TALMAGE'S SERMON Thirty Minutes in Heaven.

There was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.—REV. viii., 1.

The busiest part in the universe is heaven. It is the centre from which all good influences start; it is the goal at which all good results arrive.

From all we can learn it is the only time heaven ever stopped. It does not stop as other cities for the night, for there is no night there.

My subject also impresses me with the immortality of a half-hour. That half-hour mentioned in my text is more widely known than any other period in the calendar of Heaven.

Not only are all the triumphs of the past to be commemorated, but all the triumphs to come. Not only what we know of God, but what we will know of Him after everlasting study of the Deific.

And first of all we may learn that God and all heaven then honored silence. The longest and widest dominion that ever existed is that over which Stillness was Queen.

But how will you spend the first half-hour of your heavenly citizenship after you have gone in to stay? After your prostration before the throne in worship of Him who made it possible for you to get there at all, I think the rest of your first half-hour in heaven will be passed in receiving your reward if you have been faithful.

Learn also from my text that heaven must be an eventful and active place, from the fact that it could afford only thirty minutes of silence.

on earth and in heaven that seemed to demand a whole day or whole week or whole year for celestial consideration.

Thy saints in all this glorious war Shall conquer though they die. They see the triumph from afar, And seize it with their eye.

Well-written advertisements are more than fifty cent new. Assurances can be made and sustained that there are cases on record where there has been more real brain matter expended on the making up of an advertisement than in the construction of many pages which rest under the dignified name, literature.—(South Beach Ind.) Tribune.

Never fix the price of anything so low that you can't afford to advertise it. Circulars hit only once, if at all, and are then consigned to the waste-basket.

Success means thought. It costs no more to publish good matter than poor. Prepare your matter carefully; make it attractive; don't crowd; let your catch lines be bold.

Great fortunes made by advertising Napoleons are often referred to. But who has counted the moderate fortunes, the comfortable competencies, and the steady sources of income that are to be credited to newspaper advertising?

Geo. Carter & Co., SEEDSMEN, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

SEASON 1892. WE are now busy preparing for our Thirteenth Season in the Seed Business.

Our large trade with all parts of P. E. Island, supplying the largest Farmers and Market Gardeners, has given us an intimate knowledge of the best varieties; while, what is of equal importance, we have the knowledge of the countries which produce these varieties, and the growers who may be depended upon to produce them in greater perfection.

Our Seed Catalogue for 1892, will be ready about the 1st of March. Send name and address, and we will mail a copy free of charge.

No need of sending money away to foreign firms. We can supply Seeds equally good, much better adapted to our climate, fully as low, or lower in prices and without any risk of delay or loss.
