

A new recreational trail has been conceived for the park around interpretation on skis. Parks have laid out the trail this year and are working with the Forestry Branch on design and implementation. The above plan indicates the new route as the GREEN trail. It is located immediately behind the nordic lodge.

