Desegregation Moves Draw Meredith Blast

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—Negro James Meredith has criticized the way the U. S. Army and, indirectly, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People have handled certain aspects of his desegregation of the University of Mississippi.

He said the instances he cited "have made my struggle most difficult."

In a formal statement made available to reporters, Meredith:

1. Again denied a report, attributed earlier to a leader of the NAACP, that he was "picked" for the desegregation move, rather than acting on his own initiative.

2. Complained that the army had segregated the troops brought in there following the riot that erupted when he appeared on the campus nine days ago.

Aaron Henry, president of the Mississippi NAACP, was quoted earlier as saying Meredith was selected for the desegregation move.

ISSUES DENIAL

As for the army, it flatly denied that segregation was the order of the day at present, but did say some patrols were kept on an all-white basis at the height of the tension several days ago.

Otherwise, Meredith headed into his seventh day of classes and ate lunch in the school cafeteria without incident. A U.S. justice department lawyer accompanied him and two marshals stayed close by.

Service Vote System Criticized At Probe

By JACK PICKETTS

ST JOHN'S, Nfld. (CP)—The system under which Canada's armed forces vote in federal general elections was sharply criticized here by two justices of the Supreme Court of Newfoundland.

Chief Justice R. S. Furlong and Mr. Justice H. A. Winter heard a petition presented by former solicitor - general William J. Brown, who is asking that the June 18 election in St. John's West be declared void because 34 servicemen who voted in the district should have cast ballots elsewhere.

The hearing continues today.

Capt. J. P. Dewis, deputy judge advocate general of the armed forces, testified that some servicemen who voted in St. John's West had given their residences as Happy Valley, Labrador, Little Current, Ont., and Bridgetown, N.S., all outside the district.

Chief Justice Furlong said it was a case of "scandalous checking" on someone's part. There were "grave irregularities" in the system—"a shocking state of affairs." He said that if he had known of Capt. Dewis's testimony beforehand, he would have summoned Chief Electoral Officer Nelson Castonguay to appear at the hearing and hear about the irregularities "at first hand."

Mr Browne entered his petition after losing the election by 36 votes to Liberal Richard Cashin. The Progressive Conservative led until the service vote was counted.

Several of the 34 servicemen had given their St. John's addresses and correctly listed St. John's east as the riding on the envelope scratched out and West substituted.

Capt Dewis said this would "almost certainly make the write - in ballot inside the envelope show the wrong candidate's name."

The ballot would be placed in a St. John's West ballot box on the basis of the district shown on the envelope, but would show the name of a St. John's East candidate when opened.

Mr Justice Winter said the system invites servicemen to cheat. He suggested the ballots should be returned to the district for which they are cast, not to four central armed forces returning centres as is done now.

Murder Charge Is Laid In N.B.

NEWCASTLE, N.B. (CP)—Joseph Mercure, 62, of Craigville, N.B., has been charged with capital murder in the Sept. 23 death of Patrick Martin of Douglasfield, near Chatham, N.B.

Mercure was remanded to the Northumberland County jail to await preliminary hearing Oct. 17.

Martin, 90, was found unconscious and badly burned in his nephew's farm house. He died a short while later.

Coffee Prices Are Cut In U.S.

NEW YORK (AP) — Major coffee roasters cut wholesale prices of ground coffee Tuesday. The lower prices were effective Wednesday.

The action was initiated by General Foods Corp., which said the reductions would bring some of its coffees to their lowest price levels in 13 years.

Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., Standard Brands, Inc., and Beech - Nut Life Savers Corp. quickly followed.

General Foods reduced the prices of its one-pound cans of Maxwell House, Yugan and Sanka ground coffees by four cents and of its Maxwell House and Yugan two-pound cans by 10 cents.

The company said cuts were made possible by lower green coffee prices and economies in manufacturing and distribution.

White Africa Is Deceitful, Uganda Claims

KAMPALA (Reuters)—Prime Minister Milton Obote announced Tuesday — the first day of Uganda's independence — that his country will not recognize South Africa or the Rhodesian Federation, a partner in the Commonwealth.

Speaking at a press conference after Uganda's independence from British rule was proclaimed at 12:01 a.m., he said he will announce Uganda's decision regarding Portugal "very soon."

He said there was a "great deal of deceit in the governments of (white - ruled) South Africa, Central Africa (Rhodesia) and Portugal in recognizing the government of Uganda as an African government and not according the same respect to (black) Africans under their control."

The bidding:

3♥	3NT	4♥	Pass
Pass	Dble.

Opening lead— ace of diamonds

Terence Reese and Boris Schapiro last year won the English Masters Pairs championship for the fifth time in this highly regarded event. Here is one of the hands that contributed to their victory.

The bidding was hard-fought. Reese opened a heart with only 9 high-card points and West overcalled with a notrump. Schapiro came in with two spades—thus limiting his values, since he failed to double— and East bid two notrump.

Reese now bid three hearts, showing a long suit but not too many high - card values, and West carried on to three notrump. Schapiro then bid four hearts with only two small ones, recognizing that the opponents were likely to have a long club suit and would probably make three notrump (which they could). West then doubled.

West led the ace and another diamond, planning to obtain a diamond ruff. Reese took the trick in dummy and played a heart, losing the king to the ace. West thereupon led a low club to his partner's king, hoping to get the ruff, but unfortunately for him. Reese trumped.

Reese then cashed the queen of hearts, catching the jack, and eventually took two spade finesses to make four hearts doubled for a fine score.

West started off all right when he led the ace and another diamond, but he slipped badly when he underled the ace of clubs to get the diamond ruff. The general idea was good, but it wasn't good enough.

After winning the ace of hearts, he should have returned a low spade instead. Had he done this, the contract would automatically have gone down. If Reese went up with the ace, he would lose two spade tricks, while if he finessed the ten, East would win with the king and return a diamond to score the setting trick.

Actually, the spade return is very reasonable under the circumstances. East had to have the king of spades and king of clubs for his two notrump bid, and, on this basis, the spade return was strongly indicated.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.
