Mr. and Mrs. James E. Macdonald of New Bedouque, spent Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gillis Charlottetown. The occasion being Mr. Macdonald's 84th birthday anniversary. He is still active and is one of those fortunate individuals who seem to have a perennial grip on youth. He is directly descended from the Macdonalds who espoused the ill-fated Jacobite rebellion of 1745. After Culloden, and the escape of Bonnie Prince Charlie, his adherents were personae non grata. Most of them emigrated to the American colonies, where they flourished to a far greater degree than if they had peevsed the even tenor of their way in the Scottish highlands.
