People you most admire: My parents, if they can put up with me they can handle anything.

Q: What are you studying at PEI?

A: Business administration.

Q: How would you compare PEI to other universities that you have visited?

A: It is easier to meet people here because it is so small.

Q: PEI supposedly has low academic standards would you comment?

A: Well, if I am passing the academic standard must be low.

Q: Do you find that the volleyball team is not as repected as the hockey and basketball teams?

A: Yes, we are not taken very seriously because we don't win as much as the other teams.

Q: Do you have any regrets about playing volleyball?

A: No, because I love the sport, but sometimes I wonder what I am missing out on.

Q: What advice do you have for aspiring young athletes.

A: Dedication, desire and determination, all young athletes should posses those qualities. If they do they will acheive anything in life.

Q: Are you currently dating anyone?

A: I am too young to be dating.

Q: What is your idea of love?

A: When you don't want to look at anyone else.

Q: Are you or have you ever been in love?

A: Once and that was enough for this lifetime.

Q: What is your idea of an ideal relationship?

A: Always having someone there that you can talk to.

Q: Do you find students here put too much emphasis on dating and sex?

A: Yes, too many students confuse love and sex, the two are not the samething.

Q: What is your biggest beef about life on campus.

A: Having you knock on my door at 2:30am.

Q: Don't you think that is more of a thrill than a beef?

A: No comment.

Q: what is one thing you would like everyone to know

Attention!!! The Big Dogs are back!

The Marian Hall Pit Bulls began what promises to be another top-notch season of hockey two weeks ago, with two smashing victories over poor competition. Greg "The Spic-tacular Spicccoli" Campbell, in an unexpected netminding start, backed the Dogs to a 16-4 annihilation of the Goalers. The outstanding scoring machine was fuelled by a horde of young talent, led by David "Duyh!?" Higgins and his roommate, Andrew "Duyh-h!?" Van Wart (for the record, the Pit Bulls really didn't expect much from a team who a) couldn't dress a goaltender, and b) whose namesake is an incestuous Nova Scotia family).

The next team to fall victim to the Crushing Canines were the Pablum Pukes (!!??), who lived up to their name admirably.
This game marked a change of pace for the long-time Pit Bulls' coach; "Diver Don Won" Gunning recorded a shutout in his first start between the posts.
Leading the attack was Kevin "The Rat" Gallant, who scored twice, and Charles "The Rock" Grady, who was playing his first game for the Pit Bulls in almost two seasons. By the time that Brian "Spanky" Langille had sent a rocketing slapshot into the (Yecch!) Pablum Pukes' net, the outcome was hardly in doubt; the Dogs demolished their second opponent by a score of 11-0.

The Hall claimed its third victim on Nov. 16, when they played the Bios. Meeting with substantial competition, the Dogs played steady hockey and, backed by solid play from Cory "The New-fie Bullet" Gregory and Micheal "Goose" Gosse, gave rookie coach

Matthew "The Slinkster" Howland his first win, a 6-2 vic-about you?

A: I am really very shy (this is a serious answer).

Q: What is one thing you would like to change in this world.

A: I would like everybody to love one another as much as they do themselves.

Q: What are your future goals?

A: To graduate and own my own business.

AA: "Nobody loves me; I'm going into my garden and eat worms" tory. Thanks to these three confidence-boosting games, the team feels that they are ready to face the stronger teams in the league (Come get us, Knuckle-heads... if you think you can!).

On another note, the residents of Marian and Bernadine Halls would like to thank all those who ventured out for our annual Halloween House Party. We would especially like to congratulate Scott H. for his irreplaceable entertainment value (residents considered Scott's attempt at turning his mattress into a waterbed particularly humourous), and to thank Tigger for not tiggering.

The house committees of the two halls would also like to extend our thanks to the forty-odd couples who donned their best threads and braved the snow to attend our semi-annual Co-ed, held on the night of Nov. 17th in the courtyard of the Rodd Royalty; Muchos Gracias to the Rodd for having us back again this year, and to the people with Club 17, who provided the entertainment.

Speaking of entertainment, we wish Andrew the best of luck in recovering from his recent bout of amnesia (Yes, Andrew, you really DID go to the Co-ed).

Officer Bob Contest

Yes, you too can have your quote put in Office Bob's bubble.
Each week we will be taking submissions for Officer Bob to be rude, naughty, sexy or just pissed off.

To have your quote put in next weeks issue, just submit it to the Gem Office in the dark clinically clean basement of Main Building, and stuff them into our wonderful new GemSlot. Or you can just send your quote by VAX Mail to account GEM. Just tell us that your submission is for the Officer Bob Contest and we will be glad to add it to the overwhelming pile that we have on file for the current contest.

The deadline for submissions has been extended to our last issue of this semester with the contest winners to be announced in the first issue next year (January 11/90). Please remember that all submissions must have your name and number, or they will not be printed.
