Seat Belts For School Busses Are Suggested

KENSINGTON — The newly-elected board of directors of Kensington Lions Club met Thursday night to discuss summer activities and projects for the club.

President Fenner Stewart chaired the meeting and secretary Ben Reihl recorded the minutes.

Among the many projects discussed was that of installing book racks and seat belts in Kensington Rural Regional High School busses. A committee was appointed to look into the cost and try to have this done before the new school term begins.

The board is also looking into the possibilities of forming a school band and will go ahead with this project if a suitable teacher can be found.

Ways and means of raising funds to defray the cost of these projects were discussed and it was decided to hold dances during the summer in the Kensington Rink every Monday night. The club will also sponsor a wash-a-rama in August.

All members of the board were present for the meeting and plans for a banquet sponsored by the town and lions to honor Christopher Selby were finalized. Departure plans for Sharon Baker's leaving on Monday for Kensington, Maryland, on the youth exchange program were also finalized.

The treasurer gave the annual report, which showed that the club, during the year, had taken in $3,800 and had spent on projects $3,562.

Members stated that this has been the busiest year for the club in the field of service to the community since its formation and augured well for lions of Kensington.

AT FIRE HALL OPENING

Sharon Baker Selected For Visit To Maryland

KENSINGTON — Miss Sharon Baker of Margate was elected as Kensington's high school student taking a three-week tour of the State of Maryland. She leaves on Monday, July 9, on a visit that will long be remembered. Eric Jessome yesterday announced the itinerary that will occupy the visit of Miss Baker to the American state.

On July 11 she will visit the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, lunch with the Governor of Maryland, and visits to various historic sites, houses and St. Anne's Church. On July 12 she will visit the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Monument, Jefferson Memorial, the wax museum, and the Washington Cathedral.

On July 13 the tour will include the Smithsonian Memorial Institute, the natural history building, and the industrial building.

On July 16 she will visit the department of the interior, the federal bureau of investigation and the Islamic centre.

On the 17th she will be shown the National Chamber of Commerce, the Library of Congress, and other points in the U.S. capital.

The following day will include the tomb of the unknown soldier, Arlington National Cemetery, the two-Jima memorial, the Curtis-Lee mansion, and Mt. Vernon.

On Thursday another full day of tours will include visits to the Corcoran Gallery of Arts, the bureau of engraving and printing, and the national archives.

Friday, July 21, is a big day, with a visit to the White House, the home of the president of the United States.

The third week of Sharon's stay in Kensington, Maryland, will see an overnight visit to Culpepper, a visit to Charlottesville, the University of Virginia, and Montecello, a visit to the art gallery, and botanical garden, and her last function will be as an honoured guest at the annual Lions picnic on Saturday, July 28.

She leaves to return home on July 30.

This exchange of students was opened to all grade 10 and 11 students in the Kensington Regional High School, and the selection was made by a panel of teachers and Lions.

Carnival Has Stage Shows

SUMMERSIDE — Three exciting vaudeville acts have been lined up for the Summerside Lobster Carnival it was learned yesterday from Manager Charles Hogan.

The acts, which have performed internationally at many famous exhibitions, night clubs and on major television shows, include Walton and Sina, a high pole act, the novelty comedy of Jay Seiler and Miriam Seabold and the incomparable Mr. Coco and his company of chimpanzees.

The first two acts perform two different routines which will mean that spectators will witness five acts in all.

Mr. Coco and his incredible chimps ride bicycles, do acrobatics and perform amazing feats that keep audience amused and amazed.

Seiler and Seabold provide a rare act of their "insanity" on skis. Their routine is original and humorous and is the only act in the world using circular skis.

Walton and Sina is an exciting and daring high pole balancing act which offers sensational entertainment.

The performers will be seen twice daily, in afternoon and evening appearances.

WOMEN ANGERED

KARACHI Pakistan (Reuter) —Women in Lahore Thursday burned in effigy a National Assembly member who wants to repeal a ban on polygamy. The women then marched in procession to the provincial legislature. The protest was against a bill to repeal last year's family laws ordinance which restricts men to one wife and tightens divorce procedure.

Record Lows Reported

SUMMERSIDE — Record low temperatures were recorded at the Summerside RCAF Station meteorological station this week, which combined with heavy rains to make things miserable for residents and tourists.

The "met" forecasters revealed that more rain has fallen so far this month than for all of July last year. Until yesterday noon 1.72 inches had been recorded compared to 1.30 inches for the whole of July 1961.

On July 3 a new low of 44 degrees was recorded breaking a record set in 1955. On July 4 the thermometer dipped to 47 degrees another record for a ten-year period and the following day a 49 degree reading was noted, which was the lowest temperature for July 5 since 1953.

It was pointed out however, that the "met" section has been keeping weather records other footpath behind the barn, over a fence, leading into the alders. Following this path, they discovered a 30-gallon metal drum and a wooden barrel full of water, with copper tubing partly coiled in the water of the barrel.

Also at this location were two metal tire rims and another wooden cupboard door. Samples were taken of the liquid in the tubing and the metal drum. The liquid in the drum, when later tested, contained ethyl alcohol, sacerin matter, fruit spirits and yeast, the witness said.

When Cpl. Pettitt returned to the house, he asked Bernard to come and see what he had found, to which Bernard answered, "I own only what's inside my fence, and consists of an acre of land, and I'm not going anywhere with you".

DIDN'T OWN LAND

The land on which the alders are located, is not owned by Bernard, it was stated, and the RCMP officers did not know to whom it belonged. On the basis of these facts, Mr. MacNaught objected to the admission as evidence, of any and all articles found on these premises. This motion was overruled by the Chief Justice, who said that their relevance to the case had already been established.

Mr. MacNaught also stated that the accused Bernard could not be linked with the parts of the still because the footpaths did not lead from his property to the woods.

Bernard, when on the witness stand, testified that he did not know of, nor own the barrels, drum or tire rims.

On the motion by Mr. MacNaught that all evidence be dismissed, and the accused granted, Chief Justice Campbell took the matter into consideration, and will reach a decision at a later time.

Still Parts Possession Case Appealed To Supreme Court

SUMMERSIDE — An appeal against conviction on a charge of possession of parts of a still by Boyd Joseph Bernard, Pleasant View, was conducted in Supreme Court before Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell yesterday in Summerside.

Bernard was convicted on the charge earlier by Magistrate W. Chester S. MacDonald and fined $100 or 30 days. He is represented by J. Watson MacNaught, QC.

The case for the Crown was conducted by William Reddin, Charlottetown for the excise department.

Giving evidence were Cpl. Ronald C. Pettitt and Cnst. William E. Stephens of the Alberton detachment RCMP, and also the accused.

Cpl. Pettitt described how he, along with Constables Stephens and Currie, had investigated Bernard's property Sept. 4, 1961.

Cpl. Pettitt told of entering the Bernard home just as Mrs. Bernard was flushing a liquid out of the kitchen sink. Cnst. Stephens went over and put his hand over the drain hole to retain the liquid. A sample was taken of this, and when later tested, contained ethyl alcohol, soap and yeast.

The RCMP officers searched an outhouse near the house and found a pot burner stove, two metal tire rims, a tire pump and a wooden cupboard door. At the rear of the outhouse they discovered a path leading into a clump of alders. Following this path, they came upon a barrel of rapidly fermenting liquid that smelled like mash.

After taking a sample of the liquid, the officers destroyed the barrel. The sample later was tested to contain ethyl alcohol, yeast, sacerin matter and fruit spirits, he stated.

FOUND PATH

The RCMP searched the barn and then discovered an-

Traffic Light Violations Cut So Magistrate Reduces Fine

Commenting on the decrease in the number of motorists committing violations at intersections controlled by traffic lights, Magistrate A.J. Haslam said, "I am pleased to see such an improvement in this situation, and as long as it continues, violators will be dealt with more leniently."

Suiting his words to the action, on the charge of failing to stop for a flashing red traffic light, the magistrate yesterday fined an accused $5 and costs or two days in jail. This penalty represents a 50 per cent cut on the fine that the magistrate had been handing out previously.

A similar penalty was handed out to another accused for failing to stop at a "stop" sign.

A lone drunk and incapable, who was remanded to custody a week ago, was fined $10 and costs or five days in jail. Explaining the reasons for giving the remand, the magistrate told the accused that it was the intention of the court to assist him to get himself "straightened away, and possibly help him to get off liquor.

881 Carloads Are Shipped

Potato shipments from the province in June amounted to 881 carloads — 879 carloads of table stock and two carloads of seed potatoes, Agriculture Minister Andrew MacRae said yesterday.

Mr. MacRae said the figures are about twice as high as normal June shipments from the province in past years.

The figure includes all potatoes to leave the province by truck, rail and water.

Organ-Playing Bid Is Failure

SYDNEY (CP)—Larry Hampson's bid for a world record for continuous organ playing ended in city hospital Friday.

The 25-year-old Hamilton, Ont., native collapsed after 66 hours of continuous playing at a shopping centre here.

Hampson said he was trying to smash a record of 72 hours established in Hamilton a few years ago by Tiny Boutillier.

Hampson played through three nights on a rain-soaked outdoor stage.

Committee Is Making Plans For Provincial Flower Show

SUMMERSIDE — All the judges of last year's provincial flower show will take on the task again this year, it was announced at the committee's meeting held recently at the home of Miss Wanda Wyatt. Dr. Henry Moyse presided.

This year's show will be held at the Canadian Legion Home, Aug. 21 and 22, and it is expected last year's records for exhibits, exhibitors and attendance will be broken.

Plans are being made to show the table decorations to greater advantage and to provide additional space for the huge displays of gladioli and dahlias.

The judges will again be: Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Schurman, Fredericton, N.B., gladioli; Gordon Warren and David Schurman, both of Charlottetown, dahlias; Mrs. W.B. Creed, Highfield, mixed flowers and Miss Ida MacKay, Mount Stewart, african violets.

This year the abbreviated fashion show will be held in the evening of Aug. 21 only and there will be no showing on the second day.

The following committees were set up to handle the details: tables, V. Howatt, Owen Kelly and Harold Magee; prize list, Miss Wyatt, Mrs. J. Holder and Mrs. L. Rogers; entries and points, Mrs. H. Horton; classification, Dr. Moyse, Mrs. Horton and Mr. Kelly; entertainment, Mrs. L. G. Lewis; ribbons and entry cards, Miss Wyatt; publicity, Mrs. C. D. Ives and Mr. Kelly.

The next meeting will be held during the first week of August.

Kensington Lions Plan Itinerary For Guest

KENSINGTON—At an executive meeting on Tuesday night, the Kensington Lions discussed final plans for the youth exchange program being undertaken by the club. Miss Sharon Baker will leave for Kensington, Maryland on July 9, and will be entertained by the Montreal and New York Lions on the way to Washington for a three-week visit.

Christopher Selby arrives on the 6.20 flight from Moncton on July 9 after having been taken on a tour of Moncton by the Moncton Lions Club. He will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Jessome for his first week on P.E.I.

On Tuesday, July 10, Christopher will be guest of the Mayor, Town Council, and Lions board of directors at a dinner meeting. On Wednesday, July 11 he will be guest of the department of fisheries, and will visit fish hatcheries in Cardigan and Eastpack Fisheries, Souris and enjoy some deep sea fishing.

On Thursday he will visit Charlottetown's City Hall at 10 a.m. The Guardian-Patriot at 10.45 a.m., have lunch with Premier Shaw, visit with the Executive Council at 2.30 p.m., and at 3:30 call at Government House.

The schedule for Friday lists a visit to Strathgartney Park, a tour of Canada Packer's plant at Charlottetown and dinner as a guest of Canada Packers. On Saturday the Maryland student will visit the Experimental Fox Fur Farm at Summerside, as well as schools and public libraries and tour Seaman Bros. frosted food plant at 2 p.m.

On Monday, July 16, escorted by Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Bealrsto, Christopher will tour the western part of the Island after being received by the Mayor of Summerside. Highlights of this tour will be the fisheries biological station, at Ellerslie; MacAusland's Woolen Mills at Bloomfield, Leavitt's woodworking plant, and Alberton Industries, both at Alberton. On Wednesday he will visit with the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, and be a guest of Inspector A. S. McNeil for lunch.

Thursday and Friday will be occupied with first hand experience on a typical Island mixed farm when he will be a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy MacEwen at Stanley Bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davison will become his hosts at their summer home at Darnley on Monday, when he will also visit the Experimental Farm at Charlottetown.

On Tuesday Mr. Selby will be taken on a tour of the National Park, and on Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Fenner Stewart will be his escorts on a tour of the eastern part of the Island, which will include visits at the Central Creameries, the museum at Montague, and Moore's wildlife sanctuary. On Thursday he visits the Canadian rock salt mine at Pugwash, N.S., crossing at Wood Islands and returning via Borden, touring the ferries.

The balance of the third week is left to the student's wish.

The itinerary also includes horse racing and a visit to the Lobster Carnival at Summerside.

Both Sharon and Christopher leave to return to their respective homes on July 30.

S'side Parade To Have 24 Floats, Six Bands

SUMMERSIDE — The parade committee of the Summerside Lobster Carnival and Livestock Exhibition met Wednesday evening under the chairmanship of Charles Linkletter.

It was reported that 24 floats is definite for the opening day parade with a good possibility of 16 more.

Invitations are going out to the parish of Egmont Bay requesting they include their 150th anniversary floats in the carnival parade.

There will be ten clowns in the parade adding to the merriment of the gala affair which attracts several thousand spectators. Marching units include RCAF personnel, navy, color party and legion members.

Highlight of the parade will be the new Summerside majorette corps of about a dozen lovely local girls.

Bands confirmed to date are Royal Canadian Artillery band of Halifax, Summerside RCAF regimental band, Salvation Army band, Royal Highland Pipe and drum band from Cavendish, Celtic highland band, New Glasgow, and Queen Charlotte high school band.

The parade marshal is Gordon Simmons and the units will be divided into three sections, with Keith Lapp, Charles Ballem and Eric Sheen as marshals of the different sections.

Civil Service Pay Raise Said Being Negotiated

SUMMERSIDE — "The delay in implementing civil service salary increases is caused by the fact that negotiations are still in progress," Robert W. Betton, Summerside, eastern vice-president of the National Defence Employees Association, said yesterday.

Mr. Betton was commenting on a statement published yesterday that quoted J. Calvin Best of Ottawa, president of the Civil Service Association of Canada, as expressing grave concern over extended delay in implementing pay increases for federal employees.

Mr. Betton said that "Mr. Best's statement to the press regarding the civil service raise, like his membership figures, is misleading." He said Mr. Best as president of the Civil Service Association was present at a June 27 meeting with the minister of finance, "and is well aware of this."

Referring to the participation of his own group, Mr. Betton said that Mr. Best is not the lone champion of the civil service. He said the Civil Service Association of Canada, the Civil Service Federation of Canada, and the Professional Institute of the Public Service of Canada, together with a number of representatives of those associations, met together with the minister of finance on the matter of salary review.

He said the purpose of the meeting was to review the comments which had been presented to the treasury board by the three associations following the consultations which had taken place with representatives of the finance minister. After discussion of these matters the minister undertook to report to the treasury board at its next meeting on June 28, he said.

The minister expressed hope that the board would be able to reach a decision in the "reasonably near future."

Weather Delays Premier's Party

Premier Walter R. Shaw was expected to return home at a late hour last night after being delayed several days by bad weather at Goose Bay, Labrador, where he visited the American and Canadian air force base.

He is accompanied by his executive assistant, Wendall MacKay, and provincial marketing director Reid Sangster.

On July 25 and 26, the premier will attend a conference of Atlantic Provinces' premiers in St. John's, Nfld. Early next month he leaves for Victoria, B.C., where he will attend the annual conference of Canadian premiers from Aug. 4 to Aug. 8.
