ZION Y. P. S. MEETING — The regular weekly meeting of Zion Y. P. S. which was held last evening opened with a devotional period led by Faye Hickox and John Whiteway. Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. F. W. Barlow, provincial examiner of the Motor Vehicle Branch in Charlottetown who gave a very instructive talk on safe driving and also showed films on the subject. Following this a business meeting was held opening with ten minutes read by the secretary. Several items of importance were discussed after which the meeting adjourned to the lower hall for a round of games led by Marion MacDonald and Bob Younker. The singing of "Blest Be The Tie That Binds" closed the meeting.

TRINITY Y. P. U. — The regular meeting of Trinity Y.P.U. was held last evening in the social hall. The meeting opened with a spirited recreational period led by the recreation committee. A business meeting led by the president, Charles Frizell, followed. Plans were finalized for a pantry sale to be held late in January. David MacDonald then gave a report on his trip to boys' parliament at Sackville during the Christmas holidays. The organist, Mr. George Thompson, was presented with a gift for his work in training the young people's choir. This was followed by a worship service led by Shirley Glanning, and assisted by John Chandler and Stuart Drummond with Heather Rodd as pianist. The meeting closed with Mizpah Benediction.

New Organ At Trinity United Church

The huge new Casavant organ is rapidly taking form at Trinity United Church, Charlottetown. The work of installing the pipes is now well under way and the organ should be ready for use about mid-February. — (Photo by Margaret Mallett).

LABOUR COUNCIL MEETING — Mr. J. M. McAlduff was re-elected President of the Charlottetown and District Trades and Labour Council at their annual meeting held on Monday night. Reports were received from the secretary, Ivan MacDougall and the treasurer, M. E. MacDonald indicating a healthy condition numerically and financially. Other officers elected were Ken MacQuarrie, vice president and the secretary and treasurer both of whom were re-elected. C. W. MacArthur was elected sergeant-at-arms and three trustees, Art Bishop, Muriel Roper and William Lee were also elected.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH Y. P. S. — A very enthusiastic group of young people met in the church annex for their social evening. The well enjoyed program was under the direction of Eleanor Murray, Marie Russell and Mary Vessey. The lively evening started with a shoe box relay-race. Many other fun-packed games were greatly enjoyed during the evening. A delicious lunch was served by the committee namely Hazel Stewart, Marie Russell and Dougie Parkman. Thanks was offered by Allan Dunbar. The evening was closed with a sing-song.

Junior League
The regular monthly meeting of the Junior League of the Charlottetown Hospital was held in the Nurses' Residence on January 3rd. Mrs. Mitchell MacDonald opened the meeting with prayer followed by the roll call and minutes of the previous monthly meeting.

The treasurer, Mrs. Percy MacDonald, reported a substantial bank balance. Mrs. J. W. Croken read the following letters of appreciation: Miss Emma Whalen, Sisters M. Cornelia, Sisters of St. Martha, Charlottetown Hospital, Student Nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital and the Monastery of the Precious Blood. A letter was read from Mrs. Frank MacD'onald thanking the League for a gift of a baby blanket presented to her. Mrs. MacDonald's baby was the first one born at the Charlottetown Hospital in 1955. Mrs. Ivan Laurie reported that Mr. Pete DeRoche of the Grafton St. Service Station was the lucky winner of the Christmas Tree Jackpot. The lucky ticket was drawn by Constable Downe.

In her report Mrs. Laurie stated that the annual Christmas Tree Jackpot had been a decided financial success and she thanked her committee and the members of the League for their support in making this project so successful. Two new members, Mrs. "Babe" Brown and Mrs. E. Judson were welcomed into the League. It was decided that a cake sale be held the latter part of January with the following committee chosen: Mrs. Albert Murphy, Mrs. B. Judson, Mrs. Vincent Pineau, Mrs. Earl Burke, Mrs. Jack MacEachern, Mrs. Richard Brown, Mrs. Lou Doyle.

Mrs. Albert Murphy and Mrs. Lou Doyle offered their services on the cart for the month of January. Lunch was served by Mrs. Mitchell MacDonald, Mrs. J. W. Croken, Mrs. "Kip" Hughes and Mrs. Percy MacDonald.

P. E. I. Hospital Ladies' Aid Monthly Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Junior Ladies' Aid of the Prince Edward Island Hospital was held on Monday afternoon, Jan. 17, in the Cundall Home with 48 members present. The president, Mrs. J. K. L. Irwin, opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer repeated in unison, followed by the minutes of the last regular meeting and of an executive meeting read by the secretary and approved. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. W. Barbour. Mrs. Irwin then wished the members a Happy New Year and welcomed back to the aid a former member, Mrs. Jack Anderson.

Mrs. Gilles read the roll call and Mrs. Ralph Jenkins, treasurer of the hospital cart, gave her report. Mrs. Earle Taylor, Junior Aid representative to the board of trustees, reported that she is to be made a member of the board of trustees of the hospital representing the Junior Aid. Mrs. Taylor also reported that the lamp ordered after the last meeting has arrived.

Mrs. Irwin then thanked Mrs. Alfred MacNeill and her committee who trimmed the Christmas trees for the wards, and also the big outside tree in front of the hospital, which Mrs. Irwin said seemed to get bigger and lovelier each year. Mrs. George Fisher, corresponding secretary, was asked to write letters of thanks to Mr. MacLean who donated a string of lights, and to Mr. Alfred MacNeill and Mr. Don Seaman for their help with the trees.

The president then called on Mrs. Alan Macmillan for a report on the progress being made with plans for the fashion show. Mrs. Macmillan stated that everything was going very well that a new committee to be called the Centennial Committee had been formed to be in charge of costumes and props, with Mrs. L. E. Prowse as convenor and working with Mrs. Prowse will be Mrs. T. A. Laird, Mrs. J. A. Likely, Mrs. Robert Large, Mrs. Gordon Raynor and Mrs. W. W. Reid. The meeting then considered whether it would be more desirable to have two shows on one night or one show on each of two nights. After a number of points had been discussed it was moved and seconded that one show be held on two consecutive evenings if the stores agreed.

Volunteers to fill out the Clothes Committee, the booklet and wardrobe committee, publicity and decorating committees were called for. The lists of suggestions for models for the show were passed in to the fashion show convenor. As there was no further business Mrs. L. E. Prowse moved the meeting adjourn, seconded by Mrs. Wendall Barbour, and tea was served by Mrs. Ian Burnett.

Annual Meeting Of St. Peter's Cathedral

The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Peter's Cathedral was held on Monday evening at 8 p.m. in the parish hall, Rochford Square. The Rector, the Reverend Canon G. E. Moffatt, presided assisted by the churchwardens, Messrs. H. B. Armstrong and A. H. Peake, and the vestry clerk, Mr. A. C. R. Hayes. Attendance of parishioners was better than it has been for some years.

Reference was made to the 85th anniversary of St. Peter's which was observed in 1954, and to the various gifts to Cathedral and chapel which were received during the anniversary year. The churchwardens' report, together with the treasurer's statement, showed that financially St. Peter's had the best year in its history. Total income from all sources was almost $18,000, of which over $3,000 was spent out of the parish treasury and missionary purposes. This figure does not include money devoted to missionary causes by branches of the W. A. Reports were presented for the church school, Senior W. A., Evening W. A., Junior Branch of Evening W. A., Girls' Auxiliary, Junior Auxiliary, Women's Guild, Laymen's Association, and A.Y.P.A. No formal reports of Sanctuary Guild, Servers' Guild, and choir were asked for, but their devotion and assistance in the worship of the Cathedral is obvious week by week, and appreciated by the congregation as a whole.

The main discussion of the evening related to ways and means of improving the present work of the parish and extending the influence of the Church amongst the indifferent and the unconverted. Many speakers of all ages made valuable contributions, and such was the interest that the incoming vestry was directed to receive considered opinions from all groups in the parish, and the Rector was asked to call another meeting of the congregation within 2 months in order to arrive at a decision regarding future parish policy. Election of officers for 1955 resulted in the following gentlemen making up the vestry: H. B. Armstrong, A. H. Peake, F. Carbonell, R. Hayes, W. H. Nevin, J. Pickard, J. B. Peake and W. Shama. Delegates to Synod are H. M. Simpson and H. B. Armstrong, with G. E. Sherrin and J. R. Paton as substitute delegates. Delegates to the Diocesan Church Society are G. R. Brady, S. G. Bryant, and F. Carbonell. The meeting which was marked by enthusiasm and cordially lasted until 11.30 p.m., at which time a group of ladies was still patiently waiting to serve refreshments which were most welcome.

Picture Features Reasons Behind Prison Outbreaks

The riot and attempted escape of prisoners in the U. S. State Penitentiary at Boston is one of many similar disturbances which have taken place in recent years. Some of the reasons behind these outbreaks are told in graphic form in a motion picture, "Riot in Cell Block 11" which is being shown at the Prince Edward Theatre here on Friday and Saturday of this week. The picture, made within the confines of one of California's maximum security prisons, is authentic and was produced by one of the cinema's foremost filmmakers, Walter Wanger. Penologists have commended this picture for the manner in which it concentrates attention on much needed prison reforms.

Guest Speaker

Lewis Perinbam, executive secretary, World University of Canada
