Community Nurses' Registry Annual Meeting Held Here

The annual meeting of the Community Nurses' Registry of Charlottetown was held on Monday evening, February 24th, with a good attendance. The president, Mrs. Jennie Dewar, presided. The minutes were read by the secretary, Mrs. M. Maddigan, and approved. Correspondence was read by the secretary. The president's comprehensive report covered the year's work in detail. The financial report, read by Mrs. Bolger, showed the Registry to be in good standing. An interesting report read by Mrs. Kay

Reynolds, one of the registrars, indicated there are 47 registered nurses on the Registry. A total of 1191 calls were filled during the past year and unfilled calls averaged eleven each month, it was reported. Regret and a deep sense of loss was expressed in the death of Mrs. Helen Horne, R. N. and Miss Etta Coles, R. N. After receiving reports of the various committees the nominating committee's report was received. Nominations were also called for from the floor. The officers named were as follows: President, Mrs. Dewar (Re-elected); vice-president, Mrs. Judson; secretary, Mrs. Mildred MacDonald. Finance committee, Miss Ora Proffitt chairman; Ruth Kennedy, Eileen Croken, Margaret MacPherson. Publicity, Mary Fullerton and Mildred MacDonald. Education, Mary Maddigan and Dorothy Leard. The nominating committee's report was read by Mrs. Ruth Kennedy, R. N. The scrutineers were Miss D. MacInnis, R. N. and Mrs. Livingstone, R. N. Informative facts were presented on the Hospital Insurance plan. An interesting discussion developed regarding come policies concerning the nurses. The resolutions were presented by Eileen Croken.

Fine Recital Last Night At Notre Dame Academy

The many devotees of good music who yesterday evening ignored the weatherman's warnings and betook themselves to the recital at Notre Dame Academy were provided with top-notch musical fare in three departments: choral, pianoforte, and vocal.

From first to last the program was an outstanding success. Heard were vocal and piano solos, vocal trios and duets, and a number of piano quartets, all exhibiting the same uniform excellence of execution — a credit to the talents and application of the students and the competence of their instructors.

In addition, the highly-regarded Notre Dame Academy Choir gave added lustre to the recital and further embellished an already outstanding record, with their vocal arrangements of several popular and semi-classical selections.

Presented without introduction, the varied 29-item program was completed in less than two hours.

Included in the recital's pianoforte section were the following solos: "Elfin Dance" by Grieg, Margaret McQuaid; "Fur Elise" by Beethoven, Betty Carol Matheson; "Mimmet to Dance" by Bach, Diana Rodd; "Waltz" by Schubert, Nancy Thompson; "Rondo" by Kuhlman, Gail Carter; "Coronach" by Barrett, Deanna Reid; "Valse in C Sharp Minor" by Chopin, Margaret MacIntyre; "The Harmonica Player" by Guion, Marina Kays; "Arabesque No. 2" by Debussy, Patricia Grant.

Selections performed on the two pianos included: "First Waltzes" by Schubert, Norrice Weatherly, Karen Mahar, Joan Connolly, Ariene McQuaid; "Nola" by Arndt, Patricia LeClaire, Patricia Egan, Joan Connolly, Muriel St. John; "El Relicario" by Jose P. dilla, Margaret MacIntyre and Deanna Reid; "Hungarian Dances Nos. 5 and 6," by Brahms, Peggy "The Queen", Stewart, Cessely Soy, Deanna Reid, Mary Gallant.

VOCAL SELECTIONS

Vocal solos included: "Sweet Little Woodland Rose" by Sanford, Judith Dowling; "Smilin' Through" by Penn, Shirley Boisner; "Mighty Lak A Rose" by Nevin, Elizabeth MacKenzie; "Shepherd's Cradle" Song" by Somervell, Myrna Nicholson; "I Love All Gracious Things" by Thiman, Margaret MacIntyre; "If My Songs Were Only Winged" by Hahn, Virginia MacDougall.

Other vocal numbers on the program were: two trios, "Little Boy Blue" by Nevin, arranged by W. F. Harling, Donna Hagen, Mary Evelyn Rowe, Myrna Nicholson; "Lullaby and Good-night" by Brahms, Patricia Egan, Mary Evelyn Rowe, Peggy Grant; the duet, "Husheen" by Needham, Virginia Mustard and Peggy Grant; and "Sull'Aria" from "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart, Virginia MacDougall and Margaret MacIntyre.

A most original arrangement sung by the Academy Choir were "The Blue Danube Waltz" by Strauss; "Big Brown Bear" by Manna Zecca; "The Linden Tree" by Schubert; "Just A-Wearing For You" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, as arranged by Carol Deis; "No Man Is An Island" as arranged by Roy Ringwald, and "Ave Maria" by Scheel.

Miss Patricia Grant was accompanist for the Academy Choir.

The program commenced with "O Canada" and concluded with

Good Tourist Year Seen For P. E. Island This Year

With a stepped-up advertising campaign, the addition of the Lord Selkirk to the trans-strait ferry fleet, and the construction of the new tourist information centre at Aulac, more tourists that ever are expected to be attracted to this Province during the coming summer.

This prediction was made yesterday by Mr. A. A. Nicholson, director of the P. E. I. Travel Bureau. Mr. Nicholson based his forecast on the fact that since the first of January the Bureau handled double the number of inquiries received in the same period last year.

This increased interest in this Province as a summer resort was attributed by the director to the three-pronged advertising campaign conducted last year.

In 1957 he said 81,708 inquiries
