

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

MANLYS A SPECIALTY.—Beer Bros. DUNDAS LELY in Scottish Song and Story at the Opera House to-night.

SOCIAL.—A most enjoyable social was held in the basement of Zion Church last evening, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society.

HORSES.—Mr. W. S. McKie is buying good driving horses. He pays the highest price, and parties with suitable animals to sell should see him.

THE SPARROWS NOW.—A fight between two sparrows took place on Richmond Street, near Queen, this forenoon. A goodly number of people witnessed the contest, which lasted quite a while.

KENSINGTON HALL.—At a meeting held last evening following the election of officers, after a short session for the present year, Superintendent, Theo. L. Chappell, Secretary, Miss Lizzie Passmore, Treasurer, Richard Campbell, Organist, Mrs. A. H. Macpherson, Librarian, Miss Maud Johnson and Mrs. C. J. Patton.

TEA PARTY AT CARDIGAN.—A grand tea party is to be held on July 14th at Cardigan Bridge, on the Cardigan Hall grounds, about two minutes' walk from the station. The situation is happily chosen, and the tea party offers an opportunity to many to visit Cardigan and its pretty scenery. See advertisement for further particulars.

THE DAVENPORT SCHOOL, St. JOHN'S.—This school, which is under the direction of Rev. J. M. Davenport, M. A., is doing excellent work. A careful education is given to boys training for college or business. There is a competent staff of masters, and the school is very carefully managed. The school year begins Sept. 3.

IS A BAD WAY.—The unsatisfactory condition of the civic finances of Montreal is beginning to make itself felt. On Monday morning A. W. Beausoleil, chairman of the health committee, stated that he had discharged all the employees of the scavenging department, not having money to pay them, with the exception of a few men to look after the horses.

A FAST MILE.—A Stratford, Ontario, despatch of the 8th says: In the 2.50 race yesterday, on the track of the Stratford Jockey Club, Sir Harry Wilkes, owned by E. James, Toronto, trotted the first heat in 2.16, against a strong wind. This is the fastest mile ever trotted in Canada on a half-mile track in a race heat. Sir Harry, who is now four years old, was bred in New Brunswick and sired by Harry Wilkes.

ONEFELLOWSHIP.—The Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of the Maritime Provinces, John A. Craig, Esq., of Yarmouth, N. S., paid an informal visit to Port La Joie Encampment last evening. The Grand Patriarch gave a good account of the Encampment Branch in the Lower Provinces. After the meeting came refreshments at Carter's restaurant. Mr. Craig left for Eureka, Pictou County, this morning, where, we understand, he will institute an Encampment this evening.

JUDGE FITZGERALD'S APPOINTMENT.—The Canada Gazette at hand this morning contains the following under date of May 28th: "Rowan Robert Fitzgerald, of the Province of Charlottetown, in the Province of Prince Edward Island, Esquire, and four Her Majesty's Counsel learned in the law: to be Vice-Chancellor and an Assistant Judge of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island, vice the Honorable Joseph Henley deceased." Judge Fitzgerald received his commission this morning and was sworn in before Chief Justice Sullivan on noon.

IMPORTANT TO SHIPPERS.—The SS. Elliott, Captain Brown, owned by R. McMillan, Esq., will leave Boston for Charlottetown about the 20th inst. The vessel will make regular trips between the two ports. As will be seen by advt. in today's papers, special inducements are offered to shippers by this steamer. Freight will receive careful attention and will be delivered at the P. E. I. R. free of cartage. The warehouse accommodation is good, the rates low, and as the Elliott is an Island-built boat, owned at home and in charge of P. E. Islanders, we bespeak for her a large patronage.

WILLIAM CUNARD'S GENEROUS GIFT.—William Cunard, formerly of London, now of London, has made a handsome donation to the directors of the deaf and dumb institution. He has presented the institution with a strip of land from Cunard's field adjoining their property, which will double its extent. This generous act will furnish an example to our citizens and merchants, who should also come to the assistance of the directors at the time, when they are contemplating further progressive work. It is understood to be their intention at an early date to erect a brick and stone building, which will adequately meet the educational requirements of the deaf and dumb children of these provinces, and will be a credit to the whole city. Who will follow William Cunard's example in helping to properly house and educate deaf and dumb pupils?—Halifax Herald.

S. ON T.—District Division, No. 4, met in quarterly session yesterday at Cornwall. Eight subdivisions were reported, and were attended by 60 members. The second and third weeks in July were set apart for the interchange of divisional visits, which were arranged as follows: Victoria, to visit Ever Oswald; Mayflower, Holdfast, Ever Oswald, Victoria, Reform, Acadia, Kingston Star, Excelsior; Acadia, Mayflower, Excelsior, Triumph, Holdfast, Reform, Triumph, Kingston Star. The public meeting was held in the Methodist Church, D. W. P. Matthews presiding. Addresses were given by Messrs. H. Howard, J. J. Chappell and W. H. Harris. Recitations were given by Miss Campbell and Miss McLeod, and an organ solo by Miss Crosby, and readings by Messrs. Coffin, Godfrey and McKenzie. The church choir rendered excellent music. After a hearty vote of thanks had been tendered to the trustees of the church and the choir, the meeting closed to meet again with Ever Oswald Division, Lot 48, in September next.

Silk Beauty! Silk Variety! English Dress Goods. The beauty of these Silks is specially noticeable in the delicacy and novelty of coloring, and evenness of weave and finish. WEAR GUARANTEED by manufacturer. The price is only $17 for a Dress Length of 16 yards. Here's a perfect picture of beauty! See our south window! We have always claimed first place for Silks, but our present stock challenges all past records. Dainty Trimmings to match in every case.

JOHN KYNASTON DROWNED

In the North River, New York.—Well Known in this city, Charlottetown. A letter received by Mr. Thomas Waking, of this city, brings the sad news that his brother-in-law, Mr. John Kynaston, was drowned in the North River, New York, on the 28th May. The body was subsequently recovered and forwarded to his wife in Washington, D. C. The body was identified by some letters found in the pockets of his clothes.

How he came to be drowned is unknown, but detectives are at work on the case, and further particulars are expected shortly.

It appears that Kynaston left Washington for New York on the 20th May in search of employment, the family in Europe for the summer, thus throwing him out of work. Kynaston was well known in Charlottetown, being for some time employed as coachman by the Master of the Halls. He left eight or ten years ago for Washington with General Duntz, who was Consul here, and remained in his service until his death. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn.

It appears that Kynaston was the subject of the affair with his niece, Mrs. Hodges, of Washington.

THE FASTEST will leave Halifax for Charlottetown via intermediate ports this evening at six o'clock.

THE LAST STRAWS.—We have been shown a very timely and well executed political cartoon, the work of Mr. Alfred J. Quirk, of this city. The taxpayer is represented by a camel, who is breaking down under the load of straw (taxes) with which he is being burdened by Premier Peters. Underneath is the inscription, "Peters putting the last straws on the camel's back." The situation is well hit off.

OBITUARY.—It is our painful duty to announce today the death of William C. McDonald, of East Point. He was a young man of irreproachable character, who will be long mourned by his many friends and associates. To his bereaved parents and family we tender our sympathy.

The Western Chronicle, Feb. 16, 1894, speaking of Herr Karl Derring's singing, says: "The hall almost seemed too small to contain his powerful voice, which was always in perfect harmony and denoted perfect training." Terms for private and class pupils at Johnson & Johnson's.

Fine Growing Weather

This!

As a business grows expenses do not increase in anything like the same proportion, and it is by reason of "large returns" and not by sticking to the profit that our Furniture business keeps growing. And to keep up the "growing" we are making efforts to place before the public GOODS and PRICES surpassing all previous offerings. We think we can do this, and judging by the total of our retail sales for May, the buying public are aware of this money-saving fact.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THAT RACE.

Sir,—I notice in last evening's EXAMINER a letter signed "Psycho." While heartily endorsing his remarks regarding the championship, it was scarcely necessary to single out two or three Charlottetown wheelmen by name, as being excluded. Messrs. Young and Rogers can speak for themselves, but personally I had not, nor have I yet, either desire or intention to join in either the "controversy" or "contest." I would not, if I could, be champion. It would be an unenviable position to hold, beside, it is not skill so much as brute force that is required for a "run" of that kind. I have no wish to pluck the hard-earned but petty laurels from the victor's brow. The cup is of no value. Its possession means nothing but the defeating of one individual who was perhaps a little over-sanguine of his "powers." Let those who wish to fight over such things; but, as the small boy says, "I'm not in it."

W. P. DOELL. CH'TOWN, June 12, 1894.

THAT BICYCLE RACE.

Sir,—"Psycho," of Summerside (?) is talking through his hat. Mr. Davies' challenge, as I read it, was not confined to the present holder of the power mug, but to all Island wheelmen. "Psycho" is evidently a gentleman who makes records behind a lawn or some other secluded spot, where only his own ipse dixit is the proof. I would advise "Psycho," instead of wasting his energy on the newspapers, to take his "Brantford" and try what he can do the 24 miles in, between New Perth and Charlottetown, and it may be that when he returns, (if he ever does) he will feel a little more humble, and will not have any wind left to blow about his performance. I beg to say that I do not live in Summerside, Souris, or any foreign part, but am a meek and lowly citizen of the city of
