UNITED CHURCH COUNCIL MEMBERS TO VISIT PROVINCE 500 STRONG

Prince Edward Island is to be visited by 500 members of the General Council of the United Church of Canada on September 18 as a tour of entertainment for the Council members who will be meeting in Sackville, N. B., at that time. The General Council of the United Church meets every second year and this is the first time in church history that it has been held in a place other than a large centre. It has been the custom to give one day of such meetings to a sight-seeing trip and it was unanimously agreed that on this occasion that Prince Edward Island had more to offer in the way of scenic beauty and historic interest than any other place in the Maritimes.

The delegates will leave Sackville by special train for Cape Tormentine at 12 o'clock standard time and will arrive on the ferry at Borden at 2 p.m. where they will be met by 125 cars. The route to be taken will be from Borden to Read's Corner to Kensington through Margate with a short stop at Cavendish, thence to Charlottetown where they will be served a lobster dinner. The return trip to Borden will be made by way of the Trans-Canada Highway, arriving at 8 p.m.

The Prince Edward Island Travel Bureau is co-operating by placing two commentators on the train who will give the council members a description of Island points of interest and Island history. A piper will provide music on the C.N.E. ferry and travel picture of the Province will be shown on the train.

The programme committee, headed by Mr. Sydney T. Green, has received assurance of cooperation from citizens of several denominations in making the visitors' tour a memorable one.

The number of automobiles carried on the route showed an increase of 119 over the same month last year. Trucks also showed a decrease of 231 this June to 738 from the 969 of last June.

Assassin Of Trotsky Asks To Be Released

MEXICO CITY, (AP)—Jacques Mornard, who hacked Leon Trotsky to death 14 years ago, has asked to be released from prison.

In a six-page letter addressed to the Mexican secretary of internal affairs, Mornard argued his good behavior as a prisoner entitled him to freedom. He has served 14 years of a 20-year sentence.

With the letter Mornard sent 3,400 pesos about $275 which at the time of his conviction the court ordered him to pay to Trotsky's widow as compensation.

He expressed fear for his life, saying if he should be transferred from the penitentiary to the penal colony on the Marla Islands, there is a possibility someone might try to kill him either on the way or after arrival.

ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE

Mornard became eligible for a parole December, but he made no move at the time. Most interested persons thought he wanted to hold on to the protection of his cell and avoid persons who might want to avenge Trotsky's death or silence Mornard forever.

Mornard hacked the exiled Russian revolutionary leader to death with an ice ax here on Aug. 20, 1940. He never has said exactly who he is, why he murdered Trotsky, whether he was hired to commit the crime or did it on his own.

He lives comfortably in a private prison apartment for which he pays 500 pesos a month from a mysterious private income. A prison employee once said Mornard gets 30 pesos a month from the Soviet embassy here.

REDS APPEAR TO HAVE MADE ERROR IN GUATEMALA

It looks very much as if the international Communist strategists in the Kremlin made some pretty bad mistakes in sining up the Guatemalan situation.

It's hard to imagine they wanted to have control of the beachhead in the western hemisphere. Their grip on the government of President Jacob Arbenz Guzman was strong and had they played their cards carefully it seems likely Arbenz might have been able to stay in power for a long time.

But it was the Kremlin itself that blew the whole thing sky high with the result that Arbenz now has been overthrown.

Certainly the Kremlin realized when it permitted a large shipment of Communist arms to be sent from an Eastern European port to Guatemala that an explosion on the Guatemalan issue, if it came, would be a disaster for the United States would result.

Thus in authorizing this shipment the Russians were engaging in what looks like an open provocation both to the United States and to anti-Communist Guatemalans.

MISJUDGED U.S. ACTION

On the one hand, Communist strategists may have thought the U.S. government would undertake some hasty direct action against Guatemala which would throw all Latin America into an anti-U.S. hysteria.

They may also have calculated that a revolt inside Guatemala would establish a full-blown Communist revolution, and reign of terror which would put the country permanently in their grip.

The Russians went wrong on every count as it turned out. The United States took action only in concert with other American nations. The Guatemalan Communists proved to be not so strong after all.

After information is going to come to light in Guatemala in the near future to expose the Communist plot and the Communist reign of terror there and put the Red machinations in a pretty unseemly light.

"At the same time," Sobolev asserted, "were ignored such important spheres as the physics of supersonic sounds coming close to the speed of light, speeds whose theory was given by Einstein."

Pravda Raps Soviet Physicists

MOSCOW (AP)—Pravda rapped Soviet physicists Saturday for paying enough heed to the works of Albert Einstein because they disapprove of his "dark idealistic viewpoint."

The Communist party paper declared that failure to pay attention to the fruits of Einstein's physical research had caused Soviet delay in the field of super-sonic speed.

The article by academicalian S. L. Sobolev said some faculty members at Moscow University "missed the practicality of the new science of physics, not even

Inquest Continues In Sydney, N.S. Murder Case

SYDNEY (CP)—An inquest into the lovers' lane strangling of brunette Florence Taverner was adjourned during the week-end after a girl friend unfolded a tale of overnight dates the pair kept with men who paid from $15 to $30 for their favors.

Mary Bennett took the stand at the second day of the hearing and volunteered to testify only on condition that she be granted immunity under the Canada Evidence Act which would prohibit her testimony from being used against her in any future trial.

Coroner A. D. Muggah summoned seven witnesses and then set the inquiry aside to July 14 when he said an additional 14 persons would be called to testify.

The courtroom was hushed as Miss Bennett told in a whisper of spending nights with Mrs. Taverner, 27, and different men in Sydney hotels and Grant's tourist cabins on the outskirts of the city near the lonely spot where the woman's fully clothed body was discovered last April 19.

LOST $20 BILL

On a visit to the cabins last December with three men, she related, "I was paid $15 and Florence was paid $20 for the night." She said she remembered the incident clearly because Mr. Taverner lost her $20 bill and got into an argument with one of the men over it.

Another witness, U.S. Army Pte. Thomas Senigar of Port Arthur, Tex., stubbornly refused to say anything other than that he left his base at Harmon Field, Nfld., last October, came to Sydney and met a woman identified only as "Tvy Best."

The coroner pressed him for elaboration but Senigar remained silent.

"Then I commit you to jail," the coroner said.

"That suits me," shrugged Senigar. He is being held for contempt of court.

REGISTERED TWICE

Walter Grant, owner of the cabins, testified that Mrs. Taverner—the estranged wife of a soldier—was registered at his place twice under what name they registered.

Grant pointed to three girls in the courtroom he said also had checked into his cabins under assumed names. Walter Grant Jr., a son, said he had admitted several girls and knew the names they used were not their real ones.

Miss Bennett said she last saw Mrs. Taverner March 10.

"I was in room five at a local hotel when I heard Florence's voice," she said haltingly. "I looked through a crack in the floor of room one and I saw her blouse on a chair. I don't know who she was with."

Mrs. Ethel Hart, Mrs. Taverner's one-time landlady, quoted a man identified only as Ruben Spongie as saying he was in love with the victim and would kill her before he would let anyone else have her.
