IN MEMORIAM

WORTH — In loving memory of George Lemuel Worth, who died March 1st, 1945.
Gone but not forgotten.
Always remembered by family and grandchildren.

SHEA—In loving memory of my dear father John Shea, who passed away Feb. 28, 1955.
Lovingly remembered by his son, Joseph and family.

YOULAND—In loving memory of our mother Mrs. Clement Youland, who passed away February 28, 1954.
When days are dark and friends are few,
Dear Mother, how we think of you.
Friends are friends if they are true,
We lost our best friend when we lost you.
Lovingly remembered by her sons and daughters.

MacINNIS—In loving memory of my dear wife, Mrs. D. J. MacInnis, who departed this life, February 28th, 1955.
One by one they go before us,
They are fading like the dew,
But we know they're watching o'er us,
They, the good, the fair, the true,
They are waiting for us only,
Where no pain can ever mar,
Dear ones, who left us lonely,
Watch us through the gates ajar,
Ever watchful, always willing,
Just to lend a helping hand,
With a smile so full of sunshine,
While she here on earth did dwell.
Just to serve God was her purpose
Saying He doeth all things well,
No thought of self, but of the other,
We know He said "Well Done."
Ever remembered by husband and family.

MacSWAIN—In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Malcolm MacSwain, who passed away Feb. 28th, 1953.
When the sun goes down at the close of the day,
Dear Mother you never seem far away,
We seem to feel your presence so near
Though time adds on another year,
We mention your name and speak of you often,
God bless you, dear mother You are never forgotten.
Ever remembered by husband, and family, Joyce Reta and Cliff.

Danger To Unity Worries Senator

OTTAWA (CP) — Senator Thomas A. Crerar, who headed Canada's first major agrarian movement in the early 1920s, says there is "a real menace" to Canadian unity caused by sectional differences.

He said he resigned as leader of the Progressive party in 1922 because he doubted the wisdom of using the party as a balance of power between Liberals and Conservatives in Parliament.

There were three ever-potential dangers to Canadian unity: Racial, religious and sectional differences. The first two now were quiescent.

"A REAL MENACE"

"But the third danger, sectional differences, is more virulent today than it has been for many years and this creates a real menace to unity."

Senator Crerar, 80, recalled his experience with the Progressives in a letter to the editor of the Ottawa Journal, published Tuesday.

He was commenting on an editorial in the newspaper Saturday. It said that the Progressive party, which elected 65 members to Parliament in 1921 during a period of agrarian unrest, was "the most formidable threat to the old two-party system since Confederation."

The editorial raised the question of what might have happened had Senator Crerar followed the methods of Charles Parnell, Irish patriot leader of the last century who used his Irish Home Rule party as a balance of power in the British Parliament.

Senator Crerar said the editorial's parallel between the Progressives and Parnell's Irish party was "not altogether accurate."

MOST FROM WEST

He recalled that only one of the 65 Progressives elected in 1921 came from east of the Ottawa Valley. More than two-thirds were from the Prairies.

"From the beginning a conflict of opinion within the party developed and grew more intense. One section wished to broaden the party's appeal to include all classes in our population; the other to restrict it to a purely agrarian party aiming at holding the balance of power in Parliament."

"So far as I was concerned, I had no faith whatever in the justice or wisdom of the theory of power without responsibility . . . personally, I was convinced that if the power theory policy prevailed, the party would in a few years become almost wholly a Prairie faction, with a Prairie voice, but a voice crying in the wilderness."

OLD STEAM CAR

The first automobile powered by steam was produced by the French inventor Nicholas Cugnot in 1769.
