Muzz Patrick To Coach N.Y.

By AL COLLETTI

NEW YORK (CP) — Murray (Muzz) Patrick, general manager of New York Rangers for the last seven seasons, was named Friday to replace all-star defenceman Doug Harvey as coach of the National Hockey League club for 1962-63.

Harvy last month quit after one season as coach, but agreed to return as a player at a reported salary of $30,000 that probably will make him the highest paid star in the NHL.

As player-coach—the only one in the NHL — he guided the Rangers to fourth place and a berth in the playoffs. But Harvey turned down another season at the Ranger helm for personal reasons, one of them being his decision to keep his family in his native Montreal.

Patrick, who coached the Rangers for 18 months in the mid-1950s, also will keep his job as general manager, joining George (Punch) Imlach of Toronto Maple Leafs and Sid Abel of Detroit Red Wings, who both are manager-coaches.

NO RAISE INVOLVED

Patrick said he will not get more money as manager-coach, but he pointed out that his contract with the Rangers makes him one of the highest paid executives in the NHL.

The Rangers also announced that former goalie Emile (Cat) Francis, who for three seasons has coached their farm club, Guelph Royals of the Ontario Hockey Association Junion A, will help run the front office as assistant to the general manager.

"I expect Francis to become my right hand," Patrick said.

Francis, 35, who played 12 seasons as a goalie in pro ranks before a shoulder injury forced him to quit in 1959, will help run the club in workouts and take over some of the duties of handling the farm system that includes five pro clubs and 12 amateur affiliates.

Patrick said Harvey and the veteran Bert Olmstead, drafted from Toronto for $20,000 last June, will help run the club when necessary.

PRESSURE ROUGH

Patrick admitted that the pressure in the NHL on a player coach and a manager-coach," Patrick said. "My job will be much easier."

Patrick predicted that in 1962-63 Harvey, 38 next December, should be a better player without the extra tension although he was outstanding last season and was voted to the all-star team for the 10th time.

"Harvey has too much pride to do anything but the right thing.

"He has the greatest ability to play a man short. He can guide the puck anywhere. His puck sense is the greatest I've ever seen."

Prove to yourself that Purina cow conditioning pays off! Feed Purina D & F Chow at a rate of 1 lb. of feed for every hundred lbs. body weight. ## Tracadie Takes Game

Action last Sunday in the Souther Queens Baseball League saw Tracadie Cross win the opener in the best-of-three final series by downing Fanning Brook 2-1 in a keenly played game at Tracadie.

Howard Court led off the second inning with a single, to be followed by back to back singles by Kenny MacNally and Gordon MacInnis.

Fanningbrook's only run came in the top of the fifth inning. After one was out, John MacDonald hit a single and three more one base knocks followed. Tracadie also scored in the last of the fifth and that marker proved to be the winner. James McNally hit safely, stole second and scored on Edwin Lund's blast to right field. Fanningbrook tried too hard to get the equalizer but just couldn't drive men home when they got on base.

Louis Lund went the distance on the mound for Tracadie Cross, scattering ten hits and striking out four. J. P. Handrehan scattered nine hits over the nine innings. He faned none.

This Suday, September 9, action will resume at Fanningbrook. It should be one of the best baseball games this season. Action starts at 2 o'clock.

Calling ball and strikes was Floyd Jay. On the bases Kenny Fitzpatrick and Bruce McInnis made the decisions.

Junior Abbies Even Series; Whip Summerside 11-4

Charlottetown Abbies clobbered Summerside 11-4 last evening at Memorial Field to square their best of five final series for the Island Junior baseball crown at 2-all with the deciding game slated for today in Summerside at 2 o'clock.

The winners of today's game will play Vaughn Furriers of Dartmouth in a best of three N.S.-P.E.I. series for the right to meet the N.B. representative for Maritime crown. The first game in this set will be played at the home of the Island winner with the second and, if necessary, third game being played in Dartmouth.

Starting and winning Jackie Lane and reliefer 'Lefty' Dunn tamed their Summerside opponents on three hits and all four of the Summerside runs were unearned.

Lane worked six full innings, allowing two hits and walking one while Dunn, working the last three frames, gave up a single and struck out six. The hit went to leftfielder Romer Sewchuk who was the only batter to get on the baselines during Dunn's stint on the hill.

OTHER HITS

The other two Summerside hits went to second sacker George MacNeill and pitcher-rightfielder Terry Carrier.

Richard Perry, Terry Carrier and Paul MacWilliams shared the pitching chores for the losers and gave up a combined total of seven hits, the longest a double by moundsman Lane off Carrier in the 5th inning.

Perry, the starting and losing pitcher was knocked out of the box in the first inning with three runs scored, two runners on the basepaths and none out. Carrier took over from Perry and lasted till the seventh inning when he was relieved by Paul MacWilliams. Carrier was charged with six runs.

Four singles, two walks and two errors accounted for six of the City team's runs in the opening inning.

Jimmy Duffy, Alan 'Posty' Connolly and Emmett Ellsworth led off with singles in this frame, Ellsworth's bingle driving in Duffy. With runners on first and second Perry walked Bobby Rice to load the bases and then forced another run home by issuing a free pass to Keith Doyle before being relieved by Carrier. The relief hurler struck out the first player he faced, Wayne MacDougall, but the next sticker, Reg McClintock, stroked a single that scored two runs. McClintock stole second, went to third on a fielding error and came home on a passed ball.

The locals counted one run in the fourth, one in the fifth and the last three in the seventh.

The visitors scored their first run in the third inning, Richard Perry going to first on a fielders' choice and making it home on a three-base fielding error.

Four errors and a hit batter accounted for the other three Summerside runs in the fifth inning.

Top sticker for the winners was Alan 'Posty' Connolly with two singles in four outings.

The following officials handled the game: — plate - Coke Grady; bases — Bill Coughlin, Jimmy Allen.

The Abbies leave from Jimmy's Taxi at 12.30 today for their trip to Summerside.

Souris Bantams Are Ready For New Brunswick Foes

By ED CLINTON
Souris Bureau of The Guardian

King's County was divided into two sections for the Maritime playoffs. Georgetown defeated Morell in one section and are waiting for the other section to declare a winner. The second section comprised Peakes, Mt. Stewart and Vernon River. Vernon River has lost every game to date leaving it a battle between the two King's County League teams. Vernon River had been re-enforced for this series by the addition of two of the top pitchers in the KC league, Lorne MacIntyre and Erwin Connolly.

BANTAMS TO N.B.

The Souris Bantams are going to New Brunswick this weekend to play off in the Maritime semi-finals. Rumors have it that their opponents will be Bathurst, but, when this column was written, Souris team officials had not, as yet, officially heard who they will be playing. This young team has stirred up more baseball interest in the town, than we've seen in a long long time.

Best of luck, kids.

On Wednesday evening past, the largest crowd of the season in Souris were on hand to witness the Town League playoff game. Even the top teams in the King's County League did not draw half as well as the Town League finals are doing. It is really wonderful the way parents and others are finally showing a keen interest in the youth of the town. And the best part is that their interest should not wane for lack of good ball. The boys are coming up with some good hitting, pitching and fielding.

Larter's Centertowners are leading the finals two games to one against the MacLean's Uptowners. The last two games of this series were split, and in each case the better team won. The less said about the first game the better. Anyone at that game knows exactly what we mean. The series resumes on Sunday afternoon with the final game being played on Monday evening. And by that we are expressing the opinion that the series will go the limit.

CORRECT YOU ARE

We have been accused of bias in regards to this series, and those accusers are one hundred per cent correct. We favor the Uptowners. Not because of the fact that this writer is helping out in the coaching department, because that only started since the finals began. The main reason is the accusations thrown by the Centertowners at this writer. They have stated that this writer is not permitted to umpire any games in which they participate because this writer is supposed to have favored their opposition in all games they played during the schedule.

This charge is so ridiculous that we will not even attempt to argue the point. But, if this is the treatment one gets after putting in the hours this writer has put in with the youth of this town, especially in basketball and baseball, then, it should be understandable that remarks of this nature are certainly hard on a person's feelings. Quite naturally, we resent their implications, and even more, it hurt more when their coach backed up the team.

It may be vengeful, but, we cannot cheer in any way for the Centertowners.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUS CALLAGHAN

Giants Fight Back

SAN FRANCISCO Giants were really on the comeback trail when we sent this column to bed last night.

Alvin Dark's men had just finished a four-game stand at Dodger Stadium and had managed to grab three of the four games. This edge in the crucial series left San Francisco only one and one-half lengths behind the Dodgers who looked like a sure bet just a few days ago.

However, the Giants grabbed the big ones this time. Usually on such occasions, the Giants have played dead and allowed the Dodgers to run away with the battles. But this time they nearly swept the works and only for John Roseboro's steal of home in the second game, the Darkmen might easily be leading the league today.

NOW the teams meet no more this season unless a post season playoff is necessary. The other eight teams in the league must decide who will represent the loop in the world series in October.

Right now the Giants are entertaining the lowly Chicago Cubs in a three-game set while Pittsburgh Pirates are visiting the Dodgers for a similar length of time. After these three-game stands, the teams merely change opponents for a few days.

So you can readily see that the Cubs and Pirates will have a lot to say about the outcome of this pennant race. This is particularly true of Danny Murtaugh's Bucs who host the Giants in four games next weekend. These Pirates can make or break the Darkmen and you can be sure they'll go with their best in an effort to halt the Giants' victory march. After this coming series at Los Angeles with Bucs and Dodgers, the two teams see no more of each other until next April.

You Can't Figure

IT'S utterly foolish to start predicting how Dodgers and Giants will fare against the other clubs. The teams you're supposed to crush is the very one that will rise up and knock you all over the field. The team you've been walloping all season is the one that suddenly takes a notion to destroy your pennant hopes.

Dodgers and Giants have plenty of supporters who are looking ahead to the 'soft' games for their clubs. From here on in, there's no such thing as a 'soft' game. Everyone is a tough battle in the homestretch and the lowliest outfit is the one who may cause the most grief.

The Birds And Tigers

A COUPLE of weekends ago, Baltimore Orioles surprised the baseball world by sweeping a five-game series from the powerful New York Yankees. This was something that no one believed would ever happen but it did and Yankees' pennant hopes were in jeopardy for a while.

Now any team that could sweep five in a row from the Yankees must be a bit special. At least that's the way you would figure but Detroit Tigers used a different line of reasoning. They smacked their lips every time they saw the Orioles and in 18 meetings, they clipped the Birds 16 times. Nevertheless when this was written, the Detroit club was 9½ lengths behind the New Yorkers. Of course, in fairness to the Tigers, it must be noted that their great pitcher, Frank Lary, and their star fielder, Al Kaline, were casualties the club had not counted on. Had these two had a healthy season, things might have been very different with the Motor City club.

The Battle Rages

THE Dodgers have played one more game than the Giants and if we're reading our schedule right, things should balance out next Wednesday when Giants are at Cincinnati and Dodgers are idle.

Right now the Cubs and Pirates hold the whip and it depends which one can use it the hardest. Perhaps neither team can bring Dodgers and Giants under submission. Perhaps both can and then there's a strong possibility that one will be much tougher than the other.

It's a honey of a battle but these things are nothing new to this National League. They have been staging such photo finishes for a long time and there is a good chance they'll continue for many years to come.

Meanwhile the turnstiles click merrily and club operators smile even in defeat.

Race Program Set For Local Track

Another interesting eight-dash harness racing program is scheduled for Charlottetown Driving Park tonight.

All classes are exciting-looking affairs but dashes two and six appear to hold a bit of an edge. Here Walter Downe takes Dr. P. MacIntyre's Janet M away on the rail and this bit of an edge will make the Montague mare difficult to head. However, she has a strong opposition in Blue Sky Lark, Lola Hal, Jolly Abb and Morley's Pride. Any one of the five has the abilities to head the parade each time out.

Dashes four and eight see seven classy pacers in action with the number one spot occupied by Harry Poulton with Jolly Dick. Other competitors are Primo, Doctor F.C., Gay Laird, Here Am I, Williard's Choice and Lizzie Clegg.

A honey of a battle can be expected in races three and seven with Irv Averill, Princess Mark, Simcoe's Magic, Scottish Light, Edward M and Captain Chief, all in search of top honors. These are two dashes that could steal the spotlight from the rest of the program.

Eight starters are listed for dashes one and five and here also competition likely will be mighty keen.

It shapes up like one of the better harness racing programs of the season and it's likely a large crowd will watch the excitement.

First dash goes promptly at 8 o'clock.

Blue Bombers Nip Rough Riders 31-28

By STUART LAKE

OTTAWA (CP) — Winnipeg Blue Bombers, helped by a piece of Ottawa strategy that backfired, scored a 31 - 28 win over Ottawa Rough Riders in an interlocking Canadian Football League game here Friday night.

A crowd of 21,050—largest of the season at Lansdowne Park—watched Riders concede a safety touch with just over three minutes left and Bombers leading by a single point.

The win gave Winnipeg a four-point lead over Edmonton in the Western Conference Standings.

They now have won five games and lost one.

Ottawa remains the leader in the Eastern Conference with four wins and two losses. They lead Hamilton by one point but have played two games more than the Tiger-Cats.

Leo Lewis paced the Winnipeg victory with two touchdowns. Gerry James and Henry Janzen scored the other touchdowns. James converted all four touchdowns and Jack Delveaux rounded out the Bomber scoring with a single and a safety touch.

Ernie White had two touchdowns for Ottawa. Other Rider scorers were Bobby Simpson and Whit Tucker. All four Ottawa touchdowns were converted by Moe Racine.

BUILD BIG LEAD

Winnipeg built up a 14-0 lead in the first half and at one stage of the third quarter was leading 28-7.

But Riders came back to tie the score at 28-28 early in the final quarter.

Just as things had started to brighten for Ottawa, the Bombers showed an other facet of their fine club — its kicking. Delveaux, subbing for the injured Charlie Shepard, punted on third down deep into the end zone for the go - ahead single, 29-28.

Minutes later, after an Ottawa drive had failed, Winnipeg took over and ground out the yards and the minutes. With three of the later remaining, Ottawa held on second down and forced another punt.
