

Heavy Docket At Georgetown Court

GEORGETOWN — Lawrence Wallace MacLeod, Murray River, pleaded not guilty to selling liquor when he appeared before Provincial Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, at Georgetown on Thursday.

MacPhail Claims People Misled On Plant Financing

"The premier is still misleading the people of the Island in regard to the financing of the Georgetown development," says Lloyd G. MacPhail, former minister of industries and natural resources in the Conservative administration.

possible and false statement. The truth is that less than $500,000 is required to cover our obligations. There is no problem with liabilities to associated companies.

EMPLOYEE HONORED

A longtime employee of Douglas Bros. and Jones Inc., Pius Curley, RIGHT, was honored last evening at a staff Christmas party, held at the Basilica Recreation Centre.

Future Of Outcasts Still Uncertain

(Special to the Guardian) TORONTO — Mrs. Willard Coffin, mother of Keith Willard Coffin, the 21-year-old organist who recently had his leg amputated following an automobile accident on the Queen Elizabeth Way in Ontario, said yesterday that "the future of the Outcasts is uncertain, because the boys are still too sick to talk about their plans, according to doctors."

LOCAL BRIEFS

IN HOSPITAL Mrs. G.A. Stewart, 306 North River Road is a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital with a fractured hip.

ENTERED HOSPITAL James Ross of Vernon River has entered the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, where he is scheduled to undergo treatment for several weeks.

MINOR DAMAGE SUMMERSIDE — Minor damage was caused in a fire at the home of Alice MacLean, 149 West Street. According to firemen, the fire was confined to garbage behind the stove in the kitchen. The alarm was sounded at 11.30 a.m. yesterday morning.

RETURNS HOME Joan Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Campbell, Martynvale, has returned home after being a patient in Kings County Memorial Hospital for two weeks.

HOLDS MEETING The P.E.I. Branch of the John Howard Society held a board meeting Thursday night in the Provincial Vocational School. Reports were heard and routine business was discussed.

FAILS TO APPEAR Edward Thomas Cook, Charlottetown, failed to appear yesterday in Queens County Court for trial before Magistrate James B. Johnston. He had been charged with impaired driving and was to stand trial this morning. An order for his arrest will be issued. John P. Nicholson, QC, represented the Crown.

CARD PARTY RESULTS The following are the results of Thursday night's card party at the Basilica Recreation Centre. Women: first Mrs. Susan Higgins; second, Mrs. Katherine Sheppard; mens' first, Athol Ellis; second, Peter Ryan; special prize, Mrs. Katherine Sheppard; door prize, Mrs. Katherine Atkins.

NAMED V.P. John H. Willoughby has been named vice-president for Prince Edward Island of MacKay-Hollimore, Ltd., insurance adjusters, of Eugene Bernard one of the board of directors in Halifax. Mr. Willoughby has been Charlottetown manager of the branch for the past three years. He was appointed a director of the firm in 1965.

CARD GAME WINNERS Winners in the Covehead-Stanhope Community Hall card game held last night are as follows: Ladies 1st, Mrs. Samuel Woodrige; Ladies 2nd, Mrs. Ronald MacDonald. Consolation prize, Mrs. George MacMillan. Gents' 1st, Junior Youland; Gents 2nd, Layton Stone; consolation, Joseph Robison. Door prize, Patrick Horgan. Freez-out, Mrs. Orr MacCann and Victor Deacon.

CARD PARTY WINNERS The following are the winners in the Community Centre card party held last night: Special prize, Mrs. Joseph Doucette; door prize, William MacKenzie; ladies' first, Mrs. Albert MacInnis; ladies second, Mrs. Margaret McGonnell; Ladies' consolation, Mrs. Joseph Doucette; mens' first, Patrick Larrier; mens' second, George Larrier; mens' consolation, Joseph MacKay; freeze-out, Harriet O'Connor and Patrick Trainor.

Robert Profit New President

ALBERTON — Robert Profit was elected president of Alberton branch of the Royal Canadian Legion at the annual meeting recently. Other officers are: Keir Fraser, 1st vice-president; Arthur Ramsay, 2nd vice-president; Leo O'Meara, sergeant-at-arms; Earle Callaghan, secretary-treasurer; Honorary Capt. W.J. Phillips, Chaplain; elected to the executive were, Herbert Leavitt, R.D. McKinnon and Frank Weeks.

Safety Council Holds Meeting

The December meeting of the Prince Edward Island Safety Council was held in the National Film Board room with George Melkie presiding. Eldon Rogerson gave an encouraging report on the driver training programme. He is presently conducting a class of 21 students.

Theft Charge Withdrawn

A charge of theft under the value of $50 against Wilfred Bradley, Montague was withdrawn in City Police Court yesterday. Magistrate A. James Haslam, QC, presided. Frank Murphy, Millview, charged with a similar offence, was fined $50 and costs or 30 days.

Former Islander Dies In Maine

ALBERTON — Mrs. Clifford Gregor, the former Alberta, died in Yarmouth, Maine, Thursday morning, following a very long illness. Mrs. Gregor, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ahern, was born at Alberton sixty-two years ago. As a young woman she went to the United States, where she found employment. She was married first to Joseph Perry who was killed in an accident while at work. Later she was married to Mr. Gregor.

READY FOR WINTER There are 300 miles of snow fences in Russia's Arctic city of Norilsk (population 150,000).

Indecent Assault Charges Heard

SUMMERSIDE — Preliminary hearing into charges of indecent assault of a female against two Lennox Island youths, Michael Roy Ernest Sark and James David Bernar Sark yesterday morning in Prince County Magistrate's Court before Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald QC.

Former Island Teacher Is Named Inspector

Marvin Edward McInnis has been appointed Inspector of Schools for the counties of Antigonish and Guysborough. The appointment was effective August 1, 1966.

Housing Official Dies In Ontario

HAMILTON (CP) — Kenneth David Soble, broadcaster and chairman of the Ontario Housing Commission, died Friday night at his home after a short illness. He was 55.

FUNERALS

WHITE FUNERAL — The funeral for George H. White was held on Wednesday afternoon from the Murray River United Church. Service was conducted by the Rev. H.W. Chapman. Pallbearers were: Douglas Saunders, Judson Nicolle, Rankin Keenan, Harold Cuddy, Basil MacLeod, Derril Love. Flower-bearers were: Stirling Burke, Alfred Acera, Emerson Gornley, Boyd Allan, Waldo Love. Interment was in the Murray River cemetery.

ROSS FUNERAL — Funeral for Mrs. John R. Ross was held Friday afternoon from her late residence at Pictou to St. John's Presbyterian Church, Belfast. Rev. Donald Nicholson conducted the service. Organist was Mrs. N.W. MacDonald. Congregational hymns were "Blessed Be Thy Name O God" and "Sweetly Resting", was rendered by Mr. and Mrs. John MacWilliams. Also members of the choir sang "Will Your Anchor Hold". Pallbearers were: Alec Campbell, Jack Gillis, Malcolm Nicholson, Baxter Ross, Samuel Buchanan, and William Ross. Flower-bearers were: John Panton, Murdoch Morrison, William Penny, Orville Ross, John Ross, Boynton Panton, Lorrie Morrison and John MacPherson. Interment was in the Belfast cemetery.

Advertisement for Henderson & Cudmore Ltd. featuring tuxedos, cummerbunds, and shoes. Includes text: 'OPEN TONIGHT holi-dash IN MEN'S FASHIONS', 'EVENING ELEGANCE TUXEDOS', 'Easy To Own CENTURY Mobile Homes', 'COMMERCIAL PRINTING', 'GUARDIAN-PATRIOT CENTRAL PRINTERY'.

Advertisement for WORTH'S PHARMACY. Text: 'DRUG STORE OPEN THIS WEEKEND WORTH'S PHARMACY 148 PRINCE STREET Will be open all day Saturday, and will be the only Drug Store open Saturday evening and all day Sunday. DIAL 4-3424 FREE DELIVERY SEASON'S GREETINGS'.

Advertisement for CITY DRUG. Text: 'CITY DRUG Out of town residents call collect for your drug and prescription needs. Please make a note of this number! 892-3434 ROYALTY MALL SHOPPING CENTRE'.