

THE DAILY EXAMINER.

JULY 17, 1895.

THIRD DISTRICT OF PRINCE.

The Guardian opposes the election of Mr. Gallant in the Third District of Prince County. In view of the strong protest of influential Liberals, which it publishes in another column, it could not for very shame do otherwise. The Peters Government has treated with contempt the respectful demands of the temperance men of Prince County, and it has, for the sake of the rum vote of Summerside, broken faith with the temperance men of the Province, and forfeited forever their respect, their confidence and their support; while its administration of the Canada Temperance Act is disgraceful to the country. The Grand Division at its latest meeting passed the following resolution: "The Local Government, having appointed Mr. C. B. Saunders vendor in Summerside, against the protests of this Grand Division, the Prince County Temperance League, the petition of two hundred persons and temperance workers in all parts of the Province, we pledge ourselves to oppose by our votes and influence every member and supporter of the Government who come before us in election."

In view of all this, the Guardian is compelled to oppose the election of the Government candidate in the Third District of Prince County—and it does so. We shall now see whether or not those of the temperance men of the District who voted for the Peters candidate in the former contests will vote against him in the contest that is to take place on the 25th inst., or whether additional proof will be shown that in a question between temperance and party the "temperance grit" invariably votes with his party.

Apart from the temperance question, there is ample cause for a refusal to vote for the Government candidate in the Third District of Prince County. Extravagant and corrupt expenditures instead of the care and economy that was promised; direct taxation, notwithstanding the Premier's promise not to do without consulting the people; autocratic government, in the place of a liberal administration—these and a hundred other causes must impel all who desire political honesty, economy, truth and true liberalism to vote against the Government candidate in the Third District of Prince County.

NOTES AND COMMENTS. —What a pity Mr. L. H. Davies was not present to vote on the McCarthy Resolution!

—We are indebted to Miss Elsie McKinnon, one of the recent graduating class in the Philadelphia Hospital Training School for Nurses for a copy of "Ladies' Every Saturday," containing a long illustrated account of the Hospital. "Ladies' Every Saturday" is a very interesting periodical for ladies.

—The House of Commons committee on Agriculture and Colonization has made no recommendation concerning the cheese branding question, the committee simply reporting the evidence taken with respect to the question. The final returns of the replies received from these factories of Ontario and Quebec, in response to a circular from the committee asking for their opinion on the branding question, show that 673 are in favor of branding, 64 against and 41 doubtful.

—The despatch obtained under new and improved tables is appreciated abroad as well as at home. Thus the Rev. B. Chappelle writes from Aoyama, Tokyo, Japan, June 17th, to say:

"The Weekly Examiner of May 24th was in my hand before breakfast to-day June 17th. As it first went to my brother who sent it to me, it must have made excellent time. The C. P. R. has brought Charlottetown and Tokyo quite near to each other."

—We announce to-day the death of Mrs. Lord, relict of the Hon. W. W. Lord, in her ninety-sixth year. Her good health continued until about two or three weeks ago. She enjoyed, even in her ripe old age, the society of many friends. A lady of the olden time, we shall not see her like again. In recent years she resided with Antenna Lord, Esq., of Brighton, whence her remains will be taken on Friday by steamer to Cranpud, thence to the residence of Warren Lord, Esq., Tryon. The interment will take place on Saturday morning.

—The Patriotic Ottawa special reports that Mr. Laurier "fully explained his policy and his Party's policy" respecting the Manitoba Schools. But the Patriotic does not say what that policy is! Mr. Tarte, too, is reported as having said "that were the Liberals in power they would settle the school question in a way satisfactory to every one in twenty-four hours!" What meanings these "Liberals" are! Laurier, McCarthy and Tarte, and all whom they represent, are being satisfied if the Liberals were in power. But the honest and sincere men of Canada will desire to know how they are going to satisfy the demands of justice in the premises before letting them in.

—Commenting upon the Manitoba School question in its latest aspects, the Week says: "It is one of immense import in Canadian national affairs, and we appreciate the extraordinary difficulties which surround the Cabinet in dealing with it. To make political capital out of these differences is a very small and mean piece of business, and will only react with disastrous results on the heads of those who delight in it. In its race and so-called religious differences, Canada has a problem to solve which will take the energies of her ablest men to the utter extent." In the present case neither the Conservatives nor the Liberals could devise a scheme which would meet with the cordial support of the Parties' respective followers. It is not a question for a Party to settle. Neither Party is a unit on the question.

—In the course of a recent address President Schurman of Cornell was very emphatic in saying that men's ideals determine their lives. Imagine noble things for yourself said he, and you will achieve them, and the achievement will enable you. Vaunting ambition is but splendid selfishness if not consecrated by high and noble ends. The educated man who, even in thought, puts his possessions above character, is recreant to his trust, and forfeits his divine heritage for a mere of pottage. President Schurman, showed how abundant were the opportunities of realizing the ideal even in the routine of

OBITUARY.

The Late Mrs. A. McLeod, Point Prim.

That death is no respecter of persons is sorely testified by the number of sad bereavements which the mortality of this life occasions among the people of our community within the past year. Only a few months previously was published an account of the decease of our esteemed and honored friend, the late Captain Alexander Macleod, a man of rare intelligence and Christian qualities, and now we must record the death of his bereaved wife, Margaret, daughter of Captain D. N. Murchison, which occurred May 12th, after a protracted illness. Mrs. McLeod had the characteristics of a true Christian, and it seems scarcely necessary to rehearse her many and brilliant virtues, as they are well-known to all who knew her. She left three young children already bereaved of their father, to mourn the loss of a wise mother. We wonder that the mysterious act of Providence in removing from the family one who was so much needed, and we may say that the bereaved ones are to be pitied. But when we consider the actuating motive of the loving Being who controls all these events we must express the sentiments—

"How we shall miss her, the beautiful dead,
What shall take the place of the precious one
But God knoweth best.
We know He watches the sparrows that fall,
Hears the sad cry of the griefed hearts that call,
Friends, father, children, He loveth them all—
We can trust for the rest."

For she died realizing the efficacy of the perfect instrument of our Almighty Redeemer, and rejoicing in the sure hope of a blessed immortality.

HOW CANADA IS GOVERNED.

Dr. Bourinot's latest book "How Canada is Governed," (The Copp, Clark, Toronto) ought to be most useful for all classes of the people of the Dominion since they will find within the compass of three hundred pages—apart from the text of the British North America Act—a most intelligible and succinct account of the origin, nature and operation of the institutions of government in this country. The book affords an excellent illustration of lucidity of style and condensed narrative which might well be studied by other writers in these busy times. It is a book which should be in the hands of every citizen who wishes to inform himself on executive, legislative and judicial authorities which govern this Dominion in accordance with English constitutional principles. No other work so well meets the requirements of students in our academies and colleges, and we should like to see it adopted as a text book in every province of Canada. Not only is the book an excellent specimen of typography, but the illustrations are also exceedingly well executed. The engravings will give people abroad an accurate idea of the architectural skill which has been shown in many of our parliament buildings, school houses and municipal edifices. Canadians will also see the signatures of many famous men in their own hands, as they are printed in the original nature of the institutions of government in this country.

The first meeting of the session (which was a social one) was held Saturday evening, a cordial welcome was extended to all visiting members. A prayer meeting was held Sunday morning at six o'clock, led by Bro. E. Norton of Brudenell, and considering the early hour was well attended. At 10 o'clock a good social meeting was held, Bro. Jeffrey, of Summerside, presiding. At 11 P. M. W. H. Harding of West Gore, N. S., preached the annual sermon, which was an eloquent and inspiring discourse, and which the Lord's Supper was administered to the waiting congregation. A grand social meeting was held at 3 p. m., Bro. Thomas Beattie of Summerside, presiding. At 6 o'clock Bro. J. W. Gates of N. S., conducted another interesting social meeting. At 7 o'clock Bro. R. W. Stevenson of Montague, formerly of Syracuse, N. Y., delivered an eloquent and inspiring discourse.

At 9 a. m., the Association met, Bro. T. Beattie of Summerside, was elected moderator for the ensuing year. Bro. Beattie then took the chair and conducted a short social meeting, after which the Rev. Mr. Sullivan delivered the greeting of the Evangelical Churches of the city to the Association. The address will long be remembered for the good feeling and Christian fellowship which was manifested in the waiting congregation.

Bro. W. H. Harding in behalf of the Association made a suitable reply. Rev. P. Noble, of Chicago, was then introduced to the meeting by Bro. M. Stevenson, and he delivered a telling address exhorted the members to stand fast in the Lord.

At 1.30 the regular business meeting of the Association was held, when encouraging reports were received from the different churches on the Island. Brother Jeffrey of Summerside, was re-elected secretary. It was then discussed and decided on that a committee be appointed to consist of one member from the different churches of the Island to secure an evangelist for the Island. A communication was received from the W. C. T. U., the import of which was, would the Association be in favor of scientific temperance instruction in the public schools. It was unanimously decided that the Association were in favor of this movement.

Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Brother R. W. Stevenson again delivered an interesting and profitable discourse, which was even better than the previous one. The meetings were all well attended, especially Sunday morning and evening, at which services the houses were crowded. The meetings have all been interesting and instructive, and the new zeal and Christian fellowship they have awakened in the hearts of the members of the different churches who were present, will be long felt and remembered.

MEDICAL SOCIETY MEETING.

The annual meeting of the P. E. Island Medical Society is being held in A. O. H. Hall, McEachern's building to-day. Dr. Alex. McNeill, third vice president is presiding in the absence of the president, Dr. McLaren of Brudenell.

The following members are present: Drs. R. Johnson, McLeod, Taylor, Conroy, McNeill, (Stanley) Beer, Warburton, McPhail, McLaren, (Belle Creek) H. D. Johnson, Kelly, McKay, Martin (Montague) Brigg, McInosh and secretary Dr. Jenkins.

The report of the measurer of the Medical Council was read and adopted. The report of the registrar was also read and adopted. The estimates for the year 1895-96 were passed. The afternoon session began at half-past two.

RECENT DISCOVERIES IN EGYPT.

At the Midwinter Meeting of the Victoria Institute in London, England, a few days ago Major-General Tulloch, C. B., C. M. G., gave an account of that part of Egypt in which he lately carried out a British War Office survey with a view to the defence of the Suez Canal. It disturbed them; the land surveyed included that portion of Egypt through which the route of the Exodus was said to have taken place. In describing the present state of the land, he pointed out that the conformation of the land had somewhat altered since that period, 3,400 years ago, but what especially came under his notice was the action of a gale of wind which had swept across the land in the past century and actually carried the waters of the lake beyond the horizon, leaving all sailing vessels resting on the bed of the lake. So unique an event was not recorded by any modern traveller, though in his paper on the "Route of the Exodus," read before the Victoria Institute four years ago, Mr Naville had pointed out that it was not an impossibility for history to record that the wind had in the past century produced such a phenomenon at the Geneva end of the lake of that name.

An interesting discussion ensued, and it was pointed out that, wherever the passage of the Israelites took place, the possibility of water being influenced by wind to so great an extent was demonstrated. As regards the exact spot at which the crossing took place, General Tulloch as a military tactician considered the various points to be considered, and all these supported the opinion Dr Naville had given in his address published in the "Transactions" of the Institute. In speaking of that portion of the Canal between the Bitter Lakes and Suez, General Tulloch pointed out that the old bed of the Red Sea was only four feet to be filled by sea level. Referring to the battle of Tel-el-Kehir, he said that he expected that digging there would reveal the old extension of the Nile in a northward direction, for he found the sand covering to a depth of 12 and 14 feet the most beautiful soil for cultivation, once probably pointed out by General Tulloch's opinion that the Red Sea at one time extended into the Mediterranean was confirmed by the geological survey he had made.

After the discussion, Captain Petrie, the Hon. Secretary, read two interesting communications in regard to the intercourse of nations in early times, showing that there was not only evidence of the existence of a land trade 3,000 years ago from India westward, but also of trade by sea between the ports of India and Ceylon and Alexandria, by way of the Red Sea. During the meeting a vase with an archaic Chinese inscription was exhibited. It had been found with a mummy in a tomb discovered by Dr. Reichardt, an archaeologist long resident in Egypt, and three archeological friends.

A dress that will look well, and at the same time defy rain or dust, would seem to be the ideal after which ladies have been longing. These merits all meet in Cravenettes. Waterproof, but thoroughly porous, thoroughly stylish, while defying the deluge from above or the dust from beneath; suitable either for dress, or cloak or wrap. Cravenette needs a need long f. It. A tornado swept over Cherry Hill, N. J., on Sunday. Twenty-five houses were destroyed, and three persons were killed and several injured. SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

PARLIAMENT OF CANADA.

The Manitoba School Question.

Dalton McCarthy Moves His Non-Confidence Resolution.

OTTAWA, July 17. On the motion to go into supply, Mr. McCarthy rose and said he proposed to ask the House to discuss the School Question on its merits. He commended the action of the Conservative party on the New Brunswick and P. E. Island School Acts. On the Manitoba School Question, however, they had acted unwisely, and had landed themselves and the country into a condition of affairs which might lead to the disintegration of the Government, and possibly of parties on both sides. Mr. McCarthy made a three-hour speech, during which he argued that separate schools were not guaranteed to the minority as one of the conditions of union with the Dominion. He moved in amendment: "This House has heard with regret the statement recently made, defining the policy of the Government respecting the Manitoba School Question, and is unwilling by silence to allow it to be assumed that at a session to be held in January next, any more than at the present session, it is prepared to pass a law to restore a system of separate schools in Manitoba on the lines of the remedial order of the 21st March last."

Sir Charles Tupper made a brilliant reply to Mr. McCarthy. The debate was adjourned to be concluded to-day.
