

PART of an American and Colonial mail arrived in this city at noon to-day.

THERE was no business transacted at the Stipendiary Magistrate's this morning.

REMEMBER the meeting of the Salvage Corps this evening at 8 o'clock.

WE will notice the new license law at some length in to-morrow's issue.

ACKNOWLEDGED, with thanks, donations for the "Soup Kitchen," from Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Newbery, "A Friend" and H.

THE Northern Light is now in Georgetown, and will attempt a trip to Pictou on her first real fine day.

THE Ross-Hanlon boat race is postponed until July. It will take place in that month on the Kennebecasis river. The stakes will be $1,000 a side.

WE have seen Mr. Earle's excellent programme for to-morrow evening's Concert. It is first-class in every respect. Go one, go all, if you want to get a rich musical treat.

RELIGIOUS.—There will be Gospel preaching this evening in the New Church House (Disciples), in entrance of Malpeque Road. Services to commence at 7 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

A COLLISION between two disorderly driven teams occurred on Prince Street near Quirk's Steam Bakery, on Saturday evening. One of the sleighs—belonging to Mr. John Gates—escaped without injury; but the other—the name of the owner we did not learn—was almost demolished.

AN old man named Noonan met with a very serious accident on Sunday morning. He was leaving St. Dunstan's Cathedral after hearing early Mass, when descending the outer steps he slipped, fell, and his right thigh came in contact with the top of the step. He was lifted and taken into the tower, when, on examination, it was discovered that his thigh was broken. He was then removed to Dr. Taylor's and his leg was set. As Mr. Noonan is a very old man, it is not likely he will recover from his injuries.

WE have received a letter signed by Messrs. F. H. Campbell and J. T. Leeming, commenting on the speeches of Messrs. C. Palmer and E. J. Hodgson in the riot cases. We are of opinion that the course taken by the Argus and Patriot in commenting as they did upon the counsel's speeches, was highly improper, and in that opinion we are upheld by Mr. Justice Hensley in his charge in McCloskey's case. We, therefore, must decline publishing the letter, and thus falling into the same error which we condemned in our contemporary.

ON Saturday evening the Hillsborough ice in front of Queen and Peake's No. 1 Wharves presented a very lively appearance. On it there were no less than fifty horses practising in real turf-like style. It was as fine an exhibition of race-horses as was ever before seen outside a trotting park. Among the fastest we noticed Mr. A. N. Large's "Bush" and "Fairy," Dr. Jenkins' "Queen" mares, Mr. J. R. Brecken's "Island Boy," Mr. R. Steele's "Dean Swift," Mr. R. Crabbe's young bay horses and Mr. A. A. Holme's young black horse. Can not a first-class match be arranged for Saturday next?

A VILLAGE SWEEP AWAY.—SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 27.—It is reported that the village of Isleton on Andrus Island in Alta, Sacramento River has been swept away in consequence of the pressure brought upon the levees by cutting in dykes on Grand Island just across the river. Reports are continually coming in of disasters by flood in the Sacramento Valley. Water covers the whole country, and the destruction of property from Colusa to the mouth of the river aggregates millions. With but too or three exceptions, as far as learned, there is no loss of life. The Legislature has appropriated $25,000 for the benefit of the sufferers.

A CURIOUS question has been recently mooted in the Courts concerning the powers of a Justice of the Peace for the whole Colony. The question is whether such a Justice is not only a Justice of the Peace for each County, and therefore in discharging an official act relating to a matter in any particular County, whether the Justice, though appointed for the whole Colony, should not exercise his official duty in the County to which the act done relates. For example, whether a Justice of the Peace for the whole Colony residing in Queen's County can take acknowledgment of dower of land in King's County, without being in King's County at the time of taking such an acknowledgment. The question is a new one, and seems to be attended with much doubt, and its decision according to the view now suggested may be attended with serious results to parties whose interests depend on acts of Justices for the whole Colony.

FOUND LYING DEAD IN A YARD.—About seven o'clock this morning Officer Marshall, of the St. John Police Force, was informed by a boy that a woman was lying dead in a yard back of the house, near the Bethel, on Duke street, and occupied by "Ned" Muldoon. He went with the boy, and having seen the woman lying there dead, he notified Coroner Earle, and Constable Powers, who had the body removed to the Dead House. The body is that of Mrs. Eliza Haines, a woman of about 50 years of age, who lived with a colored woman in the upper part of Muldoon's house. She was seen alive by the occupants of the house yesterday afternoon, when she started to go down town. This was the last time they saw her until this morning, when they found her lying dead in the yard. She was lying across a log, and it is supposed that she was under the influence of liquor, and coming along the yard stumbled against the log and fell, striking her head with such force on the ice as to stun her, and that lying with her head down she smothered, or perhaps the ice itself was sufficient to cause death. The ice this morning where she had lain was covered with blood, showing that the wound in her head bled profusely. An inquest was held by the Coroner at five o'clock this afternoon, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.—Telegraph, March 1st.

WAR NEWS.

Special Dispatch to Examiner.

BELGRADE, March 3. There was an extraordinary Cabinet Council to-day. Prince Milan presided. All the military authorities were present. It was said that it was resolved not to resign the territory which Serbia conquered in new Bulgaria. The Servian army will, for the present, remain on a full war footing.

The Artillery reserves are being organized. Prince Milan will return to his headquarters at Nisch. It is hoped, however, that Russia will yield to Serbia's wishes.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 4. The Czar has called out four divisions of reserve with artillery.

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 4. The Treaty of Peace has been signed. The Grand Duke Nicholas announced the fact to the soldiers at a review at San Stefano to-day. Russia has abandoned her claim upon the Egyptian and Bulgarian tribute.

LONDON, March 4. A despatch to Reuter's telegram company from Constantinople, under date of Saturday evening, says "that the Russians have made substantial concessions regarding the boundary of Bulgaria."

ST. PETERSBURG, March 3. The "Agence Russe" cites a special despatch from Vienna in the "Daily Telegraph" of March 1st, stating that the Russians are bent on entering Constantinople, with or without the Sultan's consent, and that England had notified Prince Gortschakoff that if Russia pursued the latter course, the British Ambassador would be ordered to quit St. Petersburg.

The Agence Russe says that this report refers to a past phase of the crisis, since which the Russians have occupied San Stefano, with the sanction of the Sultan.

LONDON, March 4. A special to the Standard from Vienna asserts that two divisions of Austrians will enter Bosnia in about ten days.

The Standard's Constantinople despatch dated Saturday, the 2nd, says that the Grand Duke Nicholas will probably visit Constantinople on Monday, and it is said when the Treaty of Peace is signed he will move his headquarters to Ferekinai Militar, two miles off Pera.

The Standard's correspondent at Vienna states that the Austrian and British Ambassadors have been instructed to protest if the Russians enter Constantinople.

OTTAWA, March 2.

A cablegram, received to-day from England, stating that 10,000 Canadian troops are to be raised for European service, creates great excitement among the volunteers.

There would be no difficulty in enrolling that number.

The South Bruce Reform Association nominated Mr. Blake for the Commons at next general election.

Allan Gilmour is spoken of to oppose Carrier in this City.
