LEGION HOLDS DRUMHEAD SERVICE

PG 5 — LEGION HOLDS . . . .

Legion member Stanley Ward is about to deposit his flag on the drums as part of the Legion drumhead service conducted by Canon E. M. Malone at Victoria Park yesterday morning. The service, under the direction of the Queens County zone of the Royal Canadian Legion, concluded Legion Week, which was celebrated during the past week. The parade was composed of a representation of the membership of all the branches in the Queens County zone. A wreath was laid at the cenotaph in Queen Square by the provincial president, Hamilton Douglas. On the return route from the park a salute was taken at Fort Edward by Lieutenant-Governor F. Walter Hyndman.

Old Home Week Is Opening Today

Old Home Week opens today but for hundreds of children and their parents the big event got underway yesterday. Many took advantage of fine weather to tour the grounds, visit the livestock barns and get an advance look at the animals to be seen during the week in the show ring.

The official opening of the big show is scheduled for 7 o'clock tonight. President Cecil Stewart of Hampshire said the principal speaker at the opening would be acting premier Hon. Andrew B. MacRae, minister of agriculture. He will act in place of Premier Walter R. Shaw, who is in hospital.

Lieutenant-Governor F. Walter Hyndman and his party will attend the ceremonies. Other officials expected include Mayor A.W. Goudet and Provincial Secretary J.D. Stewart.

It is expected there will be a vaudeville program following the official opening, prior to the start of the night's harness racing, scheduled for 8.30.

Many booths were up yesterday. The midway rides were arriving from the mainland and erection was scheduled to start at midnight.

Two Receive Injuries In Traffic Accidents

Traffic accidents over the weekend sent at least two persons to hospital but neither one was seriously injured.

Shortly after 7 o'clock Saturday evening an ambulance from the MacLean Funeral Home took Daniel Beaton, 10 Summer Street, to the Prince Edward Island Hospital following an accident at Stanhope.

It was reported that Mr. Beaton lost control of his vehicle while travelling on the Stanhope Lane near the entrance to the National Park and ended up in the ditch. He is believed to have suffered cuts and lacerations.

A two-car collision at the intersection of Rochford and Richmond streets at 6.20 last evening resulted in Theresa MacKinnon of Charlottetown being taken to hospital with cuts and lacerations about the head.

The young woman was a passenger in a vehicle driven by Bernard MacKinnon, Water Street, which was travelling south on Rochford Street when it became involved in a collision with another vehicle, driven by Evelyn Boal, Port Credit, Ont., which was travelling west on Richmond Street.

The impact resulted in the MacKinnon car being turned over on its side. Both vehicles were heavily damaged.

City police also investigated another accident early Sunday morning when a vehicle owned by Earl Corrish, and parked in front of his home on Weymouth Street, was struck by a car driven by Charles MacDonald, Dorchester Street.

The collision sent the Corrish vehicle up on Mr. Corrish's front lawn.

F. S. McTague, Eugene Kelly, E. B. Beagan, Jr., Wilfred Smith, Roy Dunn, John Mulligan, Wilfred Clarkin, Joseph Dowling and Ambrose Smith.

Each new member also spoke on his own behalf expressing appreciation on becoming a member of the society.

Trailer Caravan Visits Province

A total of 49 trailers from the Eastern and Mid-Western States arrived on the Island Saturday for a four-day visit, leaving Tuesday for Shediac, N.B.

The Avion Travelcade, under the leadership of Gil Staddler and his wife are staying near Covehead. Most of the caravan is made up of retired couples but several young families are also taking part, Eric Kipping, National Park superintendent said last night.

This is the first and only caravan expected to visit the Island this year, Mr. Kipping said. The tourist association is sending several pipers and dancers to the camp today for a brief display and many of the trailer owners are taking advantage of the deep-sea fishing.

A great many of them expressed interest in the big harness racing feature at the Charlottetown Driving Park tonight as most of them had never seen this form of racing before.

Camping areas in the National Park are reported still filled to capacity butt he overflow areas were reported last not to be as crowded as earlier in the week. However there are still 60 tents and trailers in the two overflow areas at Brackley and Cape Turner.

Rev. N. M. Morris who has been the rector's assistant at St. Paul's for the past two years has accepted an appointment to a parish in Ontario effective Sept. 1.

Russian Cyclist Takes Big Race

QUEBEC (CP)—Aleksei Petrov of Russia's crack national cycling team Saturday won the gruelling 16-lap tour du St. Laurent, North America's premier bicycle race.

Pacing himself remarkably well, the 25-year-old Petrov finished the 955-mile, eight-day grind with a commanding four-minute, two-second lead over runner-up Adolf Christian of Austria.

His performance also led the Russians, competing in the tour for the first time, to the team title.

Sixty - seven cyclists from seven countries started the tour here Aug. 4, but disqualifications, minor accidents and fatigue gradually reduced the field. Only 42 finished.

After starting here, the tour swung through parts of the Eastern Townships, through Montreal, Ottawa and Cornwall, Ont., then back through Montreal and on to Quebec for the wind-up. The original 1,015-mile course was shortened for lack of time.
