Covehead and Brackley Point Notes

The hotels in this vicinity are crowded The concert held in Covehead and Stanhope Hall on the 8th inst. was a success. The programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music and recitations was, on the whole, fairly well carried out. The evening was fine, the attendance good, and the amount realized very satisfactory to all concerned.

We notice in a recent issue of the Patriot a labored account of what seems to an ordinary mind a rather peculiar operation. The place was Willow Cottage, the time 3 p. m. "Traveller," in his report of the evening's proceedings, claims to have been actually "stuffed." Now, that the operation in question is sometimes performed we will not attempt to deny, but how the victims are able to quack, gobble and crow after what is usually considered the last sad rite, is to us an unmitigated staggerer. The fact that this migratory bird has survived the stuffing ceremony, at least long enough to tell the tale, is calculated to raise hopes in the poultry yard which, in the natural course of events, must be doomed to disappointment.

Complaints have lately reached our ears of the peculiar actions of this Island of ours towards some of its visitors. It seems that whether they are returning weary and hungry from fishing expeditions, or refreshed and full from club dinners, their progress is seriously retarded by a rocking motion of the ground. Some evil-minded persons might, perhaps, be inclined to say that this phenomenon is caused by some part of the fisherman's outfit or the diner's menu, but as we do not belong to that class we would rather attribute it to some reprehensible laxity in the geological structure of the "gem of the sea." Where is Mr. Bain, our geologist?

A writer in the Guardian, subscribing himself "Fair Play," has taken upon himself to criticise our last notes. It is evident that he has an axe to grind, and in order to do this he has thrust himself upon the people of Brackley Point as their champion. He does not, however, seem to be aware that a more severe stricture on the intelligence of the people whose cause he pretends to espouse could hardly be imagined than when he poses as the discoverer of the mysterious fact that they have an ancestry. His reference to the pastor, too, in the midst of such an effusion must be anything but flattering to him. It is no assurance, however, that the accent of the reverend gentleman may not receive the same attention which was devoted to that of his eminent predecessor. The writer of Notes has no intention of criticizing Covehead choir, and this was perfectly manifest to every intelligent reader who had no object in giving to what was said a meaning never intended. His talk concerning malice, spleen, and the gratification of spite is arrant humbug and nonsense, and but shows that he mistakes abuse for argument and high-sounding phrases for common sense. "Fair Play" ought to be master of the subject he wishes to elucidate before presuming to speak thereon, and should remember the general truth that while there is nothing more commendable than a still tongue in an ignorant man's head, there is nothing more detestable than a loquacious nonentity. Truly, in this case, a mountain hath conceived and brought forth a mouse.

"Brackley Beach Aggregation" made on the 1st inst. a somewhat lame attempt to carry out the programme arranged by them. The entertainment was begun by the introduction of Mrs. Jarley's waxworks. The gallant major, arrayed for the fray in ladies garb, advanced to the platform and with becoming maidenly modesty sought to explain the figures on exhibition. We could not always make out what was said, but we have no doubt that the fair damsel well knew what she so verbosely attempted to explain. We will reverently leave the second performer, with his "ideal hotel," "feminine queen," liberal offers to those contemplating matrimony, the benign wisdom which he and many others infused into the harmless little sillinesses, and to make but one step from the sublime to the ridiculous, will pass on to the Joker. The stage manager announced that we were to be treated to a few "jokes," but he put us off our guard so much by adding the startling assertion that they would be of that peculiar class which need no explanation, that we were quite unprepared for the exercise in patience which was about to be inflicted on us. It was certainly a refreshing view to see the leader of the "aggravation" so artistically and becomingly attired, but to be compelled meekly to submit to what he seemed to expect to be taken as jokes was a somewhat excruciating delight. One of the "jokes" being scarcely suited to a temperate climate such as ours will never flourish here except in a hot-house. Some of them bore traces of recent resurrection, but were so horribly mutilated as to be almost unrecognizable even to their most intimate acquaintances. A few others again had at least the virtue of being so charmingly original that they will never be repeated. Notwithstanding that many by nature and practice were fully prepared to laugh should they receive the slightest provocation, only a few isolated cases of indulgence in that innocent relaxation could be noticed—a fact goes to prove, if, indeed, proof be necessary, that the vulgar, grotesque and ridiculous are but sorry substitutes for the brilliant and ludicrous. We would like to mention other parts of the programme, but must content ourselves with expressing the hope that should the Aggravation ever decide to favor us with another performance they will not presume so far on our ignorance as they did on this occasion. we would like also to conclude with a verse, and as we have no poetic vein of our own, we feel that we cannot do better than quote the ode—a gem in its way—which flowed from that of the last year's aggregation.

Adieu! adieu! adieu!
I can say no more for you,
Or we'll be locked out this blessed night;
You're at Shaw's, so you're all right.

Conflicting Opinions.

The Prohibition Commission, taking evidence at Fredericton, have obtained the following among many statements of opinion:

"Alexander Gibson, the lumber king of Marysville, said liquor had never been sold in that town. He got rid of men who drank as soon as he could. Temperance was the rule and the results were most satisfactory. He employed 1200 hands in summer and 2400 in winter. He preferred abstainers, and found them better men every time. Prohibition in Marysville had a tremendously good effect. It would be a good thing for Canada. Employes in the trade would find work in other business.

Chief Justice Sir John Allen had very rarely seen a person drunk on the street. He would not favor prohibition, but if public sentiment were behind such a law, it would do a great deal of good.

Judge Frazer thought in the present state of public opinion, prohibition could not be enforced. The sentiment in favor of total abstinance was growing.

Bishop Coadjutor Kingdon expressed himself strongly against a prohibitory law. It would not accomplish sobriety and if flagrantly violated would do harm.

County Court Judge Steadman said the Scott act had largely reduced the sale of liquor in Fredericton and that prohibition could be enforced. In the Scott act counties of Queen's and Sunbury hardly any liquor was sold. Two-thirds of the criminal cases coming before him had their origin in the liquor trade, but crime had greatly diminished.

Rev. Mr. Alexander thought a prohibition law would be considered unjust and contrary to the law of God. The drink traffic should be monopolized by government.

John A. Morrison said the Scott act was a perfect farce. Out of one hundred men employed by his firm, ninety-five drank. He favored high license.

H. H. Pitts thought the Scott act a marked success. Prohibition law would be supported by two-thirds of the people.

OTTAWA, Aug. 11.—Hon. Mr. Dewdney, speaking to-day in reference to the recent inspection of the eastern immigration agencies, says he has not yet decided what changes to make. He favors an arrangement by which a portion of the staff at Quebec could be sent to Halifax in the early spring before the navigation of the St. Lawrence opens and when the work at Halifax is the heaviest. On the opening of the St. Lawrence route the Quebec staff would return home, accompanied by a portion of the staff of the Halifax agency. In this way the expenses of the two agencies in the matter of extra assistance would be materially reduced.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 14.—A special from Cowan, Tenn., says that on Saturday morning, after the convicts had entered the mines at Tracy city, about four hundred armed men walked into the stockade, and after clearing it of everything of value, set it on fire and burned it to the ground. They then marched to the mines and ordered that the convicts be brought out. They took charge of them and the guards, loaded them in box cars and ordered the conductor and engineer to leave immediately. Being covered by guns they were obliged to obey. The train arrived here at 1 p. m. Capt. Burton, with twenty-five guards, took the three hundred convicts in charge, and they are under control. Between Seivanee and Monteagle the convicts cut the train in two and ten or fifteen made a break for liberty. Several shots were fired. Matt Wilson (white) was killed, and Tom Smith (colored) was wounded. Six or eight escaped. The released prisoners were taken to Nashville and placed in the penitentiary.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Switchmen in the Lehigh Valley, Erie and Buffalo yards struck this morning for ten hours a day. The strike will probably extend over these entire systems and other roads. The men now work twelve to fifteen hours. They want extra pay for time over ten.

BRUSSELLS, Aug. 14.—A dynamite cartridge exploded this morning under the window of a cafe at Ostend, the fashionable summer resort of the Belgian aristocracy and European nobility. The cafe was wrecked and several persons injured, three fatally. Great excitement prevails.

FOR OVER FIFTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. 1yr

Minister Egan has agreed with Chili upon a convention for the settlement of all unadjusted claims of the United States against Chili by means of a Claim Committee to meet in Washington.

GRATIFYING TO ALL.—The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrates the value of the qualities on which its success is based, and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

It is announced that the management of the Northern Pacific and Wisconsin Central railways will shortly be consolidated, the latter road becoming part of the Northern Pacific.

Paralysis Defeated!
BLEEDING PILES,
Headache and Dyspepsia
CURED BY SKODA.

MRS. MELVIN IS A LADY OF INTELLIGENCE, HONESTY AND TRUTHFULNESS, AND HIGHLY ESTEEMED BY ALL HER NEIGHBORS AND FRIENDS. SHE WILL COROBORATE ALL THE STATEMENTS IN THE FOLLOWING LETTER.

GENTLEMEN:—For years I had a terrible trouble with my stomach—my food souring immediately after eating, together with a severe headache. I would have a prickly, numb sensation in my arms, and down my sides, with strong tendency towards Paralysis. For thirteen years I have been troubled with extreme Constipation, combined with that most terrible tormentor, Bleeding Piles. At times they would bleed profusely, and pain me severely, so that I could neither sit, stand, sleep or eat. I became very much reduced in flesh and strength, and felt completely worn out. I have tried nearly all the Physicians in this vicinity, and have taken patent medicines in large quantities, but received no permanent benefit. Through a friend, my attention was called to the merits of SKODA'S REMEDIES. I consented to try them, having but little faith in their efficacy, I at first felt but little effect, but persisted in their use. I have now taken four bottles of SKODA'S DISCOVERY, used two boxes of SKODA'S PILE CURE and four boxes SKODA'S LITTLE TABLETS. My Dyspepsia is all gone, Bowels regular, Appetite good, and have gained much in flesh. In fact, AM PERFECTLY WELL.

All credit is due to your Wonderful Remedies, and I cannot say too much in their praise.

Truly yours,
MRS. CAPT. J. E. MELVIN,
No. 38 Warren St.,
