The Supreme Court.

In view of the fact that sittings of the Supreme Court will soon be held in each of the three Counties of the Province, we beg, respectfully, to call the attention of the Chief Justice and his brother Judges to a grievance to which suitors, witnesses, jurors, etc., have, in the years that are past, complained of, and to express the hope that arrangements will be made for its abatement in all time to come.

The Judges of the Supreme Court of Canada file into Court as the clock strikes ten of the days on which the Court is sitting. Why can our Judges not be as punctual?

Notes and Comments.

The Summerside Journal calls upon the people to "beautify the highways." It says that "every farmer should take a pride in beautifying that part of his farm which borders on the public highway."

The folly of not teaching children to obey was shown a few days ago, at Fall River, Mass. Twelve persons were out in a boat. There was a strong wind and the water was ruffled. The boat was common thirteen foot one and a half-bottomed.

The statistics of the Louisiana lottery prove it to be the most gigantic swindle ever inflicted upon any people. In the twenty two years of its existence its income has been reckoned by hundreds of millions, at the present time amounting to nearly $25,000,000 yearly.

In his warm speech on the silver question, Senator Jones, said: "Who were the debtors in this country? They are the aspiring, the hopeful, the energetic, the audacious; they were the upbuilders, the designers, the men of initiative, of executive power, and of achievement."

The only drawback to the prosperity of Lower California is its connection with and government by Mexico. The Government is about as weak and vicious as can well be imagined, with a particular tendency to make things disagreeable for Englishmen and Americans, whose energy and enterprise the Mexicans are incapable of emulating.

John Williamson, aged 60, a farm laborer, is under arrest at Sedalia, Mo., for the murder with an axe of Jefferson Moore and his son Charles, for whom he worked. Williamson was found in a public park at that place last Monday nearly dead from the effects of strychnine, but will recover.

Seldom Danton, member of the firm of Payson, Danton & Scribner, residing in Union, Maine, committed suicide by hanging, a few days ago. He was 81 years of age, and regarded as wealthy.

MOUNT ALLISON

Closing Exercises in the University.

(Special Correspondence of The Examiner.) TUESDAY, May 27.

Last night the Rev. Mr. Read, of Charlottetown, delivered a logical and incisive lecture on the "Light and Life." He dealt with the subject in a manner which showed great study and research.

This morning the Ladies College anniversary exercises came off. Miss Whitman's valedictory was splendid. The finest part of the musical portion of the programme was undoubtedly the chorus, "Woodmen, Shepherds come, away," which was loudly encored.

Principal Borden reported great progress during the year. He said that there were 155 students in attendance, and that about two thousand dollars had been spent in renovating the rooms. He then referred to the conservatory of music which was about to be erected.

Miss Mary Dull, of Charlottetown, received first prize of $25 in the Fine Art Department. Mr. M.C. Dald, of Halifax, sent her a beautiful bouquet of flowers also.

Rev. Mr. Heartz then spoke on the subject of the conservatory. He said that two thousand dollars were yet needed. He proposed that a thousand be collected then and there.

In the afternoon the College Gymnastic competition came off. Mr. Edgar Beer carried off the prize in Ring work. In the evening a gay company assembled in the Stone College, to take part in the Alumni Conversation. The evening passed very pleasantly indeed.

The Wallace $52,000 Robbery.

WHAT LESLIE E. M'LEOD SAID TO THE COURT—A LETTER FROM HIM.

"I consent that the case be postponed for another day as I want to give my accusers every opportunity to produce their evidence, that my innocence may be conclusively established at once."

Mr. McLeod contributed the following letter to the New York papers:— To the Editor of the Tribune:— Sir,—The recent robbery of Mr. John H. Wallace of Wallace Monthly, by his relative and trusted financial manager—an affair with which a bad attempt was made to connect the writer—has brought me so much unpleasant newspaper notoriety that the newspapers cannot in justice now deny me a word.

The same paper, in alluding to Mr. McLeod's discharge on the following day, remarked: "This is in accordance with the general belief about the outcome of the trial, as there was no evidence on which he could be held, and he is known to be a man of integrity."

I have no intention of attempting to contradict the multitudinous lies, the cruel and malicious slanders, that the necessities of sensationalism have thrown into this case in the newspapers. One only I need contradict. That is the statement that I was discharged by Mr. Wallace, coupled with a contemptible slander concerning my social life.

John Williamson, aged 60, a farm laborer, is under arrest at Sedalia, Mo., for the murder with an axe of Jefferson Moore and his son Charles, for whom he worked. Williamson was found in a public park at that place last Monday nearly dead from the effects of strychnine, but will recover.

Horrible Crime in Havana.

SEVENTY-FIVE PERSONS BLOWN INTO ETERNITY THROUGH CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS.

A Havana correspondent of the Halifax Herald writes as follows in reference to the recent disastrous fire and explosion at that place: The alarm was promptly followed by the arrival at the burning building of several of our splendid fire engines, and water was soon turned on with good prospects of saving the stock and building.

The dead were carried to the rotunda of the palace of the captain general, "Plazade Armas," and placed in caskets from whence they were taken to the cemetery Colon in 39 hearse and vehicles of the fire department, followed by comrades, clergy, soldiers, 16 bands of music, some 200 private carriages containing citizens and government officials, and an immense concourse of people.

The whole city is in mourning for many of its most promising citizens who have been so suddenly killed by one of the most careless acts of heedless persons who, contrary to law, stored explosives within the most central part of the city.

A Complaint. Sir,—A lady remarked to me the other day that in no other civilized city would there be permitted such an amount of loitering as may be witnessed in our market.

Prize Street. Sir,—The residents of Prince Street have a cheerful prospect before them, and the dust of to-day is a fair sample of what may be expected if the Street Committee allow City Surveyor Taylor to continue his present course in making repairs thereon.
