Boston Markets.

Boston, June 28.

POTATOES.—Receipts for past six days 64,- 500 bush; previous six days 33,000 bush.
About 5,000 bbls. of new southern were received on Monday and were placed on the market at $2.00 @ $3.00 per bbl. as to grade, a large share of them at $2.00 @ $2.50. Extra stock at $3.00 met with a ready sale, but Island Chennagoes sell at 40 to 50 cents per bushel. Yesterday sales of extra stock were made at $3.00 @ $3.25 and some at $3.50 and with prospect of light receipts for the next few days, the market has a firm tone at the close.

Old stock is cleaning up slowly and at low prices. Best hard sound stock is slow at 50c. and inferior lots have to go for what they will bring.

Eggs.—Receipts for the week 11 boxes, 28 bbls., 10,374 cases; last week 11 boxes, 26 bbls., 9,704 cases. The market is not materially changed from a week ago. Supplies are moderate and there is a steady demand for choice fresh stock of all kinds. Extra eastern are still scarce. P. E. I., N. S. and N. B. firsts keep well sold up at 17c and some sales at 17½c. Far western sell at 16½ @ 17c as to quality.

FISH.—No special change to report this week. Codfish in moderate supply and steady.
Box herring firm. Pickled herring very dull and hard to place. Mackerel in fair supply and selling well at about $12.00 for both rimmed and plain No 3s.

The Pope on Liberty.

The Pope's Encyclical on Liberty says:
"Humane liberty, in individuals as in societies or Governments, implies the necessity of conforming to a supreme rational law, which emanates from God. The Church is not an enemy of honest, legitimate liberty, but is an enemy of license. It condemns false liberalism or nationalism, which declares that there is no supreme law, and that everyone must form his own faith and religion. Such doctrine tends to destroy the consciousness, the difference between good and evil, between justice and injustice; it makes force the sole basis for society. The Church is not an enemy of democracy, and rejects no form of government."

The Manufacturers' Life and Acci- dent Insurance.

Mr. J. B. Paton, general agent, intends spending the first week of July in Charlot-tewtown. The numerous parties applying for local agencies on the Island, and parties desiring either Life or Accident insurance on a liberal basis and easy terms, will do well to call on him at the Hotel Davies, or address him there.
These companies, both Life and Accident, have met with most unprecedented success everywhere, taking the lead of all others from Vancouver to Halifax.

Clippings.

Championship eating matches ought to be for large steaks.

Lightning can be seen by reflection a distance of 200 miles.

The heat is causing an unusual number of deaths in New York.

Alaska is rapidly becoming civilized.
It now has a beer brewery.

Emperor William and the Czar are to meet in Russian territory in autumn.

Emperor Frederick died within thirty feet of where he was born, and at exactly the same hour of the day.

A Boston man bet $50 that a barrel filled with gas would weigh more than an empty one. His eyes opened very wide when he saw that it did not weigh as much.

Professor of Class in Journalism—"What is the difference between an editorial and an editorial paragraph?" Student—"An editorial is of the same nature as an editorial paragraph, but is larger and doesn't have as much to say."

By the death of Sir Robert Loder a large fortune even in these days of millionaires is distributed. His landed estates and personal property amounted to over two and a half million pounds sterling, this fortune being divided amongst a large family. The eldest son received the Whittlebury estate in Northamptonshire, valued at $340,000., and a legacy of £250,000; another son gets a handsome estate in Sussex and £175,000; seven other children receive sums ranging from £200,000 to £300,000 each and the widow, Lady Loder, in addition to a handsome marriage settlement, is given an annuity of £3,500 and a house in London.
Sir Robert Loder left also £35,000 in charitable bequests. The whole fortune is said to be one of the largest made in England in the early days of this half of the century.

A year or two ago there was founded in Paris a National League against atheism.
Many of the foremost men of France in politics and literature headed the movement, not to advance their particular religious persuasion, not even to maintain Christianity, but to redeem their country from the reproach and danger of refusing to acknowledge the Deity. Roman Catholics, Protestants and Jews were driven to act in common to stem the destructive tide of godless materialism. They have now established a journal, La Paix Sociale, as their organ to aid in their conflict with the evils of atheism. When Republicans, Communists and Ronges on both sides of the Atlantic are glorifying the memory of the men who adopted as their divinity a Godless Reason and suppressed other worship, it is well that all who reverence the Deity should band themselves against the modern successors of the atheists of the great Revolution. The state of turmoil and anarchy to which they have reduced France shows in a striking manner that godless men cannot even guide their human, material affairs with safety.
