Llewellyn - Miller Wedding

The manse of the United Church, Trenton, N.S., was the scene of a pretty wedding on July 25, at 10 a.m., when Rev. A. W. Osborne united in marriage, Florrie Amelia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller, Murray River, P.E.I., to Oakley Cameron, of Sturgeon, P.E.I., and Trenton, N.S., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Llewellyn, Sturgeon.

The bride wore pink nylon net over taffeta, in street-length dress, with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. Her only ornament was a two-strand pearl necklace, gift of the groom. Her sister, Mrs. Roulston Graham of Murray River, was matron of honour, she wore a mauve nylon net over taffeta, sweetjamboree of mirth, music and merriment which takes them to the mysterious and colorful isle of Bali.

Beginning in an Australian dance hall, where Crosby and Hope appear as a pair of second-rate song-and-dance men, the fun fest film frolic moves through one uproarious misadventure after another.

After meeting sarong-clad Doty Lamour and her evil cousin, Murvyn Vye, the boys get all tangled up in a fantastic scheme to locate a sunken treasure. Along the "Road To Bali" Paramount's latest laugh riot which opens to-day at the Prince Edward Theatre. Advance word brings news that the gag-a-minute trio hits the millennium in laughs in his slap-happy

"Road To Bali" is the first of the "Road" pictures to be filmed in Technicolor, and in addition to its laugh-packed story, it boasts an array of musical production numbers. Song writers Johnny Burke and Jimmy Van Heusen, the talented tunesmiths who wrote most of the music for the other "Road" pictures, have turned out six new hit parade hopefuls for "Road to Bali."
