IN MEMORIAM

MRS. EDISON TAYLOR

Friends, relatives and acquaintances were shocked and saddened to learn of the sudden and unexpected passing of Mrs. Edison Taylor which occurred at her home in Lyndale, P.E.I. on the morning of December 4th, 1957.

Mrs. Taylor, the former Ellen Elizabeth MacLeod, was the daughter of the late R. C. MacLeod and Mrs. MacLeod of Kinross. She was 42 years of age. A life though short, yet marked the end of unselfish and untiring service to home, community and God. She was a loyal member, supporter and choir member of Orwell Head United Church which suffered a distinct loss in her passing.

Mrs. Taylor who was a graduate of Prince of Wales College, taught school for a number of years.

On Saturday, December 8th, funeral service was held in Orwell head United Church, conducted by her pastor, Rev. F. MacKinnon, who took as his text, Psalm 127: 2 "He giveth His beloved sleep." The church could not maintain the large congregation that assembled as people from far and near came to pay their respects to a friend and loved one.

Hymns sung were "Jesus, Lover of my Soul" and "Abide With Me". A duet, "There will be no night there" was sung by Lloyd Martin and Malcolm MacLean.

Besides her husband, Edison Taylor, Mrs. Taylor is survived by nine children ranging in age from four months to seventeen years; her mother Mrs. R. C. MacLeod of Kinross; four brothers, Wendel of Kinross, Reginald in Halifax, Harold in Toronto and Hector in Langley, B.C.; one sister, Marion in Vancouver, B.C.

Burial was in Orwell Head Cemetery.
