common servant to the public offices in the Colonial Building—ran away last week, and swindled many people out of considerable sums of money—some of the amounts were loans, but the principal part credits in the stores of our merchants. We understand that nearly all the Deputies in the Colonial Building were victimised by the fellow, and that he had been for a considerable time preparing for his swindling operations. He was runner to the Building for the party in power—swore by them—would fall down and worship them—and abused those who formerly befriended him. Those who employed him as a runner are not much entitled to our sympathy for his last run; but we hope people abroad will be on their guard against him. Here, he was a smooth, doublefaced villain, and only wanted D'Arcy's resources to be as great a robber.

TENANT DELEGATION MEETING.

The above Meeting, announced in the Island papers for some time past, took place according to appointment. The Delegates appear to have decided upon divesting, as far as they can, their movement of a party character, and did not formally invite any members of the Legislature to join them in their conference. Gentlemen engaged in public affairs were got, on that account, at the meeting. What the Delegates said or did we have no means of knowing; but we presume we may get some knowledge of their proceedings by and bye, through the columns of their organ, Ross's Weekly. While we question the prudence of an organization, devoted to the settlement of a great public question, observing so much secrecy, we are glad to be relieved from the labour and responsibility that might devolve upon us by connection with it. Whether the combined Delegation can ever hope to accomplish their object—the settlement of the Land Question—on terms favourable to the tenantry, is not for us to judge at this early stage of their labours; but certainly we should like to see, before indulging any hopes ourselves, abler, wiser and more experienced men than have yet been noticed in their ranks. Their preliminary movements are not propitious and suggestive of success; and their wisdom is not very conspicuous in their attempting to settle a purely political question in secret conclave, independent of political parties. When the country becomes elder, wealthier, better educated, and more extensively populated, we may hope to find the materials for the formation of a third party, that will be able to set aside either or both of the political combinations now known in this little world of ours. But we must say, with all respect, that a glance at the personnel of the Delegation Conference did not promise a speedy arrival of that time.

LATER FROM ENGLAND.

ARRIVAL OF THE PERSIA AT NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 18.

The Steamship Persia, from Liverpool 7th, via Queenstown 8th, arrived here at 5 p.m.

The Asia arrived at Queenstown on the 8th.

Mr. Forster gave notice to the House of Commons that on the 13th Mr. T. Baring would call attention to the fact that an armed steamer is now in Liverpool, which having been originally equipped and manned from British ports, has preyed upon the commerce of a friendly nation, and has never been in a port of the belligerent under whose flag she sails, and will ask the Premier whether he thinks the admission of such vessel to British harbors is consistent with international obligations, professions of neutrality and the preservation of British interests.

Mr. Layard, in reply to an enquiry, said the case of the bark Science, seized at Matamoras, was proceeding regularly before a Federal prize court.

Mr. Lindsay gave notice that on the 3rd day of June he would call attention to the American war.

Lord Palmerston continues unable to attend to his Parliamentary duties, but was progressing favorably.

It is announced that Garibaldi would decline the subscriptions to purchase him an estate. The money is to be returned.

The Conference is generally regarded hopeless, and stood adjourned to May 5.

The Times and Daily News both argue that the Conference is unlikely to accomplish anything and may as well be abandoned, as Denmark refuses the armistice on condition that she raise the blockade.

The Daily News severly denounces as ill-timed the courtesies which Prince Alfred was receiving at the Austrian Court, and Baron Von Buezt at Osborne.

The British frigate Aurora, accompanied by the Black Eagle, has gone to the North Sea to watch the Austrian squadron. It is asserted that the whole British Channel squadron will follow, if the Austrians attempt to enter the Baltic.

The Morning Post, in threatening terms, tells the Germans that the arm of England has the passage to the Baltic, and her iron-clads are ready to save Copenhagen and the islands. It shows that England can act without France.

It is said that Austria has given assurances that her squadron is only intended to prevent the blockade of the Elbe and the Weser.

The Star asserts that the majority of the Cabinet are in favor of a war policy, but that the attempt to enforce that policy will split the Cabinet.

War movements are unimportant. It is asserted that the Austrians intend crossing to Fume.

The Bank of France has raised its rate of discount to seven per cent., and the Bank of Italy to eight per cent.

The Paris Bourse was flat at 66f. 45c.

There had been threatening disturbances at Athens.

There had been a strong concentration of Roman troops on the Danube.

WAR NEWS FROM THE STATES.

ST. JOHN, May 17, 1864.

A special despatch from Gen. Grant says that offensive operations are necessarily suspended until the road becomes passable. The army is in the best of spirits.

The two armies are now concentrated on the main road from Fredericksburg to Richmond.

The 'Evening Post's' despatch says that it is believed a six weeks' campaign will be required to take Richmond.

Grant is reported to have said it would be a 4th of July job. He is evidently preparing for another great battle.

The Commercial's special despatch has rumors that Lee has received heavy reinforcements from the South.

An official despatch says that Sherman, after two hard days fighting, has forced Johnson to evacuate Resaca on Sunday night; unofficial despatches place Sherman's loss at about 3000. Johnson's railroad communication with Atlanta has been severed.

The siege of Fort Darling is progressing; the outer line of the works was carried section by section by assault.

ST. JOHN, May 18.

Gen. Lee is strengthening his position, and it is reported that Beauregard's force slipped by the beleaguering Federals on Tuesday and probably joined Lee.

It is reported that the Confederates have but few troops at Petersburg.

Richmond papers say that all the damage done by Federal raiders to railroads have been repaired and that Lee's communications are intact.

Butler is reported as having received large reinforcements, his combined force numbering about 60,000, enabling him to march a large force against Richmond. He is gradually overcoming Fort Darling.

Gen. Sherman has established head quarters at Resaca. He captured there 1,000 prisoners and eight guns. His troops are in hot pursuit of Johnson, who is probably retreating to Atlanta.

In attack on Butler on Monday morning, Beauregard was reinforced by Longstreet's Corps. Enemy lost from 1000 to 1500. Butler after repulsing enemy decided to fall back from Fort Darling, behind a new line of entrenchments, retiring in perfect order, except Heckman's brigade, which was badly disorganized, and Heckman captured.

Sherman following up Johnston. The two armies in sight of each other two miles East of Kingston.

Late advices say Wednesday's battle not been renewed, but Federal lines slowly and steadily advancing on enemy.

Tribune's and Times' despatches think next considerable battle will take place on North Anna River, whither both armies are tending.

Supposed strong force on hills beyond Spottsylvania Court House is enemy's rear guard.

Post's despatch says Grant is preparing for grand contest.

Times' correspondent with Butler says his withdrawal from field on Monday to entrenchments cannot be regarded as a defeat, as object aimed at was fully accomplished, to wit, occupying attention of enemy garrisoning outer defences of Richmond while Rantz cut Richmond and Danville Railroad.

THE WAR NEWS.

THE Mails from the United States continue to bring tidings of the late frightful battles in Virginia, and it is gradually coming to light that the Federals achieved no important success over the South, as the telegrams first proclaimed. The slaughter on both sides has been very great; and while the civilized world must look with horror on the fearful sacrifice, there will be hope that where destruction of life and property proceeds with such awful strides, national exhaustion must soon come on one side or the other, and then there will be an end to the abominable strife. We have devoted a very large portion of our space this week to the details of the first four great battles, besides the telegraphic news which briefly chronicles the subsequent battles. This heavy draft upon our space has compelled us to omit much other matter of a local character.

The St. John Freeman, received by the Mail on Saturday night, speaking of the late battles, says:

"The fighting still continues in Virginia. Grant continues this desperate contest as no Federal General ever did before, as perhaps none could have done. He seems to have gained little by strategy so far, and to have depended mainly on sheer hard fighting. The carnage is frightful, and so far his real gains seem to have been small, for Lee fights well and desperately, and is ever ready to renew the contest, and often is the aggressor. Still Grant seems to be gaining ground, although at so fearful a price. General Lee's falling back is not quite of choice. No General would fight such battles merely to draw his opponent on, and if the news of the opening of the battle of Thursday, the eighth day of incessant fighting, be correct, the Federals then gained a decided advantage, and the Confederates lost severely; but as Grant advances his difficulties increase, and he must lose many more men before he gets to Richmond. Probably about one hundred thousand men were put hors de combat on both sides during those eight terrible days.

ARRIVALS FROM EUROPE.—Nearly all the English ships have now arrived, and Merchandize has been brought into our City in great abundance. Reference to our advertizing columns will show that our Spring trade has opened with great activity; and our fair readers will have no difficulty in learning where they can procure the latest fashions and the most charming novelties in fancy goods.

THE FRENCH IRON CLAD NAVY.—A special correspondent of the London journals visited Cherbourg last February, and was allowed to examine the French fleet there and pick up information from the officers in command. The writer gives the preference to the French iron-clads over the English, being more easily managed and steered, and making better weather. The French officers are of the opinion that both the English and French governments will have eventually to give to engines and coal the weight now appropriated to armor plates, abandoning iron-clads altogether. They believe that vessels which will steam faster and carry more coal will be better worth having than iron-clads like the Solferino and Magenta. In the matter of guns, they ridicule heavy ordnance, and their favorite is a gun throwing a 32-pound round shot or a 64-pound bolt, the guns having three plain grooves for the bolts. On the Solferino and Magenta the guns are all breech loading 100-pounders. In the park of artillery at Cherbourg the great reserve of guns is of the unpretending pattern of 1810, and in the park at Toulon the great reserve is as ancient as 1760.

Holloway's Pills.—Liver, Lungs and Kidneys—A large number of internal maladies from obstructions, over the removal of which these celebrated Pills exercise the most perfect control.—A course of them is strongly recommended as a remedy for almost all chronic affections—as liver complaint, congestion of the lungs, torpidity of the kidneys, and other functional disorders which cause much present suffering, and if neglected lay the foundations of incurable diseases. Holloway's Pills are especially adapted for the young and delicate; their gentle and purifying action places them above all other medicines. Indigestion, nervous affections, gout and rheumatism, these Pills have raised for themselves an universal fame. They expel all impurities from the blood, and thus restore cheerfulness and vigour.

The Steamer Heather Belle left Charlottetown, for Summerside and Shediac on Tuesday morning last, and up to her arrival off Sea Cow Head, the weather was all that could be desired. Suddenly dark clouds arose in the North West, and in a few moments a heavy squall came down, accompanied by rain. On arriving at Summerside, the wind and rain gradually subsided. On nearing Shediac, the steamer encountered large quantities of floating ice and a dense fog, and for some three hours she had to grope her way into port by means of the lead, steering between large pans of ice, at "half speed," and "stop her" were the orders constantly given. She arrived safe at Point du Chene, at about 10.30. p. m. On her way to Summerside, the Steamer passed the Bark Commodore, Caffray, master, from Liverpool, off Tryon, bound to Summerside, with goods for the Hon. James C. Pope and others.

"QUI VIVE."

LONDON AND LANCASHIRE FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

The second ordinary general meeting of proprietors was held yesterday, at the Baltic, Threadneedle-street; Mr. F. W. Russell, M. P., in the chair.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Mr. Clirehugh, the manager, having read the notice convening the meeting, the report, of which the following is a copy, was taken as read:

"The directors, in presenting their second annual report to the shareholders, have pleasure in bieng able to submit a statement of business exhibiting a large increase over the previous year: in fact, the income which has been reached has seldom—if ever—been obtained in the second year of any company. The premiums for the year 1863 amount to £65,049 11s. 5d., those reported last meeting were £22,246 19s. 3d.; showing an increase of £39,802 12s. 2d, or 160 per cent. The amount paid and provided for losses is £22,410 19s. 10d., being about 34 per cent. on the gross premiums, or 36 per cent. on the net amount. The accounts of the company will be open for the inspection of shareholders at the London and Liverpool offices three clear days before the meeting. After payment of all outgoings, including losses, reassurances, general expenses of management, expenses consequent on the formation of branches and agencies at home and abroad, and commissions, and also the payment of two half-years' interest to proprietors at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum—the directors are enabled to add to the reserve fund the sum of £12,000. The various establishments of the company at home and abroad have exhibited great zeal and diligence during the year, as the increase in business abundantly testifies, and the best thanks of the shareholders are due to the various branches, district superintendents, and numerous agents. In those districts where the London and Lancashire is not yet represented the selection of influential agents occupies the careful attention of the board. The directors have very recently secured the services of a committee for Edinburgh; and, from the position and standing of the members, they look for an increase of business from that quarter."

The Chairman observed that it was always pleasant for directors to meet shareholders under circumstances such as those in which they assembled on the present occasion, when they had no apologies to make, but to congratulate them on the prosperity they had attained. He might say the progress of the company was most satisfactory, and to some extent unparalleled, proving that it rested upon a sound basis. It was in some degree owing to the confidence placed in the directors, and in some degree to personal exertions, that they had been able to extend the business of the office as they had done. The increase of premiums received in 1863 over 1862 had been little short of £40,000. (Hear, hear) So large an increase could scarcely be expected to follow in every future year, for the results of the last year were really something unprecedented, but there were indications from which they could form some calculations in the results of the two first months of the present year as compared with the two first months of the past; and these, be it remembered, were, generally speaking, the two worst months of the year; but taking the comparative returns of these two months for the two years as the basis, they had reason to expect that the present year would show an increase of £27,000, over that of the last. If they could keep the ball rolling in that manner, they would soon roll it up to a very respectable size, and he submitted that what had been accomplished was a sufficient encouragement for them to persevere in a course which promised so much advantage ultimately, and prove to every man the advantage of belonging to a company which, in the face of so much competition, could in so short a time show such results. He ought also to mention that the business for the two years already exceeded that of many companies that had been long established, and it might be safely said that they had thus soon arrived at that stage of business which entitled them to look with confidence to a most successful future. The losses had been quite within bounds; indeed much less than the average rate of ordinary years. They could not of course account for extraordinary years, but looking at the usual results their losses had been less than the ordinary average, according to the calculations of other offices. The number of agencies formed already exceeded 500, placed all over the world.—He need not add that in the formation of the company and extending its operations over so wide a base, considerable expense must necessarily be incurred. Wherever there was a civilized spot at which business could be done with a fair chance of profit, the proprietors might rely upon it that that business would be sought after. It might be interesting to state that not having an agent at Valparaiso they were in no way concerned in the losses arising from the great fire there. Having reminded the shareholders that they each had an individual interest in promoting the business of the company, and pointed out how much could be done by their co-operation with the directors in this way, he concluded by moving that the report be received and adopted.

Mr. Alderman Dakin seconded the motion.—It could not but be a subject of congratulation that although they had agencies in every part of the world, they had escaped loss from the conflagration at Valparaiso. He observed in their list of directors and officers that below the name of F. W. Russell, which gave so much weight of public confidence to the company, was that of W. P. Clirehugh, the manager, and he was sure he spoke the unanimous feeling of the board when he said they were greatly indebted to that gentleman's untiring exertions for their success.—(Hear, hear.) The fact that the premium income, which in 1862 was £24,977, amounted in 1863 to £65,049, not only evidenced the soundness of the institution, but likewise its management. (Hear, hear.)

The report was then adopted unanimously.

M. Bown (Liverpool) said that, with a view to the extension of the business in Liverpool, it had been thought desirable to add to the number of the Liverpool board, and four gentlemen had been selected whose influence was very extensive, and who had, since overtures were first made to them, brought considerable business of their own, and whose interest would tend considerably to the advantage of the company. He moved that Messrs. E. H. Harrison, E. Musgrove, J. G. Robinson, and C. Wigg be added to the Liverpool board of direction.

The motion was seconded by Alderman Hale, and carried unanimously.

The directors retiring by rotation, viz., Messrs. Alderman Hale, J. H. Mackenzie, J. E. Naylor, G. M. Bown, and G. Kendall, were unanimously re-elected, as were also the auditors, Messrs. Allen and Banner; and a vote of thanks to the directors in London and Liverpool concluded the business.

A vote of thanks to the Chairman was next passed; and on the motion of Mr. Colchester, seconded by Mr. Alderman Hale, a similar compliment was paid to Mr. Clirehugh, to whose exertions, the mover said, they were largely indebted for their prosperous condition, and whose urbanity and knowledge of business were known to all who were brought into communication with him; and the Chairman, in putting the resolution, added that no vote of thanks ever given to a public officer was more merited.

Mr. Clirehugh briefly expressed his acknowledgement, and spoke of the great exertions of Mr. Gale, the Liverpool agent, whom he described as a most indefatigable officer, and the valuable assistance rendered by Mr. Coleman, the submanager, and the other officers of the company.

[The Honorable Doctor Young is the Agent in Prince Edward Island for the influential Company above referred to.]

A FIRST RATE OPENING FOR SPRING.

To Farmers, Merchants, Shipbuilders, Tanners, and Mechanics

THE UNDERSIGNED has been instructed by the owners to offer FOR SALE, or RENT, several VALUABLE FREEHOLD and LEASEHOLD PROPERTIES and FARMS in BELFAST and other parts of the Island, in good heart and ready for cropping this Spring, for which good valid titles and immediate possession can be given.
ALSO—Several BUILDING LOTS in that most advantageous mercantile situation, "SUMMER HILL," adjoining Montague Bridge, 10 miles from Georgetown, where close on to 150,000 bushels of produce are annually shipped, nearly all paid for in cash. Americans and other speculators purchase here, and ship for Great Britain, the United States, &c. &c. &c.
A number of Stores, Wharfs, a Meeting House, Post Office, and a Temperance Society established for sometime, with many Grist and Saw Mills, and Cloth Works in the vicinity; where also any quantity of all kinds of Lumber can be had, in trade, at low rates. "SUMMER HILL" property is the only Freehold one for sale in the place, which renders it most desirable for the above class of Artisans, now so much wanted in this little village in its infancy.
A STORE, and Dwelling in it, capable of holding 15,000 bushels of produce, with a double Wharf and site for Lime Kiln, will be sold cheap or let, the 1st May next.
Buildings will be erected, if desired, and at moderate rent to good tradesmen, members of any Temperance Society, who will meet with every encouragement, and trade taken in payment.
A Temperance Hall and Farmer's Club will shortly be erected at Summer Hill. Close on to £70, in cash and material, has already been raised for this purpose, with a free site for any extent the building may require.
The inducements held out to temperance men to settle down in this locality ought to cause the Lots for sale there to be purchased at an early day. Such a good chance, on such easy terms, seldom occurs. And, indeed, some of these Lots are already looked for.
A Temperance Hotel or Boarding House is now much wanted in this locality.
☞ Plans, particulars, and any other information can be obtained by calling at the office of Messrs. BALL & SON, Surveyors and Land Commissioners, Charlottetown; W. SANDERSON, F. P. NORTON, THOS. ANNEAR, Georgetown; JAS. BROYDRICK, Campbeltown; F. W. HUGHES, Examiner Office, Ch'town; and to the owner of "Summer Hill" property.

Great Attraction!!
Rare opportunity for purchasing Building Sites.
22 LOTS.

THE PUBLIC are respectfully informed that an opportunity now offers such as seldom occurs. That valuable piece of ground heretofore known as the Barrack Square, will be sold on the spot by PUBLIC AUCTION, on Tuesday, 14th June next.
Great care has been taken to lay out the various sites in the most judicious manner, so as to combine the useful with the ornamental. A handsome esplanade, sixty feet wide on the entire sea face, has been reserved as a Promenade and carriage drive for the beauty and fashion of the city, and the spot, which embraces one of the most enchanting and picturesque panoramas, bids fair to become this favorite resort of all.
Now that a noble line of steamers connects our city with the neighboring continent, the time has arrived when an HOTEL must be built;—here then is the spot upon which to raise a building suitable to the requirements of the numerous visitors who visit our shores in pursuit of health, business and recreation.
Hour of Sale—11 o'clock, a m.
