Grain

WINNIPEG, Oct. 10 (CP) — Most prices were lower in active trade today on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange, reflecting heavier hedging sales coincidental with more favorable harvest weather. The hedging sent flax down 15 to 17 1/2 cents. Rye and the deferred months of oats and barley also were lower. Fair shippers buying appeared in oats and barley. Exporters also bought barley as it was reported that 300,000 bushels of this commodity had been sold today for export. Americans picked up rye, while seaboard interests bought flax on the declines. Export loadings of Canadian wheat totalled about 1,400,000 bushels, with 700,000 to the United Kingdom, 330,000 to Japan, 280,000 to the republic of Ireland, 85,000 to Belgium, 20,000 to Switzerland and a small lot to Honduras.
