Pleads Guilty To Brink's Robbery But Others Balk

BOSTON (AP) — Joseph J. (Specs) O'Keefe, a 47-year-old convict who admitted participation in the six-year-old Brink's $1,219,000 robbery and accused 10 others, pleaded guilty to armed robbery in superior court Monday but six of his alleged partners in the job refused to follow suit.

O'Keefe told his story to a grand jury Friday. As a result more than 40 indictments were returned against him and the others.

His guilty plea this morning was quick. He was taken back to jail as sentence was deferred.

This afternoon six of his alleged colleagues were brought under extra heavy guard from Charles St. jail to the same courtroom.

While the six stood "mute" before Judge Daniel D. O'Brien, squads of police swarmed over the courthouse.

O'Brien set bail of $200,000 each for: Joseph F. McGinnis, 52; Anthony Pina, 48; Vincent J. Costa, 41; Adolph Maffie, 44; Henry Baker, 49; and Michael V. Geagan, 47.
