Too Bad.

We have a little blue eyed girl,
With curly flaxen hair;
She often loves to run about,
With dimpled feet all bare.

One day as round the room she ran,
She hurt her great right toe;
Of course she cried, and who would not?
For it must have hurt, you know.

But when she saw the blood run down,
She raised a dreadful shout,
"Oh, mamma! hurry, get a rag!
My brains are coming out!"

Household Hints.

Fried Trout.—Clean and wash the fish and dry them on a towel; roll lightly in flour, and fry to a delicate brown in hot butter, or butter and lard, or lard alone. Send to table as free from grease as possible.

Soft Gingerbread.—Two cups molasses; sift in one heaping teaspoon soda; one teaspoon ginger; one teaspoon cinnamon; one teaspoon essence of lemon and a little nutmeg grated; one cup boiling water; lastly three and one-half cups sifted flour. Bake in flat tins or in patties.

Canned Corn Pudding.—One can of corn, drained, three eggs, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, one tablespoonful of sugar; a little salt; two cupfuls of milk; one tablespoonful of corn starch, wet up in the milk. Beat eggs, sugar and butter together; then add the corn. Salt the milk and dissolve the corn starch well in it, and pour by degrees, upon the rest, mixing well. Bake in a greased bake-dish three-quarters of an hour. Keep covered until nearly done; then, brown.

Baked Salmon Trout.—Have your trout nicely cleaned, but it must be handled very gently, and lay in a dripping-pan with water and butter just sufficient to keep it from scorching. Bake slowly, basting frequently. When nearly done prepare a sauce in the following manner: Have ready a half-pint of cream, a gill of milk, two tablespoons of melted butter, the beaten white of an egg and some chopped parsley; put these ingredients into a farina kettle and let it get boiling hot. Serve the fish in a hot dish with a few spoonfuls of the sauce over it.

Boiled Chicken and Rice.—Clean, wash, and stuff a full-grown fowl as for roasting, and sew it up snugly in a piece of clean white mosquito netting. Have ready a pot of scalding—not quite boiling—water, put in the fowl, and bring to a steady, but not violent, boil. Allow in cooking twelve minutes to the pound. Half an hour before it is done, take out a cup of the liquor, skim and strain it into a tin pail, and season well. When done stir in with a fork a teaspoonful of butter and the same of minced parsley. Beat one egg light, and stir in the same way, cook one minute, and take from the fire. When the chicken is done, undo the netting, make a flattened mound of the rice, and lay the fowl on top. Serve hot, Send around a boat of drawn butter with it, using for it another cupful of liquor strained, a teaspoonful of butter, a tablespoonful of flour, salt, pepper, and, if possible a beaten egg. Boil two minutes. An old fowl may be made tender by putting it on in cold water, and cooking very slowly fifteen minutes to the pound. Of course the broth will be used for next day's soup.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send self-addressed envelope to REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York.

MRS. SOPHIA POTTER'S

Bone Rheumatic Liniment

IT is a fact worth knowing that Mrs. Sophia Potter's Bone Rheumatic Liniment cannot be excelled for removing pain and soreness. It is no worthless trash, as some may suppose, simply because they have been imposed upon by others but is positively the "King of Pain." Sore throat cannot stand before its power.

All we ask is a trial that you may be convinced of the truth of our statement. Our experience is that one bottle tried also sells many more.
