With the possibility there may not be enough warm weather left to dry out rain and snow-soaked crops, some southern Alberta farmers are resorting to artificial methods. Here a farm equipment official discusses a shipment of two propane-fired, 500-bushel dryers to Nobleford, 20 miles northwest of Lethbridge. (CP Wirephoto)

70TH BIRTHDAY TODAY

Dief Girds For Election; Dissident PCs Heed Call

By FRASER MacDOUGALL, OTTAWA (CP) — What a difference 2 1/2 years can make! Saturday, Feb. 8, 1963, with the campaign for an April 8 election lying ahead, John Diefenbaker looked back on a week that ranks among the most shattering in Canadian politics. This Saturday, Sept. 18, on his 70th birthday, he girds for the Nov. 8 election campaign after one of the most satisfying weeks ever enjoyed by a Canadian politician, with dissident members of his Conservative party eagerly heeding his rallying call for unity.

Although his physical health was sound as he opened the 1963 campaign, Mr. Diefenbaker showed the strain of what he himself once described as "strenuous, difficult and trying" times.

This year, he is buoyant, full of zest and obviously straining at the bit to pitch into the battle against the Liberals who displaced him from office in 1963. The February week in 1963 was packed with high political drama:

EASTERN FUNERALS

MacDONALD FUNERAL — Funeral of Mrs. John J. MacDonald was held Friday morning to St. Columba Church, East Point, where Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. W. D. MacDonald who also conducted service at the grave. Msgr. J. A. Sullivan was present in the sanctuary. Pallbearers were Hugh MacPhee, Russell MacPhee, Bernard Ryan, Daniel MacDonald, M.L.A., Clarence MacDonald, Augustus Mallard. Interment was in the church cemetery.

DUNPHY FUNERAL — Funeral for Mary-Serita Dunphy was held Monday afternoon from the Perry Funeral Home to St. Mary's Church, Sporis, where funeral service was conducted by Msgr. J. A. Sullivan who also conducted service at the grave. Pallbearers were Lloyd Dunphy, Everett Dunphy, Richard Dunphy, Francis MacDonald. Interment was in the church cemetery.

WESTERN BRIEFS

IN HOSPITAL — Stanley Arthur, South Kildare, is a patient in O'Leary Community Hospital.

SON IN HOSPITAL — Wilbert Arsenault, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Arsenault, St. Louis, is a patient in the Western Hospital.

—Three cabinet ministers resigned in a bitter policy dispute over nuclear arms that shook the administration. Prime Minister Pearson, then Liberal Opposition leader, summed it all up as "seven days that have shaken our world."

The key issue all that week was whether Canada was to equip its nuclear weapon carriers with nuclear warheads, although a deeper chain of issues ran through it and earlier crisis-period events.

The week began with the resignation of Douglas Harkness as defence minister. He termed his views on nuclear weapons irreconcilable with those of the prime minister.

Tuesday, half a dozen or more cabinet ministers met in the office of George Hees, trade minister, and reliable sources said they urged Mr. Diefenbaker to resign as prime minister.

That night the government fell.

Saturday, Mr. Hees and Pierre Sevigny, associate defence minister, resigned. Mr. Hees quit politics and didn't run in the election. Mr. Sevigny contested his Longueuil riding and was beaten. Mr. Harkness successfully defended his Calgary North seat.

ALTER CLC DATES — OTTAWA (CP) — Dates have been revised for two of the five conferences of white-collar unions planned this winter by the Canadian Labor Congress. The Montreal conference will be held Jan. 22-23, a change from the original Oct. 30-31 plan, and the one at Toronto Jan. 15-16 instead of Jan. 16-17. Plans are unchanged for meetings at Regina Nov. 27-28, Vancouver Dec. 4-5 and Halifax March 5-6.

THREE SIDELINED — Another three cabinet figures remained on the election sidelines. Donald Fleming, justice minister and former finance minister, left public life for personal reasons. E. Davie Fulton, works minister, went home to British Columbia to lead the provincial Conservative party.

Ernest Harkness, state secretary, dropped out because of poor health.

Despite the setbacks, Mr. Diefenbaker fought a tenacious campaign, winning 95 of the 265 seats against 129 for the Liberals who took over the government.

This week things were different in the Conservative camp, with Mr. Hees at the centre of the most dramatic development.

Thursday, he unexpectedly announced his resignation as president of the Montreal and Canadian stock exchanges to run as a Conservative candidate in the election.

Mr. Harkness is likewise a candidate, but there is no indication yet that he is supporting his old leader.

Also this week, another straying Conservative came back to the fold. E. A. Goodman of Toronto, a former power in the party who broke with Mr. Diefenbaker over the nuclear issue, is back in harness as national campaign chairman.

There are reports the party will have enthusiastic support this time from other prominent Toronto-area Conservatives who remained aloof, or were in outright opposition, in 1963.

Nuclear policy, the announced reason for most of the 1963 defections, no longer is an issue. The Liberal government, acting on the party's 1963 campaign pledge, equipped Canada's forces with nuclear warheads.

Gross Product May Increase Nine Per Cent

—TORONTO (CP) — Canada's gross national product may increase by as much as nine per cent this year, Finance Minister Gordon said here.

He told the Junior Investment Dealers' Association that the seven-per-cent increase he predicted in his budget speech was made before statistics for the first quarter of the present calendar year were available.

"Subsequent events have done nothing to dispel our confidence in this. In fact, the developments of the summer months have led us to raise our sights."

"On the basis of present knowledge, I would expect a final GNP figure of about $51,000,000,000 for the year."

"If this is realized — it will mean another phenomenal rise of about nine per cent, the same rate of growth as was achieved in 1964."

He said that in the case of real income per capita, this would mean an average gain of 4.5 per cent a year for the last two years, compared to a gain of less than one per cent a year for the period between 1958 and 1962, an increase that was "really quite remarkable."

Arsenault, 254 Duke St., Summerville, was held Friday morning at 9 o'clock from the Roomy Funeral Home to St. Paul's Church for Requiem High Mass celebrated by Rev. Austin Bradley. Athena Ratepayers Will March Tuesday

The march of the ratepayers of the Athena Regional High School District, to protest the location of a new government liquor store near their school, will be held Tuesday, Sept. 21. The march will be approximately 5-10ths of a mile in length, about 1-50th of the distance between the Provincial Building and Athena Regional High School.

A motorcade will leave the Athena Regional High School and drive to Victoria Park, Charlottetown, from where the march will proceed to the Provincial Building at approximately 10:30 a.m.

Originally the protest of the ratepayers was based on moral grounds, the feeling being that the location of the liquor store near the school would not be a good influence on the students.

Since the Athena Regional Citizens Committee have made a number of representations to the Provincial Cabinet and have not yet received any suitable reply or action, they feel the matter has gone beyond the moral issue and is now a question of the government not heeding the voice of the people.

The purpose of the march, according to Harold Laird and Robert Jardine, two members of the Athena Regional Citizens Committee, is to demonstrate to the government the number of people their committee represents.

Parkdale Firemen Answer Two Calls

The Parkdale Fire Department answered two calls yesterday.

The first was at 4:15 p.m. when firemen were called to put out a grass fire on the Kensington Road. Later in the evening they were called to the home of a Guardian photographer William Taylor, 16 Donwood Drive, where a television set had short circuited and caused the house to be filled with smoke.

Clarence (Kay) McInnis of Crockett & Storey SHOULD FURNITURE BE MIXED OR MATCHED?

Many years ago, furniture stores featured six, seven and even eight piece living room sets all in the same finish. This finish usually was either mahogany, walnut or maple. Very often the fabric and color on the upholstered pieces were all identical.

Although many people still prefer to use the same wood finishes throughout the living room, the trend through the years has been to get away from sets or suites of living room furniture by using many different finishes in the same room very effectively.

As a matter of fact, many leading decorators prefer using different wood finishes and even different periods in the same room.

One of the loveliest living rooms I have seen had a mahogany piano, a modern sofa, two Early American maple chairs, a white marble top cocktail table with black base, and a fruitwood French Provincial breakfast. However, all the colors and textures of the floor coverings, fabrics, lamps, draperies and walls were beautifully blended.

So whether you like to mix or match, our decorators here at Crockett & Storey, 134 Kent St., are at your service without cost or obligation. Open Fridays until 9 p.m.

Censure Move Against U.S. Is Rejected

By WILLIAM NEVILLE, OTTAWA (CP) — Legislators from 61 nations closed out the 54th Inter-Parliamentary Conference Friday by beating down a Communist attempt to censure United States military bases around the globe.

The final session of the two-week conference also gave United Nations Secretary-General U Thant its unanimous support in his bid to mediate the Kashmir crisis between India and Pakistan.

The bid by Romania to win conference support for a demand for "the dismantling of all countries' produced the one break in the general spirit of unanimity which dominated the closing meeting.

The Communist resolution, in the form of an amendment to a general draft on the United Nations and disarmament, was defeated by a vote of 303 to 146 with 93 abstentions. Only the Communist bloc plus India, Kuwait, the United Arab Republic and two Communist delegates from Italy, voted for it.

Once this amendment was dis-

He recalled promises which have been fulfilled since his party has taken office. He made mention of student loans, old age security, allowance to children still in school, the new
