with the matching armchairs. Copied in detail from Mummy and Daddy's furniture this had the added attraction that it was in a gorgeous shade of scarlet.

The food, knitted wear and novelties—all were popular and brought good prices. Mrs. J.A. Carruthers was another auctioneer and she was helped not by the Easter bunny but by a Christmas bunny in the person of Mrs. T.D. DeBlais. This made more fun and again the bidding raced along and the prices soared.

FEATHERY FLATTERY

FEATHERY FLATTERY VM feathers that would make an ideal escort for a softly detailed tweed suit or wool walking dress. The tall crown and draped band are blended from vivid blue, snowy white and speckled game bird feathers. A jaunty feather wing rises high in front to complete a simple but colorful hat.

Clever Young Debaters Heard At St. Dunstan's

The first debate of the season took place at St. Dunstan's University gymnasium recently between the girls' debating teams of St. Dunstan's and Mt. St. Bernard of Antigonish. The latter is the Women's college affiliated with St. P.X.

The resolution of the debate was: "Resolved that the impact of mass media of communication today is more beneficial than detrimental to human happiness." S.D.U. upheld the affirmative and M.S.B. the negative. M.S.B. won. This has been the sixth straight unanimous decision the M.S.B. has taken in the past three years.

The M.S.B. debaters were Muriel Lee, a senior arts student, (leader) and Barbara MacKinnon a junior arts student. A fellow student writes of these girls; Muriel is a native of Edmundston, New Brunswick. She is very active in college activities. Last year she played the leading role in the M.S.B. musical production "Oklahoma". She is doing a solo in the S.F.X. Christmas concert.

Auction Sale Bazaar Is A Successful Event

Although only celebrating its second anniversary the Auction Sale Bazaar sponsored by the Exemplar chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority is well established and one of the nicest events of the Christmas season.

Kirkwood Motel is the setting and as the guests drove up to the door the gay Christmas decorations outside already had created an atmosphere of Yuletide joy.

Inside all was bright and gay too with the guests admiring the array of gifts made by the members. Many of these articles were designed with the idea that they would be suitable for Christmas gifts.

The Alpha members were guests on this occasion of the Exemplar and the latter also are allowed to invite two guests. There were many red dresses worn by those present, also green. All this added to the prettiness of the evening.

Mrs. Carl Burke, the president of Exemplar, welcomed the guests. Then Miss Allie MacLeod and Mrs. Myron Bell started the auctioning. Bidding even at the start was unusually brisk. New ideas and originally prevailed among the articles for sale.

Among the many things that could be mentioned were: A little girl's adorable flannellette nightie hand made in Christmas colors with her doll's nighties to match. Then there was a three piece hand made living-room suite for a doll's house. This included an upholstered settee with the matching armchairs. Copied in detail from Mummy and Daddy's furniture this had the added attraction that it was in a gorgeous shade of scarlet.

The food, knitted wear and novelties—all were popular and brought good prices. Mrs. J.A. Carruthers was another auctioneer and she was helped not by the Easter bunny but by a Christmas bunny in the person of Mrs. T.D. DeBlais. This made more fun and again the bidding raced along and the prices soared.

ASAMA ERUPTS TOKYO (Reuters) — Mount Asama, an active volcano north of Tokyo, erupted again Friday hurling volcanic ash and smoke more than 18,000 feet into the air.

I was a sleepless wreck

My nerves grated from lack of sleep. Indigestion bothered me. I felt jittery, depressed, drained of all ambition and energy.

Some people suffer nervousness because their systems are aggravated by elements in everyday beverages. This is particularly true of those with "nervous" temperaments.

While some people can drink tea, coffee, cocoa and some soft drinks without harm, others cannot.

Postum does not contain stimulants such as caffeine, theophylline or theobromine which can rob you of sleep, irritate your nerves, speed up pulse with subsequent depressing results. Postum does not contain tannin to give you indigestion, nor any other ingredients to cause you harm.

Switch to Instant Postum the beverage of comfort! Postum tastes and acts like no other beverage. Postum has its own distinctive flavor. Make Postum instantly, right in your cup. Just add freshly boiling water or hot milk, stir and enjoy.

Try Postum for 30 days. When nerves are soothed, you sleep better, feel better, do better. Get Instant Postum at your grocer's. Costs less than a cup. A product of General Foods, Limited.

FOR THE FAMILY ● Fireside Furnishings ● Coleman Camping Equipment ● Knives . . . pocket and household ● Steak Knife and Carving Set ● Thermometers ● Westclox . . . Clocks and Watches

The ROGERS HARDWARE Co. Ltd. WHOLESALE & RETAIL 137 Queen St. Dial 8501

the cup that comforts

Postum

Fudge in 5 minutes! Carnation is the secret—ordinary milk won't do!

So easy — no soft ball tests or candy thermometer needed. And so smooth . . . thanks to Carnation's double-richness — a quality not found in any other form of milk.

"from Contented Cows"

CARNATION 5-MINUTE FUDGE (makes about 2 pounds)

¾ cup undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK 1½ cups granulated sugar ½ teaspoon salt 1½ cups miniature marshmallows 1½ cups (1½ six-oz. packages) BAKER'S CHOCOLATE CHIPS 1 teaspoon vanilla ½ cup chopped nuts

Mix Carnation, sugar and salt in saucepan over medium heat. Heat to boiling, then cook 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Add marshmallows from heat. Remove from heat. Stir in other ingredients. Stir 2 to 2 minutes (until marshmallows melt). Pour into buttered 9-inch square pan. Cool. Cut in squares.

USE CARNATION — THE EVAPORATED MILK THAT TASTES MOST LIKE FRESH CREAM