EXHIBITION ASSOCIATION MEETING.—The annual general meeting of the Charlotte-town Driving Club and Provincial Exhibition Association will be held in the Masonic Temple, on Tuesday, the 29th inst., at 8 o'clock, p. m.

GAVE THE SNAP AWAY.—A Concordia youth darkened his moustache with black pomade and took his girl out for a moonlight stroll. When the fair one appeared a couple of hours later her face looked like a railroad map.—Moncton Transcript.

GOING TO CANADA.—It is stated that Rev. Father Paré has prevailed upon nearly 500 heads of families in the vicinity of Calumet, Mich., to emigrate to Canada. They will locate near the flourishing village of Verrier, north of Lake Nipissing.

NEW SHOP.—An attractive sign has been put up by Peake Bros. & Co. on the Water Street side of the building occupied by them on the corner of Queen and Water Streets. It bears the words "Dominion Coal Company, Limited, Peake Bros. & Co., selling agents."

CANADIAN APOLLINARIUS.—The Canadian Iron Furnace Co. are lucky people. They have found a spring of most valuable mineral water on their property at Ladore, Forges, P. Q. Geo. H. experts class it with Apollinaris and Seltzer, and predict a great fortune for "its honor." As a pure, natural table water it has already won great praise.

AN UNLUCKY NUMBER.—At the great convention in Summerside last week, to select a candidate to contest that constituency at the next Dominion election, Mr. J. H. Bell received 13 votes, and Hon. John Yeo, 57. The Agriculturalist says that Mr. Bell, who had worked hard for the nomination, was so chagrined at the result that he refused to make the nomination of Hon. Mr. Yeo unanimous, as is almost invariably done in such cases.

A VALUABLE ANIMAL.—The Summerside Agriculturalist concludes a well-written review of the breeding and performances of the trotting mare Blanche, owned by Mr. J. M. Macleod of this city, as follows: Blanche bids fair, during the season of 1895, to take a good position in the list. She is not only speedy, but her fine blood lines make her an ideal brood mare, and she is a most valuable animal in every respect.

ACCIDENT AT O'LEARY.—Saturday an accident occurred at the residence of Dr. McLanlin, O'Leary. One of the children, aet a lamp fell on the floor, and an explosion followed. The doctor smothered the flames with a mat, but the sick was still burning. This and the "burner he grasped in his hands and started to run down stairs, but in the attempt his two hands were badly burned. Had the doctor not been so promptly with the scene it is likely that the house would have burned to the ground.—Grand Inq.

Taylor; Court Physician, Drs D. T. McKay, McPhail, McNeill and Sutherland; Representatives to High Court, Wm G. Schurman and B. B. Andie.

THE CHEESE TRADE.—The exports of cheese to date since the close of navigation aggregate 50,240 boxes to London, 57,992 to Liverpool, and 12,583 boxes to Bristol, making a total of 120,815 boxes. There is considerable speculation regarding the stock in Canada on the first of the year. Of course, no absolute accurate data is available, but the stock in Montreal is approximated at 120,000 boxes, 30,000 being there and Toronto, and 100,000 odd in the district west of Toronto, or 250,000 boxes in Canada altogether. Last year the stock in Canada was placed at 150,000 to 180,000 boxes, or 30,000 boxes less. The stock in Liverpool also on the first of the year is 23,980 boxes in excess of that of January 1st, 1894, being 122,000 boxes against 83,000 in 1894.—Exchange.

ISLAND PRIZE WINNER.—A short time ago the New York Mercury offered prizes for the best short stories or sketches on the subject—"How Did You Meet Your Wife?" We hear from the Agriculturalist that the third prize of $5.00 was won by Mr. Watson F. Clark, of Summerside, (formerly of Charlottetown), who tells his story in a remarkable and humorous style.

BASKET SOCIAL AT LITTLE RIVER. One of the events of the season came off at Little River, on the evening of the 8th inst., under very favorable auspices, when the basket social in aid of the Red House Dairy Association Hall was held. The night was fine, the roads good and the hall, though unfinished, was under the management of an excellent committee decorated with bunting, spruce, and Chinese lanterns, so as to look quite inviting. About 7 o'clock a hundred nicely trimmed baskets, well filled with tempting viands were handed in by as many equally attractive ladies. About one hour was devoted to a literary entertainment consisting of:—

A dainty sermon by Henry Norton, recitation and readings by Master Willie Howlett, W. H. Sgarbidge, and others, and an amusing comedy by Albert Dingwell and Ephraim McCallum, all interspersed with vocal and instrumental music by Miss Annie McDonald, Miss Ella Underlay, Miss Ada Underlay, Angus D. McDonald, W. H. Sgarbidge, and E. W. Underlay, Miss Annie McDonald, of Dundas, presiding at the organ and Mr. J. S. McCormack, violinist. A sprightly and well conducted social followed a social discussion of their contents to the accompaniment of hot coffee.

Notwithstanding that the hall was filled to overflowing, the best of order and good feeling prevailed throughout the whole evening, and when the party separated some time in the "two sma hours beyond the twal," all seemed to feel that they had spent a very enjoyable and sociable evening, besides realizing the handsome sum of $75.00, in aid of the hall.

Mr. Mark Trowsdale, of Crapaud, has recently sold a horse and lot to Mrs. Robblee at a fair price. Mark also intended to have an auction sale of surplus stock, but before the day of sale all the goods were disposed of at private sale. Who will say now that advertising does not pay?

Mr. John Fall was moving a building yesterday, to be used as a shoe shop, for Mr. Trowsdale. The building, when crossing the street, came in contact with the telegraph wire. The wire proved too weak for the number of horses, and the result was that several of the posts were stripped, and it is said that a message was being sent from Summerside to Charlottetown at the time of the collision, and it was snapped off like a pipe-stem.

A godly number of delegates left here yesterday to attend the Grii Convention in Summerside, and we hear that John Yeo, M. P., was nominated as the standard bearer. We have also been informed that Mr. Bell is kicking in the traces.

Mr. Treed, manager of the Creamery at Crapaud, informs that several cases were made last week for the patrons. The cheese press, which is in contact with the milk, is the manager of the cheese factory there. Mr. Brown deserves the thanks of the patrons here for this kindly act.

CORRECTIONS. Lot 29, Jan. 12, 1895.

THE BRIDEGROOM CAME NOT. George W. Davis, aged twenty-six years, a claim agent for the Lake Shore railroad, committed suicide at Cleveland, Ohio, last Monday night, under peculiar circumstances. Early in the evening he went to a barber shop with his beard, and he returned to his home. He seemed cheerful as usual. Going to a spare bedroom he lighted the gas, sat down on a chair before a mirror, put his feet on another chair, and shot himself through the temple, the bullet passing entirely through his head. He had not been dead an hour when there came to the house two little girls, who enquired for him, and explained that their mother, whom he was to have married that evening, was waiting for him at her home. The young lady is Miss Anna Noonan, an intelligent and handsome girl. Davis was to have met her that evening at her home. They were to have gone to the Rev. R. A. George, of Trinity Congregational church, to be married, and had planned a short trip. Miss Noonan was greatly distressed by the sad affair. It is understood that Davis' mother knew of his having paid attention to Miss Noonan, and upbraided him for it on social grounds.

MARRIED. At the residence of Mrs. George Lewis, North River, James Barrows, Knoutington, to Barbara Godfrey, of the Royalty. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. Hamlyn, on Wednesday last, January 9th.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A QUESTION TO "GEORGE H." DEAR SIR, In your issue of 10th inst., a correspondent signing himself "George H." states that he imported goods to this city on two different occasions, declaring that in the space of twelve years these goods fell in price nearly sixty per cent. Will George H. please name the kind of goods in question. Then we may be wretcheder the fall in price is due, as he says, to protection.

I challenge him to do this, for I believe that it would be seen that the fall in price is due to inventions of machinery or to the removal of patents, and not, as he says, to protection. JAMES L.

THE DARKY'S REASON. SIR.—The darky took a job to cart a load of wood for $1.00, and then sublet it to another sabbie gent at the same price. On being asked where his profit came in, he answered, "but Ise lose, sah." If the list below is correct, (and it came from a reliable firm), a good many grocers are in the position of the darky who was "lose sale." Sugar is three cents; 2 lbs raisins for 30 cts, cost 25 cts; 10 lbs surprise soap, 50 cts, cost 49 cts; 10 lbs foam 60, cost 59; 3 lbs candy cost 19 cts, selling for 22 cts; Tomatoes can be bought for 9 cts a can; $1.05 is about as low as they can be bought wholesale. Flour is quoted in Montreal, Patent Roller, $3.50 to $3.65; it is selling for $3.25 by single barrel here. Oil costs 18 cents, retails at 22; canned apples cost $1.15 doz, selling at $1.20. As it costs from 10 to 15 per cent. to sell groceries at retail, supposing there are no load debts, apparently the grocers of Charlottetown are not on the road to wealth. Extremes meet, and from the Dutchman's 1 per cent, on selling goods for double what they cost, and selling under actual cost is the other extreme. Both are alike vicious. A fair profit is alike just to all. Grocers associations elsewhere have been a success. Why not try one here? The laund of trade, if not too busy, might want in the matter.

EXPERIENCE. The Great Teacher. Most of you have found out our methods by experience. We don't announce to give goods away. We don't try to stir up trade whirlwinds. We don't use emphatic methods of advertising.

When we commenced making and selling Furniture, it was with the conviction that other people knew something about it. We fixed a policy. It was RELIABLE GOODS, SQUARE TREATMENT and LOWEST-NOTCH PRICES. We've hammered away at those three things, and we're not through yet—pounding out the one idea, "We know what we sell, we know the quality's right and the price reasonable."
