

A Natural Lawyer.

A man dropped in on a Stockton lawyer the other day and wanted to borrow ten dollars. "Haven't got it," said the lawyer. "Well," returned the modest man, "can't you borrow it for me?" "I might, but you must pay back that five dollars you borrowed of me a year ago first." He left. The next day he came again, and brought the five dollars. "Thank you, thank you," smiled the member of the bar, pocketing the piece. "That ain't the proper thing to say; 'thank you' is too tame." "Yes!" "Yes!" "What should I say, then?" "Why, you ought to say, 'Come on, old boy, let's go down and have something.'"

House-Cleaning Time.

Don't open the campaign too early. Begin with the cellar instead of the garret. Clean closets before rooms. Clean one room at a time, thus avoiding distracting confusion. If the woodwork of a room needs repainting and your circumstances are such that you can afford the outlay, now is the time to have it done. Wash bed springs and inside of bedsteads with a mixture of quicksilver and white of an egg. Because you are cleaning there is no reason why breakfast, dinner and supper should not be in time. A little forethought and extra preparation of food the day before cleaning will enable you to have your customary meetings without resorting to that unsocial makeshift—a cold bit in a closet. Don't be unwise enough to take down every stone in the house, except the one in the kitchen, because of a few warm April days.

Salt.

A morning hand bath in cold salt water is delightfully invigorating. Warm salt water inhaled through the nostrils will cure cold and catarrh. A pinch of salt taken frequently will stop a cough or throat irritation. A glass of salt water, warm or cold taken on rising in the morning, will cure constipation. Rubbing the eyes when tired or weak in warm salt water will soothe and strengthen them.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up, disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, indigestion, dizziness of the head, palpitation of the heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottle, 10 cts. Try it.
