In the first of the seventh the Intermediates came up with their only rally of the game. Williams reached on an error and after Whitlock fled out, MacKenzie singled into centrefield. Reg Hughes drove both men across the plate with a booming double into left centre but the Intermediates first baseman was caught trying to stretch the double into a three bagger.

The Juniors two runs in the last of the seventh resulted from singles by Jackie Burke and Joe Coyle along with a pair of walks. In the first of the eighth the Intermediates scored once as Ryan came home on a triple by Willis Hennessey.

Don MacLeod led all batters with three hits in four trips to the plate. Team-mates Joe Coyle and Brian Lewis each had two hits as did fiery backstop Willis Hennessey of the Intermediates.

"Buck" Whitlock, Wally Shephard and Forbes Kennedy figured in the best fielding plays. Whitlock made a nice pick on Burke's grounder in the first. Shephard raced into deep right to catch Coyle's fly ball in the second while Kennedy ran far back to grab in Howatt's foul fly in the sixth.

An American Looks at Canada

"THE 20th Century will be the Century of Canada." Can this famous prophecy, made a generation ago, still come true?

It easily can, says Collier's magazine. And today, Collier's devotes 17 pages, colorfully illustrated, to a revealing article telling you why and how.

It describes the incredible mineral discoveries that have touched off a fabulous boom. It spotlights the technological advances that are turning forests into factories and wastelands into wonderlands of scientific mining. And it supplies intimate and revealing portraits of the four key personalities who dominate Canadian life today.

For a look at Canada as America sees it, don't miss the five-part article, CANADA TODAY, in Collier's, out now.
