Samuel Drake, Esq , said Mr. Duncan took a seat in the Executive because the district requested him to do so.

Hon. Mr. Duncan, In answer to Mr. Crane said· The Executive was not a Confederate one, and believed the Island was never so safe from Confederation as now. I must work with the men sent by the people. In regard to the Railroad he thought there would be 16 members of House of Assembly in favor of it, without him. He would oppose it, as they wished him, and if they desired, would retain his seat in the Government. He would support every good measure, and thought he could do more service for the District in the Government than by pursuing a course of factious, nasty opposition. [Applause]

Mr J. McEachern had heard nothing to induce him to support Railroads. With the main trunk and branches, the expense would be more than we could bear. Let us first have Free Lands. There were still 200 000 acres under leaseholds and in hands of landlords, and if this were free, then we might talk of Railroads.

R. Stewart, Esqr.—No facts nor statistics had yet been brought before the people, to warrant us to ask for a Railroad. He had heard long harangues from the Leader and officers of the Government; but he would like to know the emergency that makes them force it upon us now? They dare not submit it to the people at the polls. [Great Cheering.] But if they pass it without doing so, they will forfeit the confidence of the people, and deserve the reproaches of generations to come. There was no comparison between this Island and other places. It is true that Mr. Howlan says the boys can catch smelts, and put them in ice for export. [Great laughter.] But that is not practical enough to induce us to be heavily taxed for a Railroad.

He submitted the following Resolution, which was seconded by Mr. H Gay:

Whereas. No emergency exists to justify the present Government in taking action on the construction of a Railway through this Island, without an appeal to the people at the polls;

Therefore Resolved. That we regard any attempt on the part of our Representatives to commit the Island to the Railway policy of the present Government, as extremely arbitrary, and inconsistent with our Constitutional privilege of representation.

Mr. Nicholas Cousens.—The question for, us, is a Railroad wanted, and will it pay. The Railroad, first built in England, from Liverpool to Manchester, pays well; other Railroads did not pay, because there was no trade. Goods brought from Halifax to Truro, it was found, cost three times as much, as cost from West Indies to Halifax. He had travelled through many places, and settled here, because of the facilities for shipping which made oats here as valuable as wheat in Canada. A man will not take a pair of horses where one will do, and people will not want Railroads, when horses answer all purposes. There were more horses on the Island than in Canada, in proportion and extent of country. The Americans will not want to travel on a Railroad here, when they have their own. (Applause.)

Mr. Jenkins, next observed, that narrow gauge Roads would not answer us. The locomotives like a wheelbarrow, would run off the Road. (Laughter, and Applause.)

Mr. Thomas Stanley.—agreed with this opinion, in no place, except in mountainous countries, are narrow gauge Roads used. They placed one end of the sleeper in the socks, whilst the other might be 20 feet from the ground. Tourists would not go in cars, even if they came here. They would prefer riding in carriages. In New Brunswick, they have not so many horses as we have, and having been used to oxen, found them too slow, and hence prefer Railroads.

Edward Grant, Esq , would like to know from Mr. Duncan if this matter was to be brought before the people at the polls. He was surprised that the Resolution of Mr. B. Davies, was lost at the Charlottetown meeting He would like to see such an important subject left to the decision of the people. He thought the passing of such a measure, without submitting it to the people, would be unconstitutional. (Applause.)

Hon. Mr. Duncan.—The better way, he thought, to ascertain the sense of the people, would be, to have a direct poll of the people, Railroad, or no Railroad. This would avoid side issues. He believed there was a growing feeling in favor of Railroads. He would not try to force it upon the people. He would not vote for it in the House of Assembly against their wishes, and he would resign his seat in the Government, if the District did not desire him to retain it. He would say that last summer he did not think Railroads were so near being undertaken, but now there seemed to be a mania for them. It was like a mad dog, every one was clearing out before its advocates.

Edward Grant Esq.—The fairest way to test the feeling of the people, was at the polls. The going about amongst a few leading people—as Mr. Duncan had done, to find out if he was desired to take a seat in the Executive—would not do. At the end of four years, we would have a General Election, and it would be better to shelve the Railroad till then. (Applause.)

J. B. Gay, Esq.—He certainly, though the question should be tested at the polls, we had precedents before us. Last July, two questions were brought up, and the people decided against them. So it might be with this. However, this may be, all would be better satisfied, if the people had the opportunity to vote for, or against it. (Applause, and cries of Hear, Hear.)

The Chairman then put the Resolutions in the order of their proposal. The First and Second were carried by large majorities, the Third was lost by a large majority, and the Fourth was carried almost unanimously.

After a vote of thanks to the Chairman, the meeting came to a close.

RAILROAD MEETING.

Railroad Meeting at Lot 11.—Pursuant to notice, a meeting of the inhabitants of Lot 11 was convened at Freeland Schoolhouse, on Thursday the 26th ult., for the purpose of taking into consideration the advisability of constructing a railroad from Alberton to Georgetown. The representatives of the District, Hon. John Yeo and Wm. Richards, Esq., were present.

The meeting was organized by calling Mr. Robert Ramsay to the Chair, and the undersigned appointed to act as Secretary. The Chairman briefly explained the object of the meeting, and expressed a desire that the audience would pay particular attention to the several speakers about to address them.

Hon. John Yeo, Wm. Richards, Esq., Jas. Barclay, Esq , Mr. Jas. Henderson, Augustine Callaghan, Esq., Mr. Arch. Ramsay, Mr. Jas. W. Richards, Mr. Wm. Callaghan, the Secretary and two or three others addressed the meeting on the subject of Railways, after which the following Resolution was moved by Augustine Callaghan, Esq., and seconded by James Barclay, Esq.

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this meeting that the construction of a Railroad through P. E Island on the basis of outlay mentioned by certain companies, would be productive of material advantages to its inhabitants, and would tend greatly to develop its resources and extend trade.

The above Resolution being put to the meeting it was passed by a majority of two to one. It was moved and seconded that Mr. Robert Ramsay vacate the Chair and Mr James Henderson be called thereto. A vote of thanks was given to the Chairman for his impartial conduct in the Chair. A vote of thanks was also accorded to the Representatives of the District, which both gentlemen suitably acknowledged.

The meeting dispersed with the hope that the Railroad would go ahead.

Legislative Summary.

IN our Extra of Wednesday we gave the Governor's Speech, which was remarkable for not having reference to the School Question nor the Census.

OFFICERS OF THE HOUSE.

John McNeill, Esq., was unanimously re elected Clerk.

Mr. W. W. McLean, assistant Clerk.

N. Conroy, Esq., Sergeant-at-Arms.

Rev Thos. Duncan, Chaplain.

D. O'M. Reddin, Esq., Law Clerk.

Mr Angus McKinnon, Messenger.

Hon. Mr. Pope proposed that Messrs. R. Gordon, Isaac Oxenham, and W. M. Howe, Esq., be appointed Reporters to the House.

Hon. Mr. B Davies moved in amendment that the name of Mr. Oxenham be struck out and that of Mr. B Balderston submitted. The question was put, and the House divided as follows:

For the amendment—Hons. B. Davies, Callbeck, Wightman, Messrs. McNeill, Hooper, McMillan, McLean.—7.

Against it—19.

Mr. A. McNeill was appointed Summary Reporter.

COMMITTEES.

The usual standing Committees were then appointed—The following were appointed a Committee to prepare a Draft Address in answer to His Honor's Speech; Dr. Robertson, Messrs. A. C. McDonald, Arsenault, Reilly, Beer, Munro, and LeFurgey. Public Accounts—Committee—Mr. A. C. McDonald, Hon. D. Davies, Mr. Beer, Hon. Mr. Perry, Mr. McNeill, Mr. McLean, Mr. Richards.

Hon. Leader of the Government in his place said that he considered it his duty to announce to the House that since the last General Election the late Government had resigned and His Honor the Lieutenant Governor had sent for him to form a new administration, which duty he had fulfilled, and the names of His Honor's Constitutional advisers were as follows:—

Hon. J. C. Pope, President Executive Council.

Hon. T. H. Haviland, Colonial Secretary.

Hon. F. de St. Croix Brecken, Atty. General.

Hon Messrs. L. C. Owen, G. W. Howlan, A. A. McDonald, John Yeo, James Duncan, E. McEachern.

Hon. B. Davies took exception to the course pursued by the Government, touching the return of the two members for the first District of Queen's County. In reply, the Hon. Leader of the Government observed that any discussion on that question at the present stage of the proceedings would be premature, until papers relating to the Election alluded to were submitted to the House.

Mr. Brecken said there was no desire to withhold any information from the House. The Sheriff's return for the members of the first District and all the papers relating to that question, would be submitted to the House.

The Hon. Mr Pope moved a resolution to the effect, that the House would to-morrow go into a Committee of privileges and Elections to take into consideration the election return for the First District of Queen's County, for the purpose of ascertaining the reasons why two members have not been returned to represent said District.

House adjourned.

THURSDAY, Feb. 16.

House in Committee on Standing Rules and Orders.

Hon. Mr. Kelly in the Chair.

INITIATION OF MONEY VOTES.

Hon. Mr. Perry observed that it might be well to dispense with the principle adopted touching the initiation of money votes, for this Session, especially as the usual notice of the time for receiving petitions had not been published

Hon Mr Wightman remarked that the system adopted some years since touching the initation of Money Votes, was not working satisfactorily. It might be urged that in the Imperial Parliament a similar system obtained; but in a Colony like this, the Representatives of the people should exercise more control over the public funds, and see that the wants of their constituents, as expressed by petitions and otherwise should, if possible, be more generally attended to.

Hon Mr. Duncan, said surely the hon. member did not want to go back to the old log rolling system, under which the Government majority could not exercise due control over public expenditure, for which they were held responsible.

Hon Mr D Davies said he had the honor of a seat in the House at the time the new system for the initiation of Money Votes was introduced, and supported it, and he saw no reason to change his opinion touching its efficiency over the old log-rolling system. It was necessary to give the Government, or in other words, the majority of the peoples representatives, control over the funds of the Colony, in order that they may be held responsible for the due and proper disbursements of the Revenue.

Hon Mr McEachern was in favor of the system as it now stood, believing that it worked advantageously.

Mr. Howat was opposed to the present system, When questions effecting the interests of any constituency were decided in caucus, it was folly on the part of an hon member to attempt any change in his place on the floor of the House Petitions coming from the people could be thrown aside by the Executive if they thought proper. The claims of the people would, in his (Mr Howatt's) opinion, be more fairly settled on the old plan. He was never in favor of the change, which he always looked upon as a retrogade movement. It lessened the powers of the Representatives of the people, making them a nonentity.

Afternoon Session:

Hon D. Davies alluded to personalities indulged in yesterday by the Hon. Leader of the Government, in his reply to the Hon. member for Belfast (Hon. B. Davies), and also, to some extent, by the hon. member (Mr. Brecken). He (Hon D. Davies) said that he hoped hon. members would refrain in future from charges of a personal character, and not descend to personalities, which were very unbecoming.

Hon. Leader of the Government was free to admit, that when provoked he was liable to offend in the way alluded to by the hon. member for the City (Mr. Davies), but he did not wish to indulge in personalities, and he hoped that in the discussions of that House personal reflections would be avoided.

Hon. Mr. Brecken did not regret that his hon. Colleague (Mr. Davies) had alluded to the subject, believing that he was prompted by the best of motives. If the language used by him on the occasion referred to, could bear an offensive construction, he regretted using the expression, and would withdraw it.

Hon. Mr. Wightman, Leader of the Opposition, said these personal attacks were entirely wrong and out of place, and hoped for the future, hon members would be more guarded in their expressions.

Hon. Leader of the Government moved the House into a Committee on privileges and Elections.

Hon. Mr. Perry in the Chair.

A resolution was then submitted by the hon. Leader of the Government, to the effect that the special matters contained in the return to the writ of Election for the First District of Queen's County, were such as to require an investigation under the laws relating to elections.

Hon. Atty. General proceeded to explain the course pursued by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor and Crown Law Officers, touching the High Sheriff's return of the Writs of Election of the First District of Queen's County. The return in question he said was not absolute, and unequivocal, as could be seen on the face of it. The Return was simply a return of the facts of the case, and not, as in other cases, an absolute and unequivocal return. He then proceeded to read from the returns of the Sheriff, to the effect that certain of the presiding officers and poll clerks, at some of the Polling Divisions in the Frst District neglected to comply with the requirements of the Election Laws and did not qualify themselves for entering upon the discharge of their respective duties. The Sheriff, therefore, deemed it his duty to make a return of the special facts and circumstances connected with said election, so that the proceedings and his Return might be hereafter dealt with in such manner as might be deemed necessary The said High Sheriff, therefore returns that Messrs. Peter Sinclair and Donald Cameron had a majority of votes polled in said District, made up by including those taken by the said officers, who had acted informally. The Poll stood thus, Peter Sinclair 1258 D. Laird, 821, Donald Cameron, 897. The Sheriff further returns that he made up another statement of the voting for the said District, omitting the votes taken by the said unqualified officers, and found that the votes cast by the officers who had qualified themselves for their duties were as follows: Peter Sinclair, 788, D. Laird, 543, Donald Cameron, 553. The Sheriff then proceeds to state that omitting the votes taken by the officers who had neglected to qualify themselves, the said Peter Sinclair and D. Laird had a majority of votes taken by the officers who had formally qualified themselves to act and enter upon their respective duties.

Hon. B. Davies said that it appeared the election in the First District was fairly conducted, with the exception of the informalities of the Sheriff's officers, and therefore, the Sheriff should have declared those candidates at the head of Poll duly elected. The Sheriff, he said, assumed the jurisdiction of the House, and the Government transgressed in a like manner. That hon. body alone had the right to be the judges and arbitrators over the returns made by the Sheriff.

Hon. Atty. General contended that as the Sheriff had not made an absolute return, the only proper and constitutional mode had been proceeded with on the part of the Government.

Hon. D. Davies differed with the hon member for Belfast, Mr B. Davies, touching the Returns in question; and considered that His Honor the Lieut. Governor's Law advisers had adopted the only equitable course open to them.

Mr. McNeill was of the opinion that the two candidates having a majority of votes should have been returned by the Sheriff; then they would have a voice in the choice of Speaker and other officers of the House, and their return, if illegal, could afterwards be submitted to the decision of that hon. House.

Mr Munro reviewed the Sheriff's Return, and said that as it was indefinite, and only related the facts and circumstances of the case, he (Mr. Munro) could not perceive that any wrong action had been taken by the Government on the question. It was to be regretted that any portion of the people was disfranchised because of informality on the part of the Sheriff or his officers.

The Resolution, as submitted by the hon. Leader of the Government was then reported agreed to.

On motion of his honor the Leader of the Goverement, the House went into Committee of Privileges and Elections with power to send for persons and papers.

Hon. Mr Perry in the Chair.

After some time spent in Committee, House adjourned.

THE VACANT SEAT.—Some speculation is going on as to the person whom the Government will honor with the Seat vacated by HON. JOHN YEO; at first, HON. MR. HAYTHORNE was named by some; but it is said now, that HON. MR. PERRY is the "coming man." The virtues, and especially the modesty of the Acadians should be no hindrance to their having a Representative.

These having ability, might take the initative in getting up a grand Concert which no doubt would be a great success, as it would appeal to the generous sympathies of all. Below we give the following lines from one of the English periodica's, on this subject.

An Appeal to John Bull.

"He hath a tear for pity, and a hand
Open as day, for melting charity."
—King Henry IV., Part II., Act IV, Sec 4.

The pomp of warfare and the trumpet bray
The laurel-wreath, the victor's proud award—
All such-like themes with us have had their day,
And now 'tis time to touch on pity's chord.
Think of the brave, enduring all their worstings,
Think of the starving, and unloose your purse strings.

From France there comes a piteous call for aid,
A shriek of anguish, and a moan of pain;
A cry for alms to England has been made,
To feed the starving—not to avenge the slain.
Let charity its willing offerings send there;
If it begins at home, it needn't end there.

Give them, in Pity's name—not sword and gun—
Clothes to the naked, to the starving food;
Remember they have given husbands—sons,
Without a murmur, for their country's good.
Give them, in Pity's name—save from starvation
The scattered remnant of a noble nation.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS are unfeignedly the remedies upon which all may rely who are suffering from diseases of the skin, scrofula, scurvy, ulcerations, and bad legs. When the warmth of the weather unduly determines blood to the skin, all these complaints assume a worse appearance, and their symptoms become more harrassing unless Holloway's Ointment be applied to check increasing inflammation and to soothe the excited nerves. No knowledge, beyond that contained in the "directions for use," is required for using this cooling and healing unguent, which always acts beneficially. Thousands afflicted with "bad legs," who were slowly sinking under their sufferins, have been rescued from their perilous position (after all corrosives means seemed powerless) by persevering with Holloway's Ointment.

Grand Diet of Worms
DISSOLVED BY
WATSON'S SCHOLEDION.

WHICH is offered to the public as a perfectly safe, pleasant and efficacious EXPELLER OF WORMS from the human System. As this preparation contains no mineral ingredient, the administration of it to young children is not followed by the dangerous, and in many cases, fatal consequences resulting from the use of many of the Vermifuges at present before the public.

A compliance with the directions accompanying it will prove it deserve the characters claimed for it above, while the promptness and painless character of its action render it the cheapest and safest remedy for worms hitherto discovered
