IN MEMORIAM

QUINN — In loving memory of my dear father Richard Quinn, who passed away April 14th, 1943.

Once again I pay my tribute
To the one I loved so dear,
Though I know you can't be with me,
I still wish that you were here.
My heart still aches with sadness
My eyes shed many a tear,
God alone knows I miss you
As it dawns another year.

Always remembered by son Buck.

MOSSEY — In loving memory of my brother, Pte. Frank Mossey, killed in action in Holland, April 14, 1945.

Ever loved and remembered by sister Peg and family.

SMITH — In loving memory of my father Mr. Benjamin C. Smith, who passed away April 14th, 1954, and my mother Mrs. Benjamin C. Smith who passed away August 9, 1956.

There is a link death cannot sever
Love and remembrance last forever.

Ever remerbered by daughter, Pearle, son-in-law, George and grand-sons.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMES E. MACEACHERN

His many friends and relatives were shocked and saddened by the news of the sudden passing of James Edward MacEachern, Cherry Valley on the morning of March 11th, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

Born at Summerville, March 25th 1877, he was the son of the late Donald MacEachern and his wife, Catherine Jenkins.

He attended school at Summerville and later the Charlottetown Business College.

In 1909 he was united in marriage to Etna F. Lea, Vernon River and shortly after moved to Cherry Valley where he carried on a retail grocery business until a month before his passing.

He will be sadly missed especially in his home, which was made happy by his love and kindness, in his church which was very dear to him and where he served many years as elder and recording steward; in his community where he was always ready to lend a helping hand and was highly respected and among a large circle of friends and relatives.

There are left to cherish his memory besides his wife, one daughter, Hazel, Mrs. Harold Smith, Pownal and two sons namely: Leigh at Tea Hill and Lawson at home. His youngest son, Kenneth predeceased him sixteen years ago.

Twelve grandchildren also survive and three sisters, Ida, Mrs. George Sutherland, Laura, Mrs. Peter Stewart, both of Charlottetown and Ethel Miss C.W. Robinson of Accord Mass., also one brother Charles of Charlottetown.

Four sisters and two brothers predeceased him; Margaret, Mrs. Thoday, Mary (Mrs. F. Richards) Isabel, (Mrs. Wendell Lea), Caroline (Mrs. Alex Campbell) William J. and Almore.

The largely attended funeral was held on March 13th with a short service at the home, thence to Cherry Valley United Church where a large number of relatives and friends gathered to pay their last respects to one whose memory they will long cherish.

The services at the church and grave were conducted by his pastor, Rev. N. Green assisted by Dr. A.S. Weir and Rev. T.R. Goudge. Dr. Weir paid a very fine tribute to the deceased as a personal friend, a co-worker and a neighbor.

The hymns sung were "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and "Peace Perfect Peace." The pall bearers were: W.J. Mutch, Everett Jenkins, Wilfred Praught, Jack Morrisey, Jack MacRae and Russell Docherty. Flower bearers Kenneth Glen and Keith MacEachern, Winston, David and Ian Smith and Roy MacMillan.

The many beautiful floral tokens and messages of sympathy bore silent tribute to the esteem of the departed:

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills getting hard to climb,
So he took him by the hand
And whispered "Peace be thine".

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late James MacEachern wish to thank their friends for their many acts of kindness during their recent bereavement also all who sent flowers and messages of sympathy.

IN MEMORIAM

ELLEN CAMPBELL

Brief mention was made in a recent issue of the passing of Ellen Campbell at the home of her nephew Mr. Keir Duggan in Kensington on Feb. 7, 1959, after a lengthy illness.

Ellen Campbell was born at O'Leary, P. E. Island on Oct. 17, 1878, where she grew to young womanhood participating in all enterprises for the betterment of the community and the assistance of those in need.

At the age of twenty-four years, Miss Campbell went west to Kendrick, Idaho to join her sister, Minnie, Mrs. R. E. Heffel, and family, and to assist them in moving to a new home on the Alberta prairies. For ten years she divided her time between her employment in Red Deer, Alta., and her sisters home at Alliance, where her neice and six nephews grew to love her as a second mother.

Miss Campbell was called home to be at the bedside of her mother, Mrs. B. L. Campbell, during her declining years. Aside from several brief trips west, Ellen made her home at O'Leary, with her brother John and family, until his death a few years ago.

Being the last member of her family to survive, Miss Campbell had the sad task of assisting through their last days, her father and mother, two sisers and two brothers. Her remaining sister in Alberta predeceased her three years ago in February.

Miss Campbell leaves to mourn her passing ten nephews and three neices, besides a host of friends.

Services were held from the home of her nephew in Kensington, by her pastor Rev. Mr. Bean, assisted by Rev. Mr. Murray, interment in the cemetery at Mount Royal.

Pall bearers were three nephews, Keir, Lester and Charles Duggan, Sterling Baglole, Sterling Boulter and Erland Phyllips.

Floral tributes were many and beautiful.
