

METHODIST CHURCH.

N. B. and P. E. Island Conference.

TUESDAY MORNING—SIXTH DAY.

Conference opened by singing, scripture by Secretary, and prayer by Rev. Joseph Pascoe. The President in the chair. Journal read by Rev. S. H. Rice, and approved.

Rev. John Read presented the report of the Relief and Extension Fund, so far as the raising of $800 to the trustees of St. Andrew's Parsonage property was concerned. The matter had been duly attended to and the property insured. A short conversation ensued, relative to the payment of the interest in which Dr. Pickard, Revs. Robert Duncan, and Fred W. Harrison took part. Report was received, and the officers of the Fund. On motion of Rev. Henry Daniel, Conference resolved to vote $120 from the above Fund to the Contingent Fund, to meet the claims upon the latter fund.

Dr. Stewart moved that the thanks of the Conference be presented to Rev. John Read, for the excellent charge delivered last evening; and that he be requested to furnish a copy of the same to the Westman for publication. Rev. E. Evans seconded the resolution, and Rev. Henry Daniel supported it. It was unanimously passed. Rev. John Read suitably responded, saying that during the year he had simply desired to do his duty to the church.

On motion, John Fawcett, Esq., was excused from Conference.

On motion, thanks were presented to Revs. J. Burwash and S. H. Rice, for the accommodation provided for the members of the Conference and to the billeting committee, and the friends in Charlotte-town.

On motion of Rev. Wilson, thanks were rendered to the choir of this church for their valuable services during Conference.

On motion of Rev. R. Wilson, thanks were presented to the EXAMINER and other newspapers for the able reports of Conference proceeding. Dr. Stewart seconded the same. J. J. Anslow, Esq., responded for the press.

Thanks were presented to Rev. G. W. Fisher and H. Thorne, Esq., Assistant Secretaries, and the Rev. Bonj. Chappell, B. A., Assistant Journal Secretary, for their services.

On motion of Rev. G. W. Fisher, thanks were passed to Rev. R. Wilson, Secretary, and S. H. Rice, Journal Secretary, for their services.

On motion, thanks were passed to railroad and steamboat companies for the favors extended to members of this Conference in travelling to and from Conference. Secretary of Conference submitted the order of business for the Conference of 1885.

On motion it was resolved that the acts of incorporation of N. B. and P. E. Island, be inserted as an appendix in the minutes of the year.

On motion of Rev. C. H. Paisley, A. M., Conference recommended that the deeds of the late Bible Christian Church, in the custody of Rev. S. H. Rice, be distributed among the circuits to which they belong.

On motion of Rev. R. W. Weddall, B. A., every minister unable to attend Conference, was peremptorily required to give three weeks notice of the same to the superintendent of the circuit where the Conference is held.

On motion of Rev. J. Read, it was ordered that a minister leaving his circuit be responsible for the supply of his pulpits for two Sabbaths after the Conference rises.

The report from the special committee on the Contingent Fund was then made the order of the day. A long conversation ensued, in which Revs. Henry Daniel, John Read, Joseph Seller, George Steel, C. Slackford, J. S. Allen, W. E. Dawson, Silas James, Douglas Chapman and others took part. However, the President ruled that we could not, under the clauses of the discipline named, form an Augmentation or Sustentation Fund. The report of the committee was therefore ruled out of order.

The resolution of Rev. F. W. Harrison, for the abolition of the annual Conference collection was next discussed. Rev. George Steel moved an amendment, which was voted down. After an earnest discussion the resolution was lost, 33 voting for it and 35 against it.

Dr. Pickard presented the resolution of Conference respecting the death of Dr. Rice. It was ordered to be inserted in the minutes.

Benediction was pronounced by the President.

Afternoon Session.

After singing, the Rev. C. H. Paisley, A. M., led in prayer. The journal was approved; Rev. Job Shenton presiding. Rev. J. C. Berrie submitted the report of the Temperance Committee and programme of Temperance meeting. Report referred with appreciation to the action of the Commons in rejecting the Senate's amendments to the Scott Act. It also recommended the use of unfermented wine in the celebration of the Lord's Supper. A long conversation ensued relative to the last clause, in which James Watts, Esq., Revs. C. H. Paisley, A. M., Dr. Pickard, John J. Burwash, A. M., R. W. Weddall, A. B., G. M. Campbell, John Read and others took part. The report was received with slight corrections.

On motion of Rev. C. H. Paisley, A. M., seconded by W. E. Dawson, Esq., Conference resolved "That this Conference expresses its satisfaction at the suppression of the rebellion in the Northwest Territory and its appreciation of the valor of the volunteers which, under the Divine blessing, has secured this result."

Rev. J. J. Colter moved that there be a Conference session to-morrow morning, at 8.30, to take into consideration the state of the work of God in the Conference.

Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, A. M., moved in amendment that there be a prayer meeting at that time, to be conducted by Rev. Silas James—Amendment was carried.

Rev. A. Lucas presented the report of the Contingent Fund Committee, which has already appeared in our columns—Report was received.

Rev. H. P. Cowperthwaite, A. M., presented report of the Superannuated Committee. Income from the Circuits had been $667.65, an increase of about $30. Dr. Pickard presented a table of statistics showing increase or decrease on the several districts or circuits. Report was adopted, and with a recommendation that a full financial statement be published in the minutes.

Permission was given for the Stationing Committee to retire, and Rev. Henry Daniel took the Chair.

Rev. B. Chappell, B. A., moved that at future Conferences our morning preaching services be restored.

Rev. J. Marshall moved an amendment leaving the matter in the hands of the Superintendent of the Circuit where the Conference is held.

Rev. H. R. Baker, A. B., moved an amendment to the amendment expressing regret at the discontinuance of the morning service, and recommending that in future they be held. Mr. Baker's amendment was carried.

Rev. Joseph Seller, A. B., read report from the Committee on travelling expenses. It was referred back again to Committee.

Conference closed at five—Benediction by Chairman.

TEMPERANCE MEETING—TUESDAY EVENING.

Meeting opened with singing hymn 917, commencing:

"Mourn for the thousands slain
The youthful and the strong;
Mourn for the wine cup's fearful rage
And the deluded throng."

Dr. Stewart prayed. On the platform were, Mrs. Pickard and Stewart, Rev. J. Read and J. C. Berrie and James Watts, Esq., editor of the Carlton Sentinel, J. S. Marnie, Esq., St. John and John T. G. Carr, Carlton, Co., N. B. Rev. John Read presided. He welcomed the audience to the meeting. Said that the General Conference is a unit on this question. Referred to the resolutions passed by that body on the subject. Declared that nothing short of prohibitory measures would satisfy us. He said that the question of compensation to the liquor seller was no more worthy of consideration than that of compensation to the widows and orphans. He made an excellent speech. He also referred to some cartoons in Grip.

Rev. J. C. Berrie read the report. The substance of this is given in our account of to-day's proceedings. Mr. Berrie supplemented the report by supporting that part of it which recommended the use of unfermented wine in the celebration of the Lord's Supper.

After singing part of hymn 919, commencing:

"'Tis Thine alone almighty name
To raise the dead to life,"

J. S. Marnie, Esq., spoke. He did not expect to say anything new. But it must be precept upon precept. He declared that this great evil of intemperance must be dealt with by the Church. He spoke of the danger of keeping wine in the house. He urged the formation of temperance societies in connection with Sabbath Schools. He spoke of the good results from such societies. Dr. Richardson's temperance papers were read in the Sabbath Schools with which he was identified. Then Mr. Marnie referred to the benedict effects of the Scott Act in Charlottetown. Although he had been here a week he had not seen a single case of drunkenness. Mr. Marnie is a good speaker, and carried the sympathy of his audience with him.

John T. G. Carr, Esq., related his experience in the temperance cause. He quoted the saying of the late Prince Leopold that "England had no foe to fear but strong drink." He warned the audience of the danger of tipping. This led to drunkenness. He urged all to work earnestly in the temperance cause. Mr. Carr was evidently a little nervous at first, but soon got over this and made a telling speech.

James Watts, Esq., confessed to a feeling of great surprise that in this comparatively large city he had not seen an individual under the influence of drink. He could not apply that remark to the town from which he came. The temperance question is old and yet it is new. He asserted that a temperance meeting was in keeping with a Methodist Conference, for no man had ever said stronger words against liquor selling than John Wesley. Upon the temperance worker came the burden and the blame of this reform not having done more than it has. If we would only rise and put into active earnest operation the sentiment in favor of temperance without any law at its back the moral influence would be strong enough to put down drunkenness. Recommended that in all elementary schools there should be some work showing the nature of alcohol. Claimed that things were taught that were not so practical. Mr. Watts said that this matter was not brought before us in the pulpit as often as it ought to be. None of us are doing as much as we ought to be doing. All of us are interested in this question, and all of us ought to be at work. He was glad at the action of the Commons in rejecting the Senate's amendments to the Scott Act. However the latter may be longer than we anticipate. But temperance must eventually prevail. He appealed to fathers and mothers to realize their responsibilities, and urged them to throw all possible shields around their young. It was a most thoughtful speech.

A collection was taken up. J. Watts, Esq., then thanked, on behalf of the lay delegates, the people of Charlottetown for their generous hospitality. There was a good sized congregation. It was the best temperance meeting that there has been in connection with the Conference for many years.

After signing the doxology, Dr. Pickard pronounced the Benediction.
